VIEWED BY BRADSTREET.

New York, Jan. 24.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: An analysis of special telegrams to Bradstreets from the more important business centers throughout the country shows considerable irregularity in trade, the most favorable feature being the tendency of staple prices to advance.

The most important event of the week was the meeting of the coal road representatives on Thursday. The fact that production of anthracite in 1895 reached the enormous amount of 46,320 tons, demonstrates the demoralization of the trade and the necessity of restricting the output to figures nearer the consumptive demand.

Bradstreet's review of the New York stock market says:

Decidedly less consideration was given to the condition of the government bond issue this week. It is assumed that it will be somewhat over subscribed, though the prevalent opinion is that the bulk of the loan will be taken by the same interests which formed the defunct Morgan syndicate and that "public" subscriptions, so-called, will be scattering and relatively unimportant.

SEEN BY DUN.

New York, Jan. 24.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade which issues tomorrow will say: The week has been marked by improvement apparent rather than real. Prices of some products have risen, but only because supplies are believed to be smaller than was expected. The senate still injures all business by doing nothing and the treasury cannot expect to gain in gold as yet, but loses less than was expected. It is generally assumed that the new loan will be placed without difficulty though the successive payments may cause continued disturbance.

WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 24.—The modest volume of business transacted upon the New York stock exchange today centered in three stocks, Tobacco, Sugar and St. Paul. Regarding the two first named there was circulated gossip of an unfavorable character, including revived rumors of hostile action by the legislature of the state of New Jersey. Both stocks not only proved superior to the attacks, but displayed exceptional strength on buying, chiefly for short account. Although the trading in the general list was quite limited, improvement was noted all along the line. The news of the day was calculated to cause a cheerful temper, but this fact did not enlist other than the strictly professional operators, owing to the recent rapidly succeeding and conflicting political and other rumors.

The initial tone as has frequently happened of late, was imparted by European cables. The political advices received were of continued pacific import, so far as this country is concerned, and logically prices for Americans showed advances over New York parity. Some purchases were also made in this market for account of foreign dealers. These were not created of an investment character, however. Other bull arguments consisted of rumors of preparations by a syndicate to underwrite the government bond issue either individually or as a collective force and non-engagement of gold for shipment tomorrow. By the way, the inconsistency of reports on this last point within the past day or two, has been marked. Sugar scored a gain of 1¼. Tobacco was raided at the outset and fell 1¼ per cent, to 74¾ on a renewal of bear pressure. Insiders took hold at the low point and a rally resulted to 75¾. Trading was fairly animated in the early operations, then became almost stagnant and so continued until the last hour, when another spell of activity occurred in which the top figures of the day were recorded. The market closed strong and generally at material net gains.

The railway bond market was almost devoid of features. The tone was firm, however, the dealings amounting to $1,183,000.

BOSTON WOOL.

Boston, Jan. 24.—The Boston Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: Only 34 per cent of this week's sales of wool are American. Australian is being sold in big blocks and on a slowly advancing market, the seventy quality selling on a basis of 48 cents clean.

Foreign scoured wools are most injuriously affecting the sales of American. A pound of this "scoured" stock takes the place of two and three pounds of greasy American wool. It is charged that these wools are not natural wools, washed, but that they are manufactured from burry South American stock by a "carbonizing" process.

LONDON WOOL.

London, Jan. 24.—At the wool auction sales today 14,682 bales were offered, of which 509 were withdrawn. An excellent selection was offered, including a lot of better merinos suitable for American buyers, who took 2,500 bales at full prices. Germany was a large buyer of merinos while the bulk of crossbreds were taken by Yorkshire. There was a good Russian demand for superior scoured, while the tendency for medium and coarse crossbreds was not so good.

BARRED BY BLAZES.

Fire in the Old Stock Exchange Building Causes a Panic.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—A fire in the old stock exchange building, northeast corner of Dearborn and Monroe streets, today caused a panic among the occupants. The building is a six-story structure, and the location one of the most crowded street corners of the city. People on the fifth floor, where the flames were first discovered, found the way to the stairs barred by smoke and resorted to the fire escapes. One woman, completely unnerved, appeared at the window and endeavored to jump. She was seized by a man who held her until the firemen raised the ladder and rescued her.

All the occupants were finally rescued by the firemen. The loss on the building was comparatively trifling.

J. S. Robinson, who has an office in the building, was quite seriously burned on his hands and face while making his way out. H. Barton Lindley, an employee of the Chicago Tribune, was loudly cheered by the crowd when he emerged from the smoke carrying his father in his arms. Lindley is 75 years old and lives at Chillicothe, O.

