A CATHOLIC SHOT BY ONE OF THE ORDER.

Another Old-fashioned Kentucky Killing, and More Trouble is Feared—A Row in a Catholic Church at Hartleton, Pa.—English Investing.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 25.—A special from Palatka, Florida, says: Yesterday morning John Kane was shot in the head and dangerously wounded by Ernest Wolfe. Wolfe is a German and a member of the A. P. A., while Kane is an Irish Catholic. Wolfe is under arrest and Kane may die. About a month ago Dunford and Nix, A. P. A. agents, who were trying to organize a lodge of the society at Palatka, were set upon and nearly beaten to death for saying that all Catholic women and all Catholic priests were immortal. The shooting yesterday was the outgrowth of that affair. Feeling runs high between the factions, and it is feared that there will be further trouble.

Another Kentucky Shooting.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 25.—A special from Hopkinsville, Ky., says: A fatal shooting affray took place Saturday night at a country store near Pilot Rock, nine miles east of here, resulting in one man being killed and another probably fatally wounded. Neel Edwards shot and instantly killed Samuel Martin, with whom he had some trouble. John Martin a brother of the man killed, and Jas. G. Edwards, father of Neel, drew their weapons and began firing at each other. They continued until both pistols were emptied. James G. Edwards was fatally wounded and Neel's horse was killed under him. The affair has stirred up bad blood in the neighborhood, and more trouble is feared.

A Row in Church.

HARTLETON, Pa., March 25.—During a riot yesterday at St. Casimir's Polish church at Freeland Victor Ilnyok and Peter Yoski were fatally and James Travinski and Joseph Dutch were less seriously injured by the weapons of the police, and Chief of Police James Gallagher and Officer Jones of the police force were cut and injured by stones thrown by the crowd. A factional fight has been waged for a year in the church and the enemies of the pastor, Father Mazotta, attempted to prevent the men from firing the church. His police escort was attacked by the mob and the officers fired on them.

All Clear Now.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 25.—Thirty years ago John Hazard, a merchant of Scottsburg, Ind., near Jeffersonville, collected a large sum of money and started for Louisville, ostensibly to buy a new stock of goods, but he never returned home. His wife and two children believed him dead. The daughter, Addie, married and died, leaving three children. Two days ago the son, George E. Hazard, who is a poor man living near Scottsburg, received a letter from Kansas stating that his father had died there leaving an estate valued at $60,000, which he had willed to his wife and two children. Hazard will go to Kansas immediately to claim his fortune.

Bribery Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The senate bribery investigating committee has sent the testimony taken in the first part of its inquiry, relating to the attempted bribery of Senators Hutton and Kyle, to the printer and expects to report to the senate within a few days the result of its investigation in this direction. The report will exonerate Senators Hutton and Kyle in the matter.

Eleven Men Killed.

CHATELAIN, Col., May 25.—Eleven men killed, with a strong probability that the number of dead will be increased when all is known, is the record of the first day of trouble here, although the real fighting has not yet begun, as the deputies are awaiting reinforcements before beginning active operations. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning eleven men started to work in the Strong mine. Shortly afterward a large party of strikers blew up the shafthouse with powder, causing a loss of $25,000, and then dropped 100 pounds of giant powder down the shaft, which was also exploded, killing all the inmates. Not more than 300 yards from the Strong shaft house sixteen men who had been engaged to go to work in the Independence mine were surrounded in their bunkhouse, and after a long parley agreed to surrender. Each one was armed with a rifle and a brace of revolvers. They are now in possession of the strikers.

A Most Furious Mob.

ASHLAND, Ky., May 25.—At Olive Hill, Ky., Wednesday night, a desperate effort was made by a mob of 100 men to lynch Henry Hensley, the night operator of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at that point. For several months preceding the recent killing of Calvin Scott by his son James Hensley had been clandestinely meeting Scott's pretty 15-year-old daughter and a quarrel over this led to his death. After confession by the son public indignation was strong against Hensley and lynching was openly talked of. The mob formed about 9 o'clock while Hensley was on duty. He telegraphed the state of affairs to the chief dispatcher and left the office, escaping by a rear door. Under cover of darkness he made his way to an engine in the yards and escaped. The mob became enraged at losing its game and ransacked the depot and did considerable damage. Young Scott, the murderer, was removed to Grayson for safe keeping.

A Brave Preacher.

GUTHRIE, Ok., May 25.—Rev. G. W. McKinney, known all over the southwest as the cowboy preacher, who founded the town of McKinney in the Cherokee strip last fall and became postmaster, justice of the peace, notary public, preacher, editor and township clerk, has just added new laurels to his achievements. A few days ago a party of outlaws abducted Miss Viola King, aged 15, from her home near McKinney. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the parties and McKinney himself headed the posse that started out in pursuit. He has just returned, bringing the girl whom he recovered from their clutches in Beaver county after a chase of over 200 miles on horse back and a lively battle, in which the outlaws were compelled to run, leaving the girl and their camp equipment behind.

