in the country only a year ago, broken in mind and finances. He is now interested in mines and prospects, which, if they turn out as his predictions will make him a very wealthy man in a short space of time.

During his brief residence in this state, he has discovered and located great deposits of graphite, aluminum, antimony, mica, sienna, amber, Fuller's earth, borax, saltpetre, asphaltum, magnesia, asbestos and other valuable minerals.

Mr. Sohr would not divulge what the nature of this shipment might be. The Fuller's earth is used by packing companies to purify cotton seed oil, which is largely used in making and preparing lard. On my eastern trip I will do some negotiating in the matter of this shipment.
