John Wesley Hardin's letter in Saturday's Gonzales Drag Net created a profound sensation here and further developments are looked for with breathless interest. The general verdict is that bloodshed is almost inevitable.

Schulenburg has been infested with numerous curios the past week. The one-legged Siamese twins, old woman selling lead pencils, patent lamp man, snide show, beggars, professional fakirs, etc., head the list. Nearly all of them are going further south, where the climate is warmer.—Schulenburg Sticker.

Your fakirs are different from what we have here. Ours are going to Waco, where they all have aunts living.

W. M. McMurray has announced by circular as a candidate for commissioner from the Yoakum district from Lavaca county. Mr.
 McMurray is a good farmer and a good citizen and old democracy will have to see that he is kept out of politics. J. D. A. Meyer is the man for commissioner from this district.—Yoakum Graphic.

Right you are. J. D. A. Meyer is the best commissioner we ever had.

The New Brick Buildings.

The new brick buildings on West Main street present a most imposing appearance. The front is made out of Elgin pressed brick and stone trimmings in a neat and pleasing design. They have a vestibule entrance, with large plate glass windows on each side and openings are semi-circular with the inside 35 feet, without any supports in the center.

The firm of Meurer & Weiding of Lagrange, architects and builders, is certainly a trustworthy one.
 Their work on these buildings was eminently first-class. People say the building is one of the handsomest and the finest the best of any building of its kind in the county.

Blood on the Moon.

If blood is not shed in Gonzales soon it will be surprising indeed.
 Last week W. E. Jones, democratic nominee for sheriff, came out in a eye in the Daily charging B. R.
 Coleman, populist candidate for sheriff, with having made false statements about him in public.
 Saturday's Drag Net contained a column and a quarter letter from Jno. Wesley Hardin which severely attacked Jones' record while sheriff and made other serious charges against Mr. Jones, whose courage is well known and a conflict will undoubtedly occur. In Hardin's letter he makes use of the following language:

"As to Bill Jones, he has sold you out in the past and I believe he will do it again when the oppor-

EDITOR GAZETTE

Last Sunday there was singing at the Methodist church by the choir. We would like for all the young people and old ones too, to come out and join us, as it would be a great help to the choir. Mr.
 Hampil and wife of Moulton were at singing Sunday.

Mr. Hampil has disposed of his cattle and corn and contemplates leaving this country.

Joseph Spears called at E. W.
 Walker's office last Sunday to help him translate "Sic Semper Tyrannus."

The school at the Institute is growing gradually. There were forty-one scholars in attendance and think it will close this week with fifty. There are a great many of the patrons keeping their children at home now on account of cotton picking.

I see that Joe has harvested his first crop of moustache since last week. I guess he wants to see if he can raise another crop before frost.

Dave Hughs made a round trip last Tuesday via Moulton and Flatonia. He will soon move into his new home he recently bought.

W. S. Coons passed through here the other day on his way to Moulton.

Mr. Cobb and James Johnson went to Flatonia last Tuesday on business.

S. T. Spears has sold his farm.
 Miss Maud Chattam thinks of leaving us soon.

Last Wednesday while Mr. Hamil was closing a gate his team became frightened and there came very near being a run-a-way scrape.

Prof. Walker went over to Moulton Tuesday and got a hair-cut, shave and moustache trim. "Sure am good lookin', ain't I?"

Some of our young ladies attended the ice cream supper at Mr.
 Dochery's last Saturday and sure got left in the cold.

We hear of a wedding soon.
