

SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD.
 OGDEN CITY, UTAH.
OGDEN DEPARTMENT.

The branch office of THE HERALD is in Room 2, Snyder's iron building on Washington avenue, adjoining Boyle & Co's hardware store. Advertising rates will be made known upon application to the manager.

THE DAILY HERALD is for sale at all news stands and by all news boys, and is delivered by carrier in Ogden for 25 cents per month. No papers stopped until arrears are paid. Subscribers failing to receive papers promptly will confer a favor by notifying the branch office. Parties desiring papers stopped or addresses changed must notify the branch office.

E. A. LITTLEFIELD, Manager.

SATURDAY, March 8, 1890.

City in Brief.

Gum boots are in demand.

The Ogden river is rising, but is not yet doing any damage at present.

C. B. Atterbury, of Salt Lake, will open up a set of abstract books in this city.

Sunshine and showers alternated throughout the day yesterday, and the mud increased in depth.

The high waters have carried away a bridge and severed culverts on the road between Ogden and Harrisville.

In the probate court yesterday, in the matter of the estate of John Barker, deceased, petition and order for sale of real estate.

The directors of the chamber of commerce held a meeting Thursday night, but transacted no important business. They will hold another meeting to-night.

The moon got too full to contain herself Thursday night and slipped over, with the result of more thoroughly wetting the already thoroughly saturated ground.

Charles H. Rose, Thomas W. Horn and David G. Talbot have located the Matrux, Mattie B. Horn and Moneta lodge or mining claims, in the mountains east of Ogden, between the mouths of Strong's and Birch Creek cañons.

The Methodist brethren and "sisterhood" are having quite a revival of the spirit, and are said to be snatching sinners bald-headed. The religious boom will not reach its height until the summer. Sam Small commences his engagements in May.

The sanitary inspector was busy yesterday on the low lands northwest of the Ogden river bridge, where some parties are said to have illegally dumped some carcasses of animals and left them to rot and endanger the health and life of the people living in the vicinity.

THE HERALD branch office acknowledges the receipt of literary favors from C. B. Anthony, of the Twenty-fifth Street news depot. Mr. Anthony, who is the Ogden distributor of THE HERALD, has been under the weather for a few days, but is now on deck again and attending to business as usual.

The motion to admit Tod, who killed Desmond, to bail, was successfully argued before Justice Dees yesterday, who fixed the amount at $25,000. Tod was unable to give the bond and was therefore committed to the custody of Marshal Pratt for incarceration in the penitentiary until the meeting of the grand jury. He was taken to Salt Lake last night.

Mr. Richardson, representing a Kansas City syndicate, which has invested largely in Ogden realty, is still in our city and is using his pen to good advantage. In the last Sunday's issue of the Kansas City Times appears an article of great merit, which stamps the writer as a man of sense and discernment. The article is headed: "In the Front Rank"—"A City Building in the Rockies"—"An Incomparable Location for Health and Business"—"Facts About the Mountain Hills and Bobbing Lands"—"Ogden's Remarkable Development from Village to City"—"The Great Railroad Centre of the Far West"—"A Past Success of Tributary Country"—"A Peerless Residence and Sanitarium"—"Superb Scenery in Mountain and Valley"—"The Great American Dead Sea"—"Water from Mountain Hills and Bobbing Springs." The picture is not overdrawn.

The Dargos who publish a card in the Ogden department of THE HERALD and attempt to administer a kick to THE HERALD might do well to keep their nether garments on. The writer of the item which these fellows complain of is too busy to answer many questions, but in reply to the questions: "What are the Dargos? Are they thieves? Are they drunkards? Are they loafers? Are they beggars or tramps?" This writer, who is not responsible for THE HERALD'S opinions, answers that he doesn't know. If the result of sending a copy of the paper containing the objectionable article to "every leading paper of the United States, and also to the American consuls at Washington," will have the effect of decreasing immigration of Dargos and other objectionable classes to the United States, then the article will not have been written in vain.

