

THE COUNTY SEAT

War Between Mountain Home and Rocky Bar.

JUDGE STOCKSLAGER DECIDES

The Chief Justice Healy Had No Right to Issue the Mandamus-Fatal Railway Accident.

Idaho, Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—At Hailey today Judge Stockslager, of the Second judicial district, rendered a decision in the mandamus suit brought by the Mountain Home people, compelling the county commissioners of Elmore county to remove the county seat from Rocky Bar to Mountain Home.

Attorney General Roberts has decided that the county officers recently elected had thirty days in which to qualify, although they were not to take office till the first Monday in January.

A Fatal Railway Accident at Thistle, Utah. PROVO, Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Stephen Alfred, of Sanpete county, was the victim of a terrible accident at Thistle station at about 9 o'clock this morning.

A South Omaha Prize Fight. OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—A large crowd witnessed a savage fight between two lightweights named C. B. Davis and W. O. Dornell at the South Omaha Athletic club.

Two Important Money Measures. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Stewart today introduced a bill for the free and unlimited use of silver as money.

Fatal Chemical Works Explosion. CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 4.—By the explosion of a tank in the chemical works in the eastern part of the city this morning three men were fatally injured, two slightly.

In the House of Commons. LONDON, Dec. 4.—The government today introduced into the house of commons a supplementary estimate of £5,000 for the purpose of inquiring into the situation in the potato districts.

Inter-Continental Railway Commission. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Inter-Continental railway commission, composed of representatives from the United States and other American republics, met for organization at noon.

General Miles Reports All Quiet. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—At army headquarters to-night General Miles reported all quiet at the scene of the Indian troubles.

Snow in Minnesota and the Dakotas. MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 4.—Reports from nearly all parts of Minnesota and North and South Dakota, say snow has been falling all day.

General Brooke to General Schofield. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—General Schofield received a telegram from General Brooke this afternoon, saying that forty lodges of Indians have left Rosebud agency since the removal of the camp across White river.

Troops Leave Leavenworth. LEAVENWORTH, Dec. 4.—Two companies of infantry leave Fort Leavenworth this evening for Omaha and the Indian agency.

General Miles Talks. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—General Miles said this morning he would go in a day or two to direct military arrangements in the Indian country.

THE IRISH RUMPUS.

Healy Causes a Tremendous Uproar.

O'CONNOR YELLS "CRUCIFY HIM."

Parnell Asks What Brought the Alliance With the Liberals, and Healy Said "The Stench of the Divorce Case."

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The report from Cork last night that the municipal authorities had adopted a resolution against Parnell was erroneous. On the contrary the resolution was in support of Parnell.

The Pope and the Anti-Slavery Movement. ROME, Dec. 4.—The Pope has issued an encyclical address to the bishops engaged in the anti-slavery movement.

The Great Election is Dead. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Senator Stanford's famous trotting race, Electioneer, died yesterday.

Russell, Seibold & Co. in Trouble. OTTAWA, ONT., Dec. 4.—Russell, Seibold & Co., wholesale dealers in dry goods, are financially embarrassed.

A Chicago & Alton Wreck. ST. LOUIS, MO., Dec. 4.—The south-bound Chicago & Alton passenger train was wrecked at Jacksonville, Ill., early this morning.

American Trotting Association. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The board of appeals of the American Trotting association finished its business this evening.

The People's Equitable Co-operative Association. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The People's Equitable co-operative association is a new kind of business.

White House Turf Exchange. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The White House Turf Exchange, 305 Main street, city.

JACKSON, LUDLOW & CO. pay highest price for hay, grain and produce. Goods delivered promptly at lowest prices.

SILVER BROS' IRON WORKS. No. 149 West North Temple. Go to Barratt Bros' for furniture.

SMOKING JACKETS, dressing gowns and bath robes. BAST-TERRY MER. CO., 142 Main St.

Excursion. Beck's Hot Springs wagonettes leave terminals Warm Springs car line at 10 a.m.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 4, 1890. (Signal Service.)

PENSION ATTORNEYS.

Secretary Noble Devising a Plan to Reduce their Fees.

WHAT MATT QUAY WOULD DO

In the Matter of Pensions to Soldiers Who are Totally Disabled—The Scheme is Gigantic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Representative McKinley today introduced a bill in the House similar to the one presented in the Senate, providing that the present tariff law shall not affect the operations of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty.

