Dilworth Dots.

Dilworth was visited by a fine rain a few days ago. Everything is green and spring-like. Every farmer has a smile on his face and an implement in his hand, while hands are in demand. Sorry to report the little babe of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jones ill, but at the present is somewhat improved. Glad to report Mrs. Brieger much improved at this writing. The W. O. W.'s held a called meeting here Saturday night. Court was also held in our burg last Friday. Mr. Henry Foster and family visited relatives near Nickel Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jones visited Shiner last evening. Mr. Henry Foster and wife visited Gonzales Saturday. Mr. Schultz of Shiner attended court here last Friday. Messrs. W. W. Johnston, H. C. Von Struve, Bob Nixon and others visited our burg last Friday. Dryer was also well represented, but ye scribe was not fortunate enough to learn the names of these

Mrs. W. E. Foster of near Gonzales visited in our burg last week, the guest of Mrs. Mat Smith of this place. B. H. Jones, Jr., attended church at Guadalupe Sunday. Mr. C. L. Teter visited Shiner last Monday. Master Paul Sinderman visited homefolks Saturday and Sunday. Messrs. B. H. Jones, Mike Dolan, Phil Goodwin, Willie Williamson and A. Knezek visited Gonzales last Sunday and Monday, also Buck Dufuer and John Radigan. Health of the community poor. Jessamine.

Dryer Times.

Well, here we come again. The weather had been very pretty the last few days and the farmers will all start in with their work in the field again. Mr. Frank Herberg of Yoakum was seen in our burg Sunday. Messrs. Kurt and Leon Franke of Sweet Home were also here Sunday. Mr. Frank Klohs, Sr., and son, Arthur, returned home Wednesday from a several days' visit to relatives at Floresville. Mr. Klohs is very well satisfied with the country up there. Misses Annie and Louisa Paged Shiner were visiting relatives here during Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neighbors were visiting at Yoakum Sunday. Mr. Carl Schroeder was in Dilworth Friday on business. Come again, O. K. Valley Scrub; we always love to hear from you. So I will close. Yours truly, Clod Hopper.

Drver Dustings.

As Mr. Bailey is making his goo-goo eyes about his re-election as U. S. senator from Texas, I will drop in for a while. The rain which we needed came last week and so the order of the day is planting Irish potatoes and corn. How glad we are to see all the flowers and grass coming and we feel as though we were in Paradise. Mr. J. C. Neighbors and wife were visiting relatives in Yoakum Sunday. Mr. J. P. Holley and brother, Tom, were visiting their brother, Mr. Will Holley, of near Cuero. We are shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Fritz Boening, which occurred while walking around the house. Oh! say, "Judge Knowtall," Sunday, while promenading the streets, I saw a familiar face, which proved to be Kurt Franke. Had he come to answer "Triple?" Sunday Mrs. J. C. Neighbors celebrated her forty-sixth birthday by having cornbread and cabbage for dinner. Mr. Paul M. Fahrenthold and Ernest Krause were in Yoakum Sunday. There will be court in Dilworth Thursday by Judge R. I. Moore and Constable J. P. Boothe. Mr. Leon Franke was here Sunday visiting friends. Mr. R. I. Moore and Ferd Gerdes attended the meeting of the Hochheim Fire Insurance Co. at the Turner Hall Sunday. As I hear "Jack of Clubs" tuning his fiddle in a far distance, I guess I will listen to Arkansas Traveler, so I will bid you adieu. "Spid."