Streets have been opened through the centre of quite a number of bench blocks, and an effort is being made to continue the good work in other blocks. In some cases it is an easy matter to get the necessary land in the inside of a block, and also the frontage at either end of the proposed street; but in other cases it is different, it often happens that the owner of the frontage on one end of the street which it is desired to open, refusing to sell the land except at an exorbitant figure. Instances are recorded where the owners of vacant land at the end of a proposed street has sought to prevent its being opened by putting up a building on his land. Ogden has about as many dogs in the manager of the species above referred to as any place of equal size in the United States. The city council will be called upon to teach some of the obstructionists a salutary lesson by condemning their property and appraising it at a reasonable figure.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

Continued November Term, 1889, Hon. H. P. Henderson, Judge, Presiding.

Friday, March 7, 1890.—William Driver et al. vs. J. J. Bryant; judgment by default.

N. Y. Backstrom vs. Renhart Olsen; hearing of motion to file amended answer.

C. S. Rogers vs. Wyoming Pacific company; motion for payment on pleadings.

Adjourned until Saturday, March 8, at 10 a.m.

Police Court.

The policemen continued to perform the gathering in act and Alderman Preshaw does the cinching. Yesterday five victims received the judge's benediction, as follows:

Fred Wilson, for drunkenness, was assessed and paid into the city treasury the sum of $9. M. C. Jenkins for a similar offense, paid the same amount.

James Daley, who was in the reverse of opulent circumstances and found guilty of vagrancy, was jailed for ten days.

A. C. McBeth and John Fagan, Frenchmen from Limerick, got on their bear (not rabbit) and were nabbed therefor. They will be abstainious in the use of strong drink during the next ten days, while fasting royally at the expense of the city in the Hotel de Baxter.

AFTER THE BLACKBOARD.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

The Tribune has come out in a respectable new dress, and in its morning issue has well said: "The press is steadily advancing." The Tribune has made a marked advancement in appearance, for instead of the old blue rag which would hardly bear its own weight, we have now presented to the readers of that paper a rather neat looking sheet of eight pages, and almost as large as THE HERALD. What a pity, with the greatly added expense of that paper and its improved appearance, that the change could not be thorough and radical; but I see the same old tendency to untruthfulness and misstatement, which have nearly always characterized the editors of the paper. The old saw is still a trite one, "A leopard cannot change its spots, nor a rhinoceros its skin." The scribe who attended the quarterly conference yesterday says that Elder Hintze intimated that the saints would some day all gather at Jerusalem.

No, Mr. Editor, Elder Hintze never intimated anything of the kind, for as a Mormon gentleman, too soon to suit the American gentleman, too soon to suit the Liberal party, whom they represent! Now, please, Mr. Editor, let me say through your fair columns, the Latter-day Saints have no intention of moving to Palestine or any other foreign country, but that the territory of Utah, and in fact all of America, is to them their promised land. And please, Mr. Tribune, do not insist upon the saints going to Palestine. They are not hunting for a location in any land away from the great American continent; the land of Joseph, the land of Brigham, the land of the latter-day prophets, the land where once was situated the garden of Eden and on which our first parents dwelt. No, no; the saints will never, as a people, locate anywhere outside of the American continent, however much the unchanged (in heart) Tribune may wish it.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 8, 1890.

SHAKEN OUT OF SEAR.

By malarial disease, the human machinery cannot half perform its office. Digestion, secretion, evacuation and disordered, the blood becomes watery, the nerves feeble, the countenance ghastly, sleep disturbed and appetite capricious. Terrible is this disease, fell its consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the malarial poison, and a certain safeguard against it. In malarious regions of our south and west, in South America, Guatamala and the isthmus of Panama, as well as in transmarine countries where the scourge exists, this inimitable preventive and remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has, during the last thirty-five years, been constantly widening the area of its usefulness, and demonstrating its sovereign value. Liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatism and debility are all remedied by it.

Our muslin underwear sale will begin Monday, the 24th. Please see large advertisement. F. AUERBACH & BROS.
