

Parade ground, most intense enthusiasm was displayed...

Two Troops of Seventh Cavalry to Occupy That Post.

Washington, April 19.—The movement of troops of the Seventh Cavalry...

Departure Marred by Accident.

Detroit, Mich., April 19.—The departure of the First battalion of the Nineteenth Infantry...

Troops Left Fort Logan.

Denver, April 19.—The two troops of the Second Cavalry stationed at Fort Logan...

Merriam in Command.

San Francisco, April 19.—Brigadier General Henry C. Merriam, in command of the department of the Columbia...

Fort Russell Troops.

Omaha, April 19.—The troops from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, will start for New Orleans Wednesday morning.

Go As Volunteers.

Butte, Mont., April 19.—On account of the question raised as to the status of the militia in case of war...

Demonstration at Columbus.

Columbus, O., April 19.—The Seventeenth regiment, United States Army, composed of 228 officers and enlisted men...

Coppers May Go, Too.

San Francisco, April 19.—The police commissioner of this city have adopted a resolution declaring that, in case of war, police officers who enlist with the United States Army...

These Left St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 19.—The six troops of the Third Cavalry and the six troops of the Eleventh Infantry left Jefferson barracks tonight for Chickamauga park and Mobile, respectively.

A CHANCE FOR IDAHO.

Will Be Called On for Troops in Due Time.

Boise, Idaho, April 19.—Governor Steunenberg has received the following acknowledgment of his tender to the government of a regiment from this state...

Cadets Want to Fight.

Boise, Idaho, April 19.—The battalion of cadets of the University of Idaho, have tendered their services to Governor Steunenberg in case of war.

Woman Acquitted by Women.

Boise, Idaho, April 19.—Mrs. George L. Smith, arrested at Weiser for assaulting her husband with her fists, was tried today before a jury composed exclusively of women and acquitted.

NOTABLE DEAD.

Hector L. Lane.

Louisville, Ky., April 19.—A special to the Times from Nashville says: Hector L. Lane, formerly commissioner of the American Cotton Growers' association, died at his home in Athens, Ala., today, from the effect of a stroke of paralysis.

George Parsons Lathrop.

New York, April 19.—George Parsons Lathrop died today at Roosevelt hospital, after a brief illness.

Mr. Lathrop was born in Honolulu August 24, 1851. He was only 24 when the chair of assistant editor of the Atlantic Monthly was offered to him. He filled it for two years. He turned from that magazine to the work of editing a Boston Sunday newspaper. He married Rose Hawthorne, daughter of the great novelist, Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Mrs. McAfee, Authoress.

Washington, April 19.—Mrs. Julius McAfee, a daughter of the late General Humphrey Marshall of Kentucky, died here very suddenly today of heart disease. Mrs. McAfee was an authoress of some note.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Gold is quoted at Madrid at 55. The White Sulphur Springs, N. H., Eng. is on fire. It is believed that it lives have been lost.

Some Spaniards in Havana say: "The Yankees will not take Havana, but if they should, they will only find ruin."

The United States military attaché at Vienna, Lieutenant J. L. Chamberlain and the United States military attaché at St. Petersburg, Lieutenant George L. Anderson, have been called home.

According to the statement of M. B. Hall of Spokane, a Klondiker who arrived here from Seattle by boat, his party of four men here, a gold dust and drafts amounting to $30,000.

According to statements made by Spaniards in Havana a sergeant of volunteers, whom they call "the man with the eyes and other parts of his body."

It is reported that the Orlando or triple alliance, consisting of Germany, Austria and Italy, acting upon the suggestion of Italy, has proposed to the powers a plan whereby the United States and Cuba should be allowed to vote for the term of government under which they shall live.

WAR END OF BATTLE THE MOSQUITO FLEET

This End of the Big Building Busy Explanation of the Functions of These Lilliputians.

CRAFT FOR CUBA WATERS TO PROTECT THE GIANTS

SEVEN FLEET YACHTS PROCURED YESTERDAY.

Indignation Expressed Over Extortionate Prices Asked for Craft Wanted by Uncle Sam—Million Dollars Already Spent for Transporting Troops.