Quay's Pension Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Quay yesterday introduced a bill granting all persons on the pension list, or hereafter placed on it, who lost both eyes or both feet, or were otherwise totally disabled, a pension of $100 per month.

In the Senate. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Among the bills introduced today was one for a permanent tariff commission and one (by Stewart) for the free and unlimited use of silver as money.

Attorney-General Miller's Annual Report. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Attorney-General Miller in his annual report says vigorous efforts have been made to enforce the legislation excluding Chinese immigration.

In regard to the reorganization of the judiciary, it is earnestly hoped, the legislation now far advanced will not be permitted to fail.

Blair moved to lay the election bill aside until tomorrow, and take up the displaced habeas bill.

Washington, Dec. 4.—In the House the unfinished business in the morning was the bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

GOVERNOR TILLMAN,

Of South Carolina, Discusses the Race Problem.

HE TAKES ISSUE WITH JEFFERSON

And Says All Men are not Created Equal—Dominion of the Whites—The Farmers' Alliance.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 4.—Governor-elect B. G. Tillman, elected on the reform ticket composed of Farmers' alliance and other Democrats who wanted a change of government, was inaugurated today in the presence of a crowd from all parts of the state.

In his inaugural he referred to the national Democratic party. In regard to the election in his own state he said: "It is gratifying to note the fact that this was attended by a political phenomenon which was a surprise to all of us."

He said that the majority of our colored voters are no longer imbued with Republican ideas, the vexed negro problem will be solved and the fear of a return of negro domination will haunt us no more.

It is now believed that Senator Hampton will be defeated by Irley, the Tillman candidate for United States Senator.

National Farmers' Alliance. OKLAHOMA, Okla., Dec. 4.—The National Farmers' alliance received the National Colored alliance in a body.

General John H. Kieck of Kansas, is drawing up a call to the Farmers' alliance and all industrial unions of America which favor the principles of the St. Louis platform.

At the afternoon session the delegation from the Citizens' alliance of Kansas were introduced by Colonel Livingston of Georgia, and all made addresses, the substance of which was that their organization was desirous of cooperating with the Farmers' movement.

Delegates from the New York Workingmen's League and Anti-Monopoly League addressed the convention, saying, among other things, the mechanics and laborers in the city were much dependent upon the industrial union.

There is considerable indignation among correspondents over the failure of the press committee which was to give out information in regard to the national conference.

A Negro Burglar Uses a Razor. NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 4.—Surgeon William A. Wheeler, of the United States marine hospital service, and his wife, were seriously slashed with a razor in the hands of a negro burglar.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The secretary of the treasury has sent to the House a request for an immediate appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of beef and other provisions for the Sioux Indians.

Valuable Express Package Stolen. ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 4.—A package containing several thousand dollars and express matter, was stolen from the Baltimore & Ohio depot last night.

Fire in a Workshop. LONDON, Dec. 4.—There was a fire in the workshop at Newcastle-on-Tyne, last night, in the wharman's dormitory, which was crowded with women and children and caused a dreadful panic.

Lord of Indian Commissioners Appointment. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The President has reappointed Joseph T. Jacobs, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, a member of the board of Indian commissioners.

The Late King William Interred at Delft. THE HAGUE, Dec. 4.—The body of the late King of Holland was interred at Delft today, with impressive ceremonies.

THE COUNTY SEAT

War Between Mountain Home and Rocky Bar.

JUDGE STOCKSLAGER DECIDES

The Chief Justice Healy Had No Right to Issue the Mandamus-Fatal Railway Accident.

Idaho, Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—At Hailey today Judge Stockslager, of the Second judicial district, rendered a decision in the mandamus suit brought by the Mountain Home people, compelling the county commissioners of Elmore county to remove the county seat from Rocky Bar to Mountain Home.

Attorney General Roberts has decided that the county officers recently elected had thirty days in which to qualify, although they were not to take office till the first Monday in January.

A Fatal Railway Accident at Thistle, Utah. PROVO, Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Stephen Alfred, of Sanpete county, was the victim of a terrible accident at Thistle station at about 9 o'clock this morning.

A South Omaha Prize Fight. OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 4.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—A large crowd witnessed a savage fight between two lightweights named C. B. Davis and W. O. Dornell at the South Omaha Athletic club.

