HALLETTSVILLE.

Hallettsville, September 26—Friday no less than thirty-five prospective teachers were here trying to run the gauntlet of the county board of examiners, composed of Prof. Peterson, Mair and Bryant. The examination is being held in the court house. Very few apply for a first grade certificate.

Iron rods have been placed both ways through the lower story of court house, which recently began cracking again. Several years ago it cracked badly and was then well rodded, but it seems not enough to prevent new scares about it trying to fall down.

Many Jews from neighboring towns came here to spend the holidays with relatives and friends. Thursday was observed by all. Religious services were held and all their business houses were closed.

A great deal of corn is being marketed here at 35c per bushel. The crop is said to be the best ever raised in the county.

The Editor met and conversed with Mr. H. B. Shiner at the depot Thursday. Mr. Shiner is the gentleman from whom the spirited little city of Shiner gained its name and is as proud of the place as a ten-year-old lad would be of a pair of red-topped boots, and he has a right to be, for Shiner is now developing into the proportions of a large town and as a cotton market is far ahead of some of its pretentious neighbor cities. With its handsome new brick buildings and crowded streets, Shiner presents a very busy appearance these glad fall days.—Youkuu Times.

Thanks, Brother Johnson. You and Shiner are all right and will mix it with their neighbors when it comes to cotton and selling goods cheap.

Louis Trautwein received the badge for the Woodmen of the World last week. They are beautiful.

Mrs. Wm. Green visited Yvonne Sunday.

Just received a fresh supply of Stock and poultry food in bulk at C. I. Jaeggli's.

Fresh Krut, cabbage, keg pickles, herring, mackerel, sardines, cream and brick cheese at C. I. Jaeggli's.

Christian Wagener came down town Thursday for the first time in seven weeks. He will return to work again at Seydler & Kiehnburg's in a few days.

It will no doubt be of interest to our Eagle subscribers to know that one of their old bachelors will be married soon.
