EDITOR GAZETTE:

Pshaw, here I have sat for the last two hours trying to hitch the news together and make a long train of thoughts, but my thoughts don't look much like a train, but remind me more of a picture of a string of monkeys trying to cross a creek. They (my thoughts, not monkeys) have worried me so that I have pulled half of my hair off the top of my head, or at least it feels like it, as I didn't have much hair to begin with, but now Mr. Editor, this is just between you and me, for should it get out my cake would be all dough, especially in the way of matrimony, so you see my future matrimonial bliss depends on this being kept a profound secret. Since I have mentioned matrimony it reminds me, so I will mention it right here, that I am a candidate for the office of matrimony. I say this, as I hope to get a goodly number of the votes cast for that office, in the coming contest.

Say, for the benefit of those who are not acquainted with me, and wish to know who Jake is, I will tell you, or at least give you a description of myself. I am Jake, the son of Jake's father and Jake's father is my dad. I am the Jake of Dilworth, i. e. Dilworth's Jake, I live in the suburbs north of Main street, corner of Gossip Avenue. With the above description, you who have made inquires cannot fail to find me, and I cordially invite you all, when in Dilworth to make our shanty your headquarters, dad and me will do all we can to make you feel at home.

Miss Hattie Thomason, of Winchester, is visiting the Misses Minton this week.

The democratic convention met in Gonzales Saturday. Several from Dilworth attended.

Henry Bell, of Gonzales has been visiting relatives at Stonewall the past week, but returned to Gonzales Sunday.

Say, who was it that came up from Leesville to see his best girl, but was left almost foot-back before he left? You should watch your horse a little more instead of your girl.

Did you ever hear one of Dilworth's guns? Don't they sound very much like a torpedo? Pshaw, you needn't run, or resort to singing "After the Ball," as both would be equally foolish.

Don't mention it, the torpedo stays, don't he?

J. B. Kennard returned to Gonzales Sunday, after a short stay in our city.

Dr. Minton has been appointed post master at this place.

Well, if I don't get out to see you all next week, you may suppose I got killed by one of the big guns.

I'll chip off, as you all have concluded. JAKE.

Sunday a Great Church Day.

Sunday, the Catholic Knights of Texas held services at the Catholic church here. The attendance was enormous, there being hardly standing room in the church. Music was furnished by the Firemen's Cornet Band. At the conclusion of the services the line of march was taken up to Ferd. Morris' house, where dinner had been spread for the Knights. Father Benes conducted the services. The day was warm and showers fell during the morning.
