UNIVERSITY REGENTS

The First Meeting of the New Board Yesterday.

DR. PARK ELECTED PRESIDENT.

The Committees Appointed, and By-Laws Outlined the Future Policy are Adopted.

The new board of regents of the Deseret university met yesterday. Dr. Park was re-elected president of the faculty and secretary of the board, and the following committees were appointed:

Executive—Harkness, Sharp, Donnellan, Building—Dooley, Hills, Stewart. Financial—Auerbach, Donnellan, Dooley. Advisory—Donnellan, Sharp, Marshall.

The following resolution and by-laws were adopted: Resolved, That the following by-laws are adopted, but they or any of them may be repealed, amended or substituted provided, or other and further by-laws adopted at any stated or special meeting of the board, and the executive committee, between meetings of the board, may adopt further rules and regulations not inconsistent with these by-laws, which shall be in force until disapproved by the board.

MEETINGS. There shall annually be four stated meetings of the board of regents, held in Salt Lake city, to-wit: One on the second Monday of January, April, July and October, at 2 o'clock p.m. for which no notice is necessary, but it is the duty of the secretary, at least ten days prior to each meeting, to mail to each member of the board a notice thereof, directed to his post-office address.

QUORUM. Six members of the board and the chancellor or any seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and questions before the board may be decided by a majority vote of those present, if there be a quorum present.

COMMITTEES. The chancellor shall appoint the following committees: An executive committee, to consist of the chancellor and two other members of the board; a building committee of three of its members; a financial committee of three of its members; an advisory committee of three members of the board.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Between stated meetings of the board the executive committee shall exercise the powers of the board in the management and direction of the business and affairs of the university, in conformity to the law and the by-laws, and general plans of the board. A majority shall be a quorum and exercise the powers of the committee, but no contract shall be made by the committee, unless in case of absence from Salt Lake city, inability or vacancy. The chairman shall call meetings when necessary, and the name of the university, notes or other obligations for money negotiated by the financial committee to carry on the business of the university.

FINANCIAL COMMITTEE. The committee shall keep minutes of its proceedings and deliver them, signed by the chairman, to the secretary, who shall retain the record of the proceedings of the board.

BUILDING COMMITTEE. The appropriations for buildings shall be expended by the building committee. It has power to employ and discharge at pleasure, an architect; to prepare plans and specifications, advertise for bids for materials and work, accept bids and make contracts within the limit of the appropriations; and it shall be the duty of the committee, as far as possible, to procure materials and work by contract to the lowest responsible bidder. All contracts with bidders shall be in writing signed in the name of the university by the chairman, and certified by the treasurer, with complete specifications annexed and made part of the contracts. The committee may require security from contractors for performance and execution, and general discretion in all matters of detail.

FINANCIAL COMMITTEE. The financial committee shall negotiate loans and provide money for the maintenance of the university and carrying on its business, until appropriations or other revenues are received, and the treasurer to the board or executive committee rules providing a system or method for purchasing supplies and things needed for the university in its various departments; for rendering, auditing and paying accounts and claims in such manner that each account, claim or payment may be made from the proper fund, and show from what fund it is payable has been paid. The committee shall also in a general way inquire into the sources of revenue and ways and manner of expenditure and from time to time report to the board or executive committee or the executive committee regarding the financial condition of the university.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE. It shall be the duty of the committee to advise with the president and faculty in regard to the admission of pupils, examinations, classification, courses of instruction, rules and regulations for the conduct of the university, and concerning any matters of difference arising among the students or between students as to the committee may seem proper.

SECRETARY. The secretary shall give notice of and attend all stated and special meetings of the board; keep a record of the transactions of the board and its executive committee, and certify to the records, documents, contracts, books and papers of the university; perform the duties prescribed by the board or executive committee respecting keeping, auditing and paying accounts and claims; superintend the printing and distribution of documents and reports, and generally render such services as may be required.
