

ALL OVER THE WORLD

HAPPENINGS OF GENERAL INTEREST TO ALL.

A Comprehensive Epitome of Serious and Sensational Events Condensed from all the Leading Dailies for the Past Week.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence, a daughter of George M. Pallman, to the Prince of Isenburg-Birsteln, the eldest son of Prince Charles of Isenburg-Birsteln and the Archduchess Marie Louise of Austria.

Notwithstanding a partial denial made by the Southern Pacific company, it is continuing an unrelenting persecution of 600 men in West Oakland, Cal., who recently went on a strike.

A purse of $25,000 has been offered by Kansas, Indian territory and Texas citizens for the Corbett-Jackson fight to take place at Wagner, I. T., where there is no law to prevent such a contest.

A terrible hurricane recently swept over the sea of Azoff, Russia. The force of the wind raised heavy waves which destroyed many of the seacoast villages, not leaving a house standing, and drowning a large number of people.

Near Kalamazoo, Mich., having mistaken his wife at the bedroom window for a burglar during a shower before daylight one morning recently, young Frank Proteau, who was aroused in bed, shot her through the heart with his revolver.

Hobbes attacked the residence of a wealthy Jewish farmer named Biberovic, in the village of Beshowin, Austria one night recently and murdered the whole family, which numbered eight persons besides Herr Biberovic.

Recently the police of Ciudad Juarez, Mex., while raiding a rendezvous of thieves, found a well appointed counterfeiting outfit and the thieves were at work making Mexican pesos of lead when discovered.

Little Theresa Hart, aged 3 years, was left alone in the kitchen of her home, at 1730 Waterloo street, Philadelphia, recently, while her mother went into another room.

At San Francisco, Cal., a few days ago August Breckenfeldt, one of the handwriting experts in the Mars will case committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

News has been received from Lakeview, Ore., that a mob of masked men surrounded the county jail one night recently and forced the jailer to surrender a prisoner named W. S. Thompson. The mob hanged Thompson on the court house steps.

A Russian steamboat, with a hundred passengers on board, sank in the river Chokana during a recent storm. The captain and five other persons are missing and are supposed to be drowned.

It is reported that Grand Duke Paul Alexandovitch, the youngest brother of the emperor, is betrothed to Princess Maud, the youngest daughter of the Prince of Wales.

The Wagner Palace Car company has filed in the New York railroad commissioner's office their annual report, which shows gross earnings of $4,268,254; expenses, $2,812,792.

Senator Hill expects to be an attorney in the first case that is brought up testing the constitutionality of the income tax provisions of the new tariff law.

At Louisiana, Mo., recently, John Irby, 39 years old, was shot and killed by Oscar Purgahn, a farmer, whose wife Irby had assaulted.

Two boats collided on the Schuylkill river recently at Reading, Pa., and two young ladies were drowned. Their bodies were recovered.

Representative Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee, will call for Europe Sept. 15, to be absent about three weeks.

Four persons were killed by a train a few days since while crossing a bridge near Worcester, Mass. They were walking the bridge.

Several persons were seriously injured at Orange, N. J., recently by an electric car running away, jumping the track and capsizing.

The pope has written a letter to M. Tardieu, formerly under secretary of state, condemning the papal alliance to the French republic.

It has just been discovered by the grand jury in Memphis, Tenn., that hundreds of saloons have paid no license for eight years.

It is officially denied in Mexico that the importation duty on corn is off this year, as the crop is abundant there is no need to import.

Canada's cabinet has been called together unexpectedly, to consider new phases of the Behring sea situation, it is reported.

It is said labor organizations will establish headquarters at Washington for the purpose of influencing legislation.

Mr. Waterman of Dorchester, Neb., has 30,000,000 bushels of corn which he expects to sell for about $22,000 in social gold.

Poloto has placed Rio de Janeiro in the hands of troops, but his friends say a little rioting is the worst that can happen.

The convention that shall seal the fate of Congressman Brockbridge of Kentucky, will be held at Lexington on Sept. 15.

