CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN R. R.
 You are landed by the Union Pacific Railroad in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. & N.-W. Palace Train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, Elegant Day Coaches Smoking, Baggage, Postal Cars, etc. ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discover the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and easy in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this Road; all agents sell them. Examine your Tickets and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the Best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route. IF AND WHEN TAKE NO

Sanpete Notes.

CHESTER, Sept. 18, 1882.

Editors Herald:

The days allotted for the registration of the legal voters of this burg came to an end on Saturday evening, resulting in forty names of the true and legal. Twenty-four men, and sixteen women were added to the list. What if any names are improperly on the list time will tell, but when you consider the Flint addenda you can imagine anything but a polygamist—anti, real or prospective—can be registered. The purging of the list was a needed and desired end, but the order of Kate and her cohorts must be refreshing to the defectors of the purgers. But she has ridden in state in your Fourth of July procession and that must sanctify this last coup de main of the queen of the demi monde in Salt Lake City.

We were blessed with an unexceptionable gentleman as a registrar a quiet, Christian gentleman who neither eats or drinks with publicans and sinners, belonging to no ring; in great fairness he preformed his duty.

One aged man and his aged lady wished, as a parting salute to "the old sod" to be naturalized, but the desired V. was minus and the needed dollars for traveling expenses; but with commendable relief the Ladies Relief Society of this place found the sinews of war, and he exultingly on return from your city put his and her name to the memorable forty of Chester.

There is a nipping and an eager air just now that infringes on the gathering of crops and the snow lays low down on the eastern mountains. It is to be hoped that this early visit of the Storm King may be controlled by the weather guager soon to be established on mount Nebo the Nephites of Salt Creek are looking also for signal farms.

The woman question, the right to vote, is a stirring theme just now. A little while ago the solver of the Mormon problem was: Give the woman the franchise, then stand from under; twelve years she has exercised the right, but to-day it is questioned.

I see the interviewer says ex-Senator Paddock told him some further legislation would be needed for some other monstrous evil in the Mormon regime. Why not fully open Pandora's box and give us all the monstrosities at once? I desire to see the Augean stables at home and abroad cleaned as clean as scavengers can make them.

The soothsayers of modern Babylon have scanned Utah's horizon, and even they predict confiscation and dismay for us. What terrible times we have fallen upon. Where is our hope? Only in the great founder and overthrower of nations and all-wise disposer of events.

"When George the third was king" it was much more than an offense for a woman to appear without rouge than it now is to be seen with it. Young girls were not allowed to wear it, however, and the saying arose: "She is marrying to wear rouge and diamonds." It was supposed that gold had the property of attracting the blood to any spot on which it might be rubbed, and girls used to rub their lips and cheeks with sovereigns. Of all rouges now in use the one said to be the best is made by dissolving a quarter of an ounce of finest carmine in half an ounce of liquid ammonia, and adding after two days, a pint of rose water and half an ounce of triple essence of roses. A new rouge is perfectly white when applied, but the pale girl has not been half an hour to the fresh air before her cavalier is delighted to perceive that a rich, healthy glow is overspreading her cheek, and he is rather inclined to think that his conversational powers are partly responsible for the improvement. The preparation must be carefully used as it is not easy to judge of the effect until it changes color. All rouges injure the skin in time, particularly those in which mercury is an ingredient.

"Did She Die?"

"No; she lingered and suffered along, pining away all the time, for years, the doctors doing her no good; and at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about." "Indeed! indeed! how thankful we should be for that medicine."
