Artistic Work.

Mr. G. Flury, Moulton's talented scenic artist, completed his work here of painting the scenery for the stage at the opera house last Friday. The work was most artistically and beautifully done and reflects credit on Mr Flury. The next play presented will be "Rio Grande," by J. C. Habermacher and troupe, of Flatonia

State of Texas,
County of Lavaca.)

To the sheriff or any constable of Lavaca County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded that you summon R A Clifford to be and appear before me, Justice of the Peace in Lavaca county, at my office in the town of Sweet Home, Prec't. No 3, on the 3rd Saturday of March, A D 1896, at ten o'clock a. m., the same being a regular term of said Justice court, to answer to the complaint of J. A. and M. E.
Wolters, February 1st, A D, 1896, for debt on account for dry goods and groceries to the amount of $174

Herein full and of this writ make due return as the law directs.
File number of Suit being 572.

Given under my hand this, the 15th day of February, A D, 1896.

L. TAMPKKE,

Justice of the Peace, precinct No 3, Lavaca county, Texas.

The other day a monster catamount was killed near Victoria and taken into the city by Adam Heibel, and attracted a large share of attention from the curious and idle people about the streets. The animal was of enormous size, more resembling a mountain lion than an ordinary catamount, and in a stand up fight would undoubtedly have shown Mr Fitzsimmons a far better time than was shown him by Prof Maher. The catamount was discovered by Mr Heibel on the limb of a tree in the Guadalupe bottoms, a short distance from town. Luckily Mr Heibel had a Winchester rifle with him and sent a bullet through the catamount's brain at the first fire. It is said that there have been some monster catamounts seen in the Peach creek bottoms, above Moulton Institute lately. They are great fighters.

H. N. Flato and his little son were returning from Flatonia in a buggy Sunday night, when the buggy broke down just this side of Moulton. Mr Flato, his son and dog mounted one horse and rode home bare-back, leading the other horse.

Death of Will Grant.

Will M. Grant, well known here, at Yoakum and his old home Victoria, died at Smithville Sunday morning after an extended illness.
He had been in the drug business in the latter place during the past year. He was here for several weeks a short time ago and sank rapidly after his return to Smithville. The interment took place at Victoria Monday eve. He left a wife and two little daughters to mourn their loss. Mrs Grant is a daughter of Grandma Carnes of this place. His many friends will be greatly grieved to hear of his death. He was about thirty-five years old and was a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen.
