ITS LOCAL NEWS.

MOULTON, TEXAS.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

The first bale of new cotton was sold here yesterday. It was raised by Stephen Janata and sold to Ed. Boehm. It was classed as good middling weighed 563 pounds and brought 64 cents per pound with a glass of beer as a premium.

I have been feeling so bad since the barbecue I could not get up any news this week; an awful sorry but can't help it.

COUNTRY BOY.

(We extend our sympathies; we know just how you feel. We have been there.—Ed.)

Moulton Institute.

MOULTON, INER.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

After another nice, refreshing shower we are tempted to write again. Grass is beginning to look fine and there will soon be fine grazing for stock which will be a great blessing, as a great many around here were feeding their stock on account of no grass.

Miss Della Hamill who has been at Comstock Tex. arrived here Sunday.

Mr. E. W. Walker has gone to Corpus Christi. His best girl is down there you know.

We hear the blowing of the gin whistles around, so we infer from that cotton is beginning to come in.

There was a hop at the residence of John Coleman Wednesday night. We thought it was about time that John was given a dance.

We learn that some of our people here will attend the big to do at Yeakum on the 28th.

Mrs. Jane Franks is visiting Dave Hughes and family.

A. F. McKay and wife of Moulton were visiting Wm. Cooper and family Sunday.

Dr. Lancaster of Moulton passed through here on his way to Will Hill's whose baby is still very sick. Tom Leazear, Tom Cherry, Major York and others went scinning last Monday. We did not learn what success they had.

Miss Lizzie Franks and Philip Nolan went to Gonzales last Wednesday returning Thursday.

Harley Anderson contemplates taking another trip to Kerr county.

Miss Mollie Franks has gone to Houston to visit relatives.

All those living in Moulton Institute and vicinity wishing a first class shave and hair cut should call on the tonsorial artist Fannin Ar-
