EDITOR GAZETTE:

I am always glad when the GAZETTE'S day comes around. And I think everyone of its readers are also glad when the paper arrives— anxious to read the different correspondents' letters, besides other good work. I believe it is one of the most newsy little papers that I have ever read; and not only that, the editor, Mr. Ward, I believe is a gentleman in every respect and deserves great credit for his enterprising little paper. He is one of those little "dried up" sort of fellows, but he's all wool and a yard wide. Eh?

Light the Best in the World

MONITOR

I think that every person who can read the English language should send in their subscription to the GAZETTE. If the readers don't want to take my word for it, please apply to Mr. Maury's rival for further information.

Phil Nolan is wearing buckskin gloves now. Bleaching I suppose.

John Tannenberger says since he has moved to his new boarding place, he has to go out to the barn to play his fiddle to keep the dogs, cats and other domestic animals from deserting the place. Remember John what I told you, "If you don't succeed, then sue-eggs," and I think you will come out all right.

Still the wedding bells are ringing and harder the times are.

Sunday School every Sunday at 9 o'clock in the Methodist church.

W. J. Cooper is hauling lumber to build on his farm north of the Institute. He seems to be in a great rush.

The "West Texas Gymnasium Club" is under full headway now. Some of its members can perform some of the most daring feats.

Rev. T. Leach and family left for their new home in Yoakum last Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Morgan, of Platonia, at several days visiting friends and relatives this week at the Institute.

Mr. A. L. Willford, of Seguin, formerly of the Institute was down a few days this week attending to some business.

Mr. L. B. Westcott, of Shiner, came up Thursday to visit friends and relatives. He is attending school in your city.

Anyone wishing grist, hominy or first-class meal should call on Jno. Tannenberger & Co., millers, Moulton Inst. All orders will receive prompt attention.

Mr. H. S. Anderson, who moved from Moulton to Kerrville, is sick with slow fever. We also learn that Miss May Walker, of Mountain Home, Texas, is very low with slow fever. She has been sick about twenty one days.

Mr. G. E. Hamil went to Yoakum Friday to look him out a place.

Rev. Fouts, of Gonzales, filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Miss Mand Chatham left Saturday for San Patricio where she will teach school.

Mrs. Lizzie Patterson has moved into her new home she recently purchased from Rev. Leach.

Mrs. Annie Nolan paid Mrs. Gunther, of Moulton, a pleasant visit Saturday evening. XX
