Rains Do Much Good and Also Much Damage.

ANNABELLA QUITE LIVELY

A Boy Blown Up by a Powder Can.

CACHE COUNTY SUMMER SCHOOL-SALT LAKE

RICHFIELD, July 26.-The frequent recurrence of floods in the early settlement of Richfield proved to be a great drawback to the settlers.

The celebration was held at Webster's, and in the center of a crowd of stately poplars a grand stand had been built and tastefully and elaborately decorated.

Yesterday another rain storm visited the valley. It was quite a general storm and seemed so moderate that no one thought of it flooding any part of the town.

Pioneer day was not celebrated in Richfield, except by the "boys," who have a mania for boxing.

At Thurber a few days ago, a son of M. W. Mansfield, member of the last legislature, obtained a powder can, with a little powder still in the bottom.

The little town of Annabella is a lively little place at any time. It was especially so on the 24th.

LOGAN, July 26.-The county summer school, which has been in session during the past six weeks in the Brighton Young college, was brought to a close on Friday in a very pleasant manner.

MANTI, July 25.-Rain, rain, rain. We have had more rain in Manti the last twenty days than any previous July month says the old settlers, and it is still raining.

LOGAN CANYON seems to be the Mecca of the pleasure seekers at present. The beautifully wooded road is lined with camps, numerous parties are in Logan, Salt Lake and other places having pitched their tents near the banks of the sparkling river.

THE OGDEN and Wellsville baseball teams crossed bats at the last named place Friday for the state championship. The Wellsville boys were victorious, the score standing 13 to 11 in their favor at the close of the game.

MRS. GEORGE D. PYPER and Mrs. John D. Owen are two Salt Lake ladies enjoying the fresh climate of Cache County.

ATTORNEY GEORGE Q. RICH has almost completed a beautiful and substantial residence on his premises in the Fourth ward.

number of people from the capital and intervening towns to spend a few days in the beautiful capital of Cache County.

A new blacksmith shop is about to be erected on the grounds at the Agricultural college, the old one in the main building having become too limited for the constantly increasing number of students who attend this branch of industrial education.

is as useful as the useful. If there were no variety of color or form in nature— if trees and grass were white, and clouds one shade of black or gray—we might all exist; but the charm of life—yes, life itself—would be gone.

The charm of life is beauty and loveliness. It appears in your picture galleries, in nature, in religion, in dress, and at your table.

The charm of the tea-table is tea—and the most charming of tea is Schilling's Best—at your grocer's.

Also pure and money-backed: Schilling's Best coffee, baking-powder, soda, spices, and flavoring extracts.