Washington, April 19.—Military and naval preparations continued today with unabated vigor.

There appears to be a mistaken impression, in some quarters, as to the functions of the so-called mosquito fleet.

SMOOTHBORE GUNS.

The board of naval bureau officers is considering the advisability of utilizing some of the old converted smoothbore guns for the auxiliary cruisers.

NAVY ASSIGNMENTS.

Two assignments to naval commands were announced in the published orders of the day.

FLYING SQUADRON.

Ships Ready for Action—No Shore Leaves Granted.

Port Monroe, Va., April 19.—There was nothing particularly to be done this morning on board the flying squadron.

APPREHENSIONS REMOVED.

The navy department has received satisfactory information that the coal loaded at Newport News upon the British tramp steamer Hampshire, is not, as it was reported, to be used for the navy.

FEARS OF SMALL TOWNS.

Applications are pouring into the war and navy departments for the immediate protection of small towns.

NEW EXPLOSIVE SHELLS.

Chicago Man's Invention Said to Be the Devil On Wheels.

Pittsburg, April 19.—A new explosive shell, the invention of George W. McMillan, a Chicagoan, is being tested at the works of the Carnegie Steel company.

PALMA DOUBTS WAR.

Strong Impression That Spain Will Surrender Cuba.

New York, April 19.—"Just as soon as the Spaniards are driven from the island," said Palma today, "the Cubans will call a new assembly to draft a constitution and elect a government."

WOODMEN AND NON-INSURANCE.

Rock Island, Ill., April 19.—The executive council of the Modern Woodmen of America, in session here today, decided that any of its 200,000 members could enlist in support of the government of the United States in a war with Spain without invalidating their insurance.

OUR ASIATIC SQUADRON.

Hong Kong, April 19.—The warships of the United States squadron are painting their hulls, upper works, smokestacks, etc., a dark gray, lading their spare gear and otherwise preparing for active service.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY

Spain's Fleet at Cape Verde Anxious To Meet Us.

New York, April 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, says: "Should war be declared, the Spanish fleet of the cruise to the Atlantic Ocean and Infanta Maria Teresa, the torpedo boat and torpedo boat destroyers, 'Alfonso' and 'Pizarro,' the sloop 'Thetis' and 'Azor,' now anchored in this harbor, will leave at once for Cuba."

WILD DEMONSTRATIONS OF JOY AT KEY WEST.

Gratitude to America On Every Tongue—Cuban Flag Floats Over The Spanish Consulate.

Key West, April 19.—Wherever the eye turns tonight, it is met by the colors of Cuba Libre. Invariably the stars and stripes float above the insurgent ensign.

SPAIN WILL BE TOLD TO EVACUATE TODAY.

Spain will be told to evacuate today, according to the latest reports from Havana.

WRESTLING, BASEBALL, RACES.

Dwyer Won Over McLeod In Wrestling Match—Marathon Race at Boston—Sporting Intelligence.

Wonderful Trap Shooting.

St. Paul, Minn., April 19.—Dan McLeod, the well-known wrestler, appeared in this city tonight in a contest with M. J. Dwyer of St. Paul, and the latter won.

Memphis, Tenn., April 19.—The Tennessee derby, at a mile and an eighth, guaranteed for $5,000, was won today by John W. York, Jr., on Son's Porter, owned by Lieber Kar.

BASEBALL.

Boston, April 19.—The result was a walk-over for the home team, the Boston Red Sox, over the New York Yankees.

Philadelphia, April 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

Baltimore, April 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

ST. LOUIS, APRIL 19.—No game today; wet grounds.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 19.—Today's Philadelphia-Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE, APRIL 19.—The Baltimore-Washington game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

Advertisement for H. Dinwoodey Furniture Co. listing various furniture items and prices.

Advertisement for Wall Papers, listing various paper types and prices.

Advertisement for Rivers Bros., listing various goods and prices.

Advertisement for Blockade of Havana, discussing the naval situation.

Advertisement for Spain to Cede Cuba, discussing the political situation.

Advertisement for Here and There, listing various news items.

Advertisement for DIED, listing various obituaries.