IT'S LOCAL NEWS.

MOULTON, TEXAS.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

Quite a large crowd of democrats were in town Saturday to attend the primary.

There was a ball at the platform and Janssen's pasture last Friday night.

Ed Arnim came down from Fla-tonia Friday and remained a few hours.

Fannie Arnim and wife came home Thursday from Hope, where they have been on a visit.

Col. C. K. Reeves and Master Henry Vaughan were in from Nickel Saturday.

T. F. A. C. and Fred Jackson and G. E. Hamill came home from Galveston Friday.

G. Buescher Sons have put an electric light plant in their oil mill. "Onward and upward" is their motto.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson and her charming daughter, Miss Alice, spent a short time in town last Saturday. They were the guests of Mrs. Woodley.

There were services at the Catholic church Sunday.

G. W. Crosby, of Gonzales county, had a wagon load of fine peaches in town Saturday.

Mrs. H. B. Woolley went down to Nickel Saturday afternoon and stayed over Sunday visiting her friends.

The many friends of Jack Dool-ery are speaking of taking up a collection to buy him a horse. It goes to their hearts to see Jack walk home from the country and bring his saddle to his hands.

It is still hot, dry and stifling, but we are not going to stick as long as the heat lasts.

CLARENCE BEE.

VALLEY VIEW FARM.

I was reading a copy of the Hallettsville Herald last week which is something I seldom do, I came across the astonishing remark that "some little one-horse correspondent of the Shiner Gazette over in Con-zales county has been asking himself on the new court house question," saying further that "it would be advisable for the little one to attend to his own business." Now wouldn't that kill you? I have always heard that the dog that was hit would be the first to yell, and I guess that somebody was hit, for he sure yelled. Excuse me while I cry.

Last Saturday morning about nine o'clock every one at Valley View Farm was startled by a long, keen blast from a steam whistle and every dog in the country tucked his tail and ran under the house. For a moment we did not know from whence the sound came, then we thought of J. B. Tucker and his new mill and gin and a shout went up from the multitude rejoicing over the fact that our country is still progressing.

The social hop at Richard Tyken's new saloon last Saturday night was all that the lovers of poetry of motion could desire. The sweetest music was furnished by the Holly Bros., our local band, and the refreshments were simply splendid. Dick says he is going to give us another one before he moves in. All we can say is let 'er come.

Win. Wisemann, of Shiner, spent Saturday night here, going home Sunday.

The Misses Frank, of near Shiner, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Turk.

Mr. George Washington, an indirect descendant of the great old general, and Mr. Mills, (not R. Q.) both respected citizens of Fayette county, came down and took up claims for another year on the Green plantation. More patrons for the GAZETTE.

Mr. Editor, you are authorized to announce that Valley View Farm will vote as a unit for Bill Jones for sheriff of Gonzales county and for all other men who are nominated by the democratic party.

A whole wagon load of Boaux and Belles of Shine spent Sunday near here on the river.
