MOULTON. IT'S LOCAL NEWS.

MOULTON, TEXAS.

EDITOR GAZETTE:

How to save your Dollars.

G. Buescher Sons, Moulton's enterprising ginners and millers, are doing a splendid business this year, and why?—Because they do good work for a low price and give universal satisfaction. Crows of farmers from the vicinity of Witting and even from Flatonia and all that surrounding country are bringing their cotton to Buescher Sons. Farmers living in the vicinity of Nickel, Witting, Moravia, Moulton, Baurville and Flatonia can save their dollars by coming to Buescher Sons.

Miss Minnie Carson will teach the Nickel school this year.

F. T. Fehrenkamp withdrew from the ticket for justice of the peace, in favor of F. J. Helweg. Mr. Fehrenkamp would have made a splendid justice but his business would not permit of his accepting the nomination. Mr. Helweg will fill the position with honor and credit. Here's congratulations, Fritz.

Henry Bell, a rising legal light of Gonzales, rode into town on his bicycle Saturday.

Columbus and Prof. Walker, of the Institute, were in town last Saturday.

Cotton rolls, rolls in. It is fun for Fred but rough on Aleck; you ought to see him sweat.

Mrs. Weddington spent several days in Gonzales last week attending a protracted meeting.

Mr. Turner is with us again taking life insurance.

Henry Neimeyer returned home to Berclair Monday.

Misses Mand and May Chatham visited friends in Flatonia last week.

Tom Leazer had the misfortune to get his hand very badly hurt by a gin saw at White's gin one day last week.

Several of our young men attended preaching at Flatonia Sunday night.

Mrs. Allis returned from a visit to Hallettsville.

Miss Allie Moore left Monday for Dallas where she goes to attend the Oak Cliff college. She was accompanied by her father.

Hugo Buescher went down to Shiner Sunday.

Mrs. Hampil is visiting friends in Terryville this week.

Mr. Gafford left Sunday for Laverina, where he will stay a few days and return with Mrs. Gafford, who has been spending the summer