Chicago banks have refused to advance $2,000,000 to the whisky trust on the security of the spirits stored in Peoria.

Tennessee Republicans scratched the Hoak machine and nominated ex-Congressman Henry Clay Evans for governor.

ALL OVER THE STATE.

Interesting Killings on Various Subjects Taken from the Daily Press.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Louisiana, Mo., recently, John Irby, 39 years old, was shot and killed by Oscar Purgahn, a farmer, whose wife Irby had assaulted.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Fort Worth recently, while driving to her home at Arlington Heights, and while crossing the bridge of the Clear Fork, Mrs. A. A. Green saw a woman seated in a tent on the bank of the river with a child in her arms and crying bitterly.

At Forney, Kaufmann county, Jas. Oglesby was severely hurt recently. He was hauling large logs to the saw mill when, in crossing a slough, the wagon was suddenly turned over.

The notorious Stephen Calvin Howard, wanted at Birmingham, Ala. for murder, at Savannah, Ga., and at Ennis, Tex., for killing an officer, has been arrested and is now in jail at La Grange.

A freight train was wrecked on the Southern Pacific the other night near Edridge, 292 miles west of San Antonio. Two cars rolled down a thirty foot embankment.

The rate on flour from Dallas to Abilene is, under the railway commission tariff, 17 1/2 cents per 100; the rate from Galveston to Abilene, though about three times the distance, is the same.

At Huntsville the other day two children of Frank Hatch, colored, got hold of a pistol supposed to be harmless and while fooling with the weapon it was discharged, killing the younger, aged 2 years.

Moore Jernigan, son of A. J. Jernigan, Democratic candidate for treasurer, fell out of a boat at the dam above Austin recently and was drowned before assistance could reach him.

The other night thieves entered Mr. Blackshear's residence at Navarro and stole a lot of jewelry, Mr. Jim Freeman's watch, Blackshear's watch and $25. The entire loss is about $20.

In drilling a well on his farm four miles west of Ranger, Eastland county, Sam Jones was an unemployed miner when he was about twenty eight inches thick.

J. L. Foster got up the other morning at Grapevine, Tarrant county, and found his pants hanging on the yard fence, minus $10 in cash and his store key.

Albert Loeber, aged 36, was found dead in his bed at Danison recently. Deceased was a bartender. Death seems to have been due to heart disease.

"Mary Taylor," in jail at Dallas charged with counterfeiting, upon examination proves to be a nun. The prisoners "knagarood" him.

The rate on flour as fixed by the railroad commission from Dallas to Decatur is 20 cents; from Galveston and Houston it is only 17 1/2 cents.

At the request of Representative Fayers $185,000 has been transmitted by the treasury department for the work on Galveston harbor.

There is a contest of the recent prohibition election in Limestone county. The Antis won by 120 votes. The Pros have tied a contest.

The rate on flour as fixed by the commission from Waco to Abilene is 22 1/2 cents; from Houston and Galveston it is 17 1/2 cents.

The city council of Rockport has passed resolutions inviting President Cleveland to visit that city and take a fish.

E. P. Cantrell has filed suit for $1000 damages for personal injury, against the street car company of Paris.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Makes you weak and weary, unfit for work, incapacitated to exertion. Say show that your very strength is gone and that your nervous system needs building up.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures system needs building up. The sweet remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, creates an appetite and gives sound, refreshing sleep.

FREE! THIS KNIFE! The Largest Manufacturer of PURE, HIGH GRADE COCOAS AND CHOCOLATES

WALTER BAKER & CO. The Largest Manufacturer of PURE, HIGH GRADE COCOAS AND CHOCOLATES

WALTER BAKER & CO. DORCHESTER, MASS. Their BREAKFAST COCOA, is the best in the world.

McELREES' WINE OF CARDUI. The Great Spirit. For Female Diseases.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.

DR. WM. A. BOXELL, The Eminent Specialist. Davis International Cream Separator.