Miss Mable Finnerty had her arm broken and H. Bardwell was burned about the face.

KEELEY WINS.

Does Not Have to Tell What His "Jag Cure" is Made Of.

PONTIAC, Ill., Jan. 24.—The jury in the case of Marshall against the Leslie E. Keeley company brought in a verdict for the defendant. In this case Marshall claimed damages to the amount of $50,000 from the Leslie E. Keeley company of Dwight, Ill., for the alleged results following the treatment of his wife for the morphine habit.

The case will be considered an important one from the fact that the Keeley tratment is by it placed in a new school of medicine, founded and discovered by Dr. Keeley and known only to those who are educated therein at Dwight under the superintendency of Dr. Keeley and his medical staff.

It is important, as will be seen from the following rulings of Judge Tipton, who presided. He reaffirmed a previous ruling that the Keeley company could not be required to give up the formula of their medicine, and acknowledged the force of the injunction issued by the United States district court of Wisconsin in which the Keeley company is forever enjoined from making public the formula of their preparations or any part thereof.

"Under the evidence the law is that the Keeley remedy for the morphine habit must be judged by its effects upon the human system and you have no right to infer the remedies were poisonous from the mere refusal of defendants to disclose the contents of those remedies.

"It is the privilege and legal right of the defendants to refuse to disclose its formula and because it elects to claim that privilege and refuses to disclose the same, that fact cannot be construed as against the defendants in this case and is without the province of the jury to consider."

FANS REPAIRED.

Fannie, or as her family called her, Fan, had lost her beau and she was afraid she never would be paired. She hated the thought of being single all her life. One day she saw in a store window the sign "Fans Repaired." Laughingly she said to a friend, "There is hope for me yet. I may be re-paired." "Of course you may," said her friend, "if you will take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that wonderful cure of woman's complaints, and tone up your system. Do you wonder your beau left you when he found you always complaining, looking pale as a ghost and all that. Young men won't knowingly harness themselves for life to a walking corpse or a peripatetic infirmary. Take the remedy and get well." Fan did and has been satisfactorily re-paired. For nursing mothers or those about to become mothers, "Favorite Prescription" is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labor, promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child and shortens the period of confinement.

OGDEN DEPARTMENT

Ogden, January 25.

OGDEN MAN MISSING.

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 24.—Leslie Madison Day, a civil engineer, is missing. He came here from Ogden, Utah, about three years ago, where his mother and sisters reside. Several months ago he disappeared and no trace of him can be found. His relatives fear that he is dead.

E. F. DARLING INDICTED.

Yesterday afternoon the grand jury reported an indictment against E. F. Darling, charging him with extortion. This is the outcome of charges preferred by James Sheridan of the Arlington saloon. Sheridan claimed that Darling tried to extort money from him by asserting that he (Darling) had seen a lady in Sheridan's room. He had looked over the transom, a la Adams. He had told Sheridan that he wanted $140, but finally came down to one-fourth that sum. Darling, so Sheridan alleges, finally brought a contract which he signed and which is as follows:

CONTRACT.

Entered into by E. F. Darling, party of the first part, and James Sheridan, party of the second part, witnesseth: that for and in consideration of forty dollars (40) to-wit, $5 in hand and $35 on January 23 (tomorrow), the said party of the first part withdraws from a certain suit and complaint against the party of the second part.

In the faithful fulfillment of this contract, I, party of the first part sign this *contract as above this day fulfilled.

E. F. DARLING.

Witnessed by: representative of the party of the second part.

M. O. CALAHAN.

*Written in red ink.

On the back of the contract the reporter noticed the following written in red ink:

"This contract is now fulfilled and paid by check on the Commercial National bank. E. F. DARLING.

"I had already paid him $5 as the first step in the contract to rob me," said Mr. Sheridan, "and I paid him yesterday by check, the balance of $35."

The affair has caused much excitement. Darling is at present in jail.

Darling was seen in jail this morning by a Herald reporter. He would make no statement further than to deny that he had signed the contract, giving the inference that it was a forgery. Detective Tender, however, says he saw the prisoner sign the contract.

Allaman and Dusenbery, as the Italian rover and trick bear; the second prize, a large vase, was given to Robert Buckley for sustaining the best character, as a green country girl. Ben Schwab, as a school girl, and Mrs. E. L. Jones, as a squaw with papoose, received special notice from the judges.
