ANTON BARDOVEKY

Wm Dickson came in on the train from Yoakum last week and handed us the following, with the remark, 'Here, put this in your paper. I have just got through taking Dr. Weyman's treatment at Yoakum for the whiskey habit, and I would not feel right if after I found a good thing I did not let my friends and others know it.'

Shiner, Texas, Feb. 7, 1896.

To my Friends, Neighbors and humanity Everywhere:—This is to certify that I went to Yoakum four weeks ago a desperate, disconsolate man; a man without hope, health or happiness. I had heard of Dr. Weyman through my friend Henry Quota. I resolved to give him a trial. I had heard he had cured Jeff Michna, Randolph Cadwell, Tom Plume, G. Eilers and A. E. Hagen; all of them as had after "red eye" as I was. I said if he can cure them and they stayed cured like they have, I said I would try him a lick myself. Friends, I was drinking a gallon of whiskey day and night. When I went to Yoakum I had grass-hoppers after me. Well, my friends, I thought I was a gone fann-skin, but here I am to tell you that Dr. Weyman has a treatment that will raise a dead man. He has a treatment as far ahead of the other treatments as a Jersey cow is of a she goat. That is not all of it—he is a man that will treat you right. I hope that mother, wife or sister who has a dear one that they will do all in their power to have Dr. Weyman treat them. I tell you God has sent this man to do this work. After I went to Yoakum I found men and women he had cured of all kinds of diseases—snuff, tobacco, whiskey, beer, morphine, chloral, catarrh and nervous diseases. I hope that all who read this will give him a call. You will find him in the Wangemann building, room 2, Yoakum, Texas. Consultation free. No cure no pay.

WILLIAM DICKSON.

Mrs Alfred Kubitz, of Moulton, was here last week, the guest of Mrs C I Jaeggli.