Two Important Money Measures. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Stewart today introduced a bill for the free and unlimited use of silver as money.

Fatal Chemical Works Explosion. CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 4.—By the explosion of a tank in the chemical works in the eastern part of the city this morning three men were fatally injured, two slightly.

In the House of Commons. LONDON, Dec. 4.—The government today introduced into the house of commons a supplementary estimate of £5,000 for the purpose of inquiring into the situation in the potato districts.

Inter-Continental Railway Commission. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Inter-Continental railway commission, composed of representatives from the United States and other American republics, met for organization at noon.

General Miles Reports All Quiet. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—At army headquarters to-night General Miles reported all quiet at the scene of the Indian troubles.

Snow in Minnesota and the Dakotas. MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 4.—Reports from nearly all parts of Minnesota and North and South Dakota, say snow has been falling all day.

General Brooke to General Schofield. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—General Schofield received a telegram from General Brooke this afternoon, saying that forty lodges of Indians have left Rosebud agency since the removal of the camp across White river.

Troops Leave Leavenworth. LEAVENWORTH, Dec. 4.—Two companies of infantry leave Fort Leavenworth this evening for Omaha and the Indian agency.

General Miles Talks. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—General Miles said this morning he would go in a day or two to direct military arrangements in the Indian country.

THE IRISH RUMPUS.

Healy Causes a Tremendous Uproar.

O'CONNOR YELLS "CRUCIFY HIM."

Parnell Asks What Brought the Alliance With the Liberals, and Healy Said "The Stench of the Divorce Case."

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The report from Cork last night that the municipal authorities had adopted a resolution against Parnell was erroneous. On the contrary the resolution was in support of Parnell.

The Pope and the Anti-Slavery Movement. ROME, Dec. 4.—The Pope has issued an encyclical address to the bishops engaged in the anti-slavery movement.

The Great Election is Dead. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Senator Stanford's famous trotting race, Electioneer, died yesterday.

Russell, Seibold & Co. in Trouble. OTTAWA, ONT., Dec. 4.—Russell, Seibold & Co., wholesale dealers in dry goods, are financially embarrassed.

A Chicago & Alton Wreck. ST. LOUIS, MO., Dec. 4.—The south-bound Chicago & Alton passenger train was wrecked at Jacksonville, Ill., early this morning.

American Trotting Association. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The board of appeals of the American Trotting association finished its business this evening.

The People's Equitable Co-operative Association. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The People's Equitable co-operative association is a new kind of business.

White House Turf Exchange. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The White House Turf Exchange, 305 Main street, city.

JACKSON, LUDLOW & CO. pay highest price for hay, grain and produce. Goods delivered promptly at lowest prices.

SILVER BROS' IRON WORKS. No. 149 West North Temple. Go to Barratt Bros' for furniture.

SMOKING JACKETS, dressing gowns and bath robes. BAST-TERRY MER. CO., 142 Main St.

Excursion. Beck's Hot Springs wagonettes leave terminals Warm Springs car line at 10 a.m.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 4, 1890. (Signal Service.)

PENSION ATTORNEYS.

Secretary Noble Devising a Plan to Reduce their Fees.

WHAT MATT QUAY WOULD DO

In the Matter of Pensions to Soldiers Who are Totally Disabled—The Scheme is Gigantic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Representative McKinley today introduced a bill in the House similar to the one presented in the Senate, providing that the present tariff law shall not affect the operations of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty.

Quay's Pension Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Quay yesterday introduced a bill granting all persons on the pension list, or hereafter placed on it, who lost both eyes or both feet, or were otherwise totally disabled, a pension of $100 per month.

In the Senate. WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Among the bills introduced today was one for a permanent tariff commission and one (by Stewart) for the free and unlimited use of silver as money.

Attorney-General Miller's Annual Report. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Attorney-General Miller in his annual report says vigorous efforts have been made to enforce the legislation excluding Chinese immigration.

In regard to the reorganization of the judiciary, it is earnestly hoped, the legislation now far advanced will not be permitted to fail.

Blair moved to lay the election bill aside until tomorrow, and take up the displaced habeas bill.

Washington, Dec. 4.—In the House the unfinished business in the morning was the bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The House today passed a bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other judicial officer.