OPPOSED TO SILVER

Senator Morrill Speaks Against Free Coinage.

TELLER MAKES A REPLY TO HIM. He Says the Law of July, '90, Was a Bi-Metallic Measure—Predictions Concerning Its Operation Unfulfilled.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—In the Senate a large number of papers were presented and referred. One was from the chamber of commerce of Seattle, Wash., praying Congress, by more liberal appropriations, to enable the war and navy departments to place the country in a thorough condition of defense so as to be prepared to maintain its national dignity and protect its humblest citizen in any part of the world.

WHAT DUBOIS SAYS

He Gives His Opinion of the Faulkner Bill.

IT SEEMS TO BE A WISE MEASURE. He Would Vigorously Oppose to Stated for Utah—Fears the Mormons Are Not Acting With Perfect Candor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Senator Fred Dubois spoke with great freedom to-day of the bill introduced by Senator Faulkner yesterday providing for self-government for Utah; he said: "I have not examined it carefully and I am not prepared to say that it should be passed without change. Generally, however, it seems to me to be a wise, just and conservative measure."

SHERMAN IT WILL BE

He Will Succeed Himself as United States Senator.

HIS RECORD IN PUBLIC LIFE. Foraker's Gallant Flight—Sherman Compliments Him—The ex-Governor Does Not Want to Cross Swords With Him Again.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 6.—The Republicans of Ohio have spoken, and John Sherman is to succeed himself in the United States Senate. Foraker is defeated, but even defeat, his leadership excites the admiration of the opponents, and he is tonight, more than ever, the idol of those young Republicans who have given him such noble allegiance.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

transmitting the agreement made by the commissioners with the Indians of the Colville reservation, Washington.

FREE COINAGE OF GOLD AND SILVER

Senator Morrill proceeded to address the Senate, and Morrill criticized the speech heretofore made by Stewart on the same subject and spoke in opposition to the bill for the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver.

TELLER CHALLENGED THE EXECUTIVE

for the ground of that statement, and asserting only one Senator (alluding to the case of Newberry) who would not bring silver up to par. On the other hand, more than twenty Senators asserted it would not bring silver up to par.

FULL ACCORD WITH AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS

If they are not honest it would be a far-reaching calamity to give them absolute self-government in Utah. The present bill is a compromise between the two. Jurisdiction over the territory would still remain with the general government, and if the Mormons abuse the added power and privileges given them, the general government can again restrict the franchise.

OBJECTION TO STATEHOOD FOR UTAH

I see no reason for objecting to this measure. I am one of those who fear that the Mormons are not acting with perfect candor and without mental reservations in their declarations against polygamy and church rule in temporal matters.

DENIAL OF A CONFESSION SUSTAINED

DENVER, Jan. 6.—Dr. Graves has been sustained in his denial of the confession he is alleged to have made. On the night Graves was taken to jail, John Adams, vice-president of the Dillon & Adams Manufacturing company followed the officers, curious to see how Graves would behave.

BRING THE WORLD TO THE AMERICAN POLICY or else lead to an international agreement. Dulpent sent to the clerk's desk and had referred to the effect of the speech of Stewart on the subject of the proposed silver legislation of 1890.

IN THE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The House discussed at length the question of referring to the Senate joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the navy to transport contributions for the relief of the suffering people of Russia, and the petition to the effect that the United States extend its aid to the Russian sufferers.

CONFIRMATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Confirmations: Inter-state commerce commission—James W. McMillan of Iowa; William R. Morrison of Illinois, and William M. Lindsey of Kentucky.

FRENCH ARMOR OVER BRITISH AGGRESSION

Paris, Jan. 6.—The troubles at present existing in the Angler district of Morocco and the despatching by the British government of two war ships to protect British interests in Tangier, have awakened a feeling in some French quarters that England has the intention of adding to her territory by forcible acquisition part of the Sultan of Morocco's dominions.

CRISP SLOWLY IMPROVING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Speaker Crisp continues slowly to improve in health.

CLAGGETT vs DUBOIS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—The contested election case of Claggett vs Dubois has been set for the 12th instant. Claggett has been trying to secure a postponement of the hearing, but this will not be granted until he appears before the decisions committee and formally prefers a request, when it will probably be complied with.

A GREAT CATHOLIC CONGRESS TO BE HELD IN CHICAGO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Monday September 28, 1893, a great catholic congress, which will embrace in its representation prominent Catholics from every country in the world where the Catholic religion flourishes, will meet in Chicago and continue in session five days.