Kentucky Tragedy.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 24.—A special from Pineville, Ky., says: James Middleton, Sinclair Middleton and a Shackleford were shot and killed in Harlan county Tuesday in a fight with Gilbert Slayter and Bert and Nobe Hensley. The news was brought here yesterday, but the particulars are meager. There was considerable excitement after the affair, as the men are all well known. The sheriff and posse left Harlan courthouse for the scene of the fight to arrest the men, who have fled to the mountains. The difficulty is said to have occurred over the wife of one of the men.

Hutchison, known as "Old Hutch," the famous board of trade operator, Millionaire EG Crum, another operator, a hotel clerk named Blanchard, and bartender Hixon, engaged in a rough and tumble fight at McCoy's hotel Thursday night, and Hixon was stabbed in the thigh by Crum. The quarrel grew out of a heated argument, and all the combatants were freely pounded before outsiders could separate them. Hixon's wounds are not dangerous and Millionaire Crum was not arrested.

Supposed Victim Alive.

JACKSON, Mich., May 24.—John Van Inman, serving a life sentence in the state prison for murdering his brother-in-law, John Crow, in 1885, was seen yesterday. He was overjoyed when told of the report from Muncie, and that Crow was alive and on his way to Jackson; but said that he had always felt sure that he would return some day. Thus far Crow has not called at the prison, nor is his name on any hotel register in the city.

A Valuable Bail.

Jacob Toms of Port Deposit, Md., went to Washington City the other day to call some bonds. He received $60,000, and in order not to attract attention to the large sum of money, had the bills done up into a sort of paper ball which he carried in his hand. He is an old man, and when he got off the train he forgot all about the money, and left it lying on his seat. Some young men that were on the train picked it up and amused themselves by tossing it back and forth, throwing it on the floor when they left the car. The conductor called after them that they had left their paper ball, but they paid no attention to him and went on. Shortly afterward the conductor received a telegram, telling him that the package contained $60,000, and asking him to take care of it until it was called for. It almost took his breath away.

Group is Contagious.

Bacteriologist Herman M. Riggs of New York, has made a report to the board of health of the results of his investigations into 268 cases of so-called "membranous croup." He says that his observations justify the conclusion that the disease is nothing more or less than laryngeal diphtheria. He recommends that membranous croup should be put on the list of contagious diseases, concerning which reports from physicians to the health board are required. It is said that the recommendations will be adopted.

Some British Expenditures.

The total expenditures of the British government postoffice telegraph service during the last year were £166,682 more than the total receipts, which were £2,526,312. There is a total balance of £269,700 of expenditures over receipts, covering the whole period since the state took over the telegraph service from the private companies.

Ancient Birds.

A collection of bird bones recently received by the Paris Academy of Science indicates that at a period contemporary with man, Madagascar contained at least twelve species of the gigantic birds, all incapable of flight. The conditions under which the bones were found indicate that the birds lived on shores, with troops of small hippopotami, crocodiles and turtles.

D Fays Some.

The patents applied for in Washington last year numbered 40,000. The total number of patents outstanding on Jan. 1 was 545,000. The receipts of the patent office are $1,200,000 a year and the expenses $150,000 less.

The Yellow Glow of the Horizon.

Painted on the sky by the setting sun, is beautiful. Not so the yellow glow of a face tinged with bile. And oh! the unexpressed discomfort that bile in the wrong place produces. Twinges in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, nausea, vertigo, sick headaches, constipation, faulty digestion. Not in an instant can the symptoms of biliousness be dispelled, but persistence in the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will eradicate them, restore regularity and regularity of the bowels, and counteract tendencies to more aggravated complaints, which an interruption of these functions begets. Indigestion, acidity of the stomach, biliousness, and inability to sleep are also remedied by this gentle purgative and restorative of nerve force and tranquility. A few bottles of this golden medicine will be unfeignedly and promptly. A wine glass full three times a day.

ASIDE from the fact that the cheap baking powders contain alum, which causes indigestion and other serious ailments, their use is extravagant.

It takes three pounds of the best of them to go as far as one pound of the Royal Baking Powder, because they are deficient in leavening gas.

There is both health and economy in the use of the Royal Baking Powder.

A Mistaken Goal.

A curious instance of superstition is related as lately happening in China. The Grand canal at Hunglo has recently overflowed its banks twice, causing a great deal of destruction and suffering. Li Hung Chang, the governor general of the province, has caused a formal investigation of the matter to be made and officially announces that the overflows were caused by the Jevitts of the river god, who had concealed himself in the canal there and was annoyed about something. A number of natives claim to have seen the god about in various disguises at different times. Orders have been issued for the erection of a temple on the spot to pacify the uncanny deity. It may be noted that the only conceptions that the Chinese have of deity are malevolent spirits, with more or less power over man's destinies, whose anger is to be averted and appeased on all occasions.
