THE SIGNS OF LA GRIPPE. A claim that it is hardly akin to the influenza.

There are several cases of influenza in the city, there can be no doubt. But there is considerable doubt in the minds of many physicians as to the disease being at all akin to the Russian influenza.

La grippe and influenza consider two different forms of disease. Time may show us that two distinct forms of the same disease may prevail, and each form of course, be subject to many phases.

What I should call influenza, with its sneezing and sneezing, needs little description and little treatment. But la grippe means more it may be mistaken for confusion of the lungs or pneumonia.

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

Many Things to Encourage a Western Editor.

We extract the following from the last issue of The Arizona Kicker: THANKS, GENTLEMEN.—On Monday evening a committee of prominent gentlemen waited on us and tendered us the nomination for lieutenant governor of this state...