CITY OF MEXICO, JAN. 5.—AT A MEETING of the Mexico, Cuernavaca & Pacific railroad construction company here yesterday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Philip Zang, of Denver; first vice-president, H. F. J. denver; general manager, Frank Sturim, of Indianapolis; assistant general manager and second vice-president, J. H. Hamilton; treasurer, A. B. Horton, of Denver; secretary, Charles Wheeler, Denver. It was voted the work should be pressed with vigor on the City, Bolson and Mexico, Cuernavaca & Pacific railroads as far as Cuernavaca. The chief engineer of the two roads was also instructed by the railroad company to contract for the entire road from this city to Cuernavaca by the Pacific terminal of the line, on conditions that it should be completed to Cuernavaca by January 1 next.

THE RIGHT OF SECRET BALLOT

is one of the greatest prerogatives of a free public and that right is rigidly presented at the polls by every law upon the status books. Representative Taylor warned the caucus of the Kansas Nebraska division that he would be by secret ballot the Democratic caucus of 1890. The caucus was held at the residence of Charles G. Price, who murdered P. J. Cunningham on the 18th of last month; J. B. Smith (colored), who attempted to murder Police Chief Mike Donovan a short time ago; E. Stafford and Dan Crowley, charged with safe-blowing and the attempted murder of an officer; William Burke, Frank Sparks and Thomas Cosgrove, highway robbers.

SHERMAN WAS DECLARED THE NOMINEE

On motion of a Foraker man, Sherman's nomination was made unanimous, and a committee appointed to wait upon Sherman and Foraker and bring them to appear. Long cheers greeted their appearance. "Senators, representatives and fellow citizens," said Sherman on being introduced, "I return my heartfelt thanks for the very high honor conferred. I am under obligations in the language of the command. We have just passed through quite a contest, the most formidable ever encountered in Ohio, and I hope more formidable than I shall be called upon to encounter here tonight. (Laughter and applause.) In the contest I held, in language and heart, the highest respect and honor for my competitor. (Applause.) He is entitled to the love and affection of the people of Ohio. Though you have been engaged in a contest, we are all Republicans and I trust every one will be Republicans, true to the cause and principles we advocate. (Cheers.) I again return my thanks for this almost unequal honor. (Applause and cheers.) "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen," said Governor Foraker, "I am informed that so far as you are concerned, the senatorial caucus is ended [laughter and applause] and I return you my hearty invitation to say, so I am concerned, it is also ended. (Applause and cheers.) You did not end it as I had hoped you might [laughter], but into me and mine. (Prolonged applause.) There has been possibly some grasping and friction among us, but at this hour it is our highest duty to remember that from now henceforth we are Republicans always. (Applause.) The people regard this as our feeling to carry home with me. I go back to my profession with mind and heart filled with great respect and admiration for the noble and gallant, intrepid band who honored me with their support in the contest. Senator Sherman says he does not want any more contests like this. (Laughter.) I thank him for the compliment, and vouch to you I do not want ever again."

A FATAL RAILROAD COLLISION

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Early this morning a freight and accommodation train on the New York, Ontario & Western railroad at Smyrna, was run into by a light engine. The engines of both the trains were killed. One man is missing, three men were killed, Engineers Young, of Utica; Sheedy, of Oswego, and Fireman G. S. Smith, of Syracuse. The boilers of both engines exploded some after they struck. The explosion was terrific. It shook the ground like an earthquake, and it was in vain that the men were thrown away and availed of the scene. The engines were twisted and broken into scrap iron.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE B. & O.

FAIRMOUNT, W. Va., Jan. 6.—The Baltimore & Ohio Chicago limited passenger train was derailed here today. Express messenger Charles Applegate and Baggage Master George Hainane were killed and Engineer Scham fatally injured. Thirteen passengers were more or less hurt.

GEORGE HATHAWAY PLEADS GUILTY

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—In the criminal court today, George Hathaway pleaded guilty to the murder of Alderman William Whalen, October 25, 1890, and was sentenced to three years imprisonment. The shooting was the result of a personal and political quarrel. Hathaway was found guilty on the first trial and his life, but his attorneys found certain evidence had been suppressed and secured a new trial. As a result of an agreement between the attorneys the prisoner was today allowed to plead as above on the ground that the killing was the result of a drunken brawl and not premeditated.

PACIFIC MAIL COMPANY TO BUILD BIGGER SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Postmaster General Wanamaker to-day had a long interview with Huntington and Houston, of the Pacific Mail Steamship company, on the subject of increasing the size of their vessels to be put into the China trade under the postal aid bill. The company now proposes to build first-class 10,000 ton ships, instead of second and third class ships, under the terms of the present contract.
