became whispered about the jury had agreed upon a verdict.

In an instant a hush fell the little circle that had gathered around the prisoner. Durrant's face, always palid, assumed a ghastly hue, and his mother speechless. Then the door rear of the court room opened the jury filed in and took seats in the box.

Judge Murphy, who had to his chambers, was summoned and took his place upon the
