MOULTON.

IT'S LOCAL NEWS.

MOULTON, TEXAS.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

Splendid rains have fallen and crops are in excellent condition.
The democrats held their primary here Saturday. Delegates to the county convention go instructed for Lane for congress and uninstructed for anyone else.
Hon. Walter Gresham made a short speech here Friday night.

A large crowd of Flatonia people were down Saturday to help Moulton hold her convention, for which Moulton is truly thankful.

A small party of Moultonites went down to the Guadalupe river
Saturday on a fishing expedition, returning Sunday.

Fred Lueke and Alex Kotzebue spent a few hours in Shiner last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Burns, a beautiful and accomplished young lady of Flatonia, was visiting in Moulton
last week.

COUNTRY BOY.

MOULTON INSTITUTE,
MOULTON, ILL.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

If you will allow me space in your valuable paper, I will try and write a few items from our little village.

Mr. Dave Hughs has gone to Wichita on a visit and to look out for a new home.

Mr. Herford and his daughter,
Mrs. Frank Walker, went to Wel-son on a visit last week.

A hop was given at the residence of Mr. Hooper last Friday night for the benefit of the little folks.

We learn that Mr. Zannia King is on the sick list.

Mr. James Johnson, Sr., went into the woods west of the Institute the other day and cut two bee-trees, from which he realized 80
pounds of honey.

Ed White, of Flatonia, was in our midst Sunday.

We learn from our post master, Major Holmes, who tendered his resignation as post master some time ago, that there is some hope of our post office being retained a while longer yet.

Will Leazer took a lot of plums
to Flatonia last week and sold them for fifty cents a bucket.

Plenty of watermelons are being grown in now.

Mr. Morgan, of Flatonia, was in our village Sunday to see his best girl.

Look out for a wedding soon.
Joe Spears informs us that he will go to Hallettsville next week to stand an examination for teacher.

John Coleman is all smiles now;
another daughter.

The colored population are going to celebrate the 19th at Moulton in the Lavaca Park.

Ed Clark spent Thursday and Friday with his father and then returned home.

John Tannenberger says that the world might be round, but you can't make him believe that the Mississippi River runs up hill. He says that Mr. Maury is not the only smart man in this world.

The convention at Moulton instructed for Lane for congress and Schliecher for land commissioner.
There was quite a crowd present.

Well, as my news are getting scarce I will come to a close, and besides it is pretty near time to feed the hogs.

OSKREVEN.

On account of the state Republican League to be held at Fort Worth June 11th and 12th, the S. A. & A. P.
Ry will sell round trip tickets to that point, via Waco, at one fare plus 50 cents, limited to return
June 15.
