

PRIZE WINNERS

(Continued from page 5)

Wright Bros.—American Berkshire association, special, first prize.

Agricultural Products.

William B. Wright, best bushel fall wheat, first prize.

Rigby Bros., best bushel fall wheat, second prize.

William B. Wright, best bushel spring wheat, first prize.

Rigby Bros., best bushel spring wheat, second prize.

Rigby Bros., best bushel two-rowed barley, first.

George E. Mabey, best bushel club head barley, first.

William B. Wright, best bushel club head barley, second.

George E. Mabey, best bushel oats, first prize.

William B. Wright, best bushel oats, first.

William B. Wright, best bushel oats, second.

Rigby Bros., best bushel rye, first.

N. P. Holm, best bushel white corn, first; best half-bushel white corn, second.

Lewis Fayter, best one-half bushel white corn, second prize; best one-half bushel popcorn, first.

William B. Wright, finest quality and greatest variety grass in sheaves, first.

John H. Back & Son, best 100 lbs. extracted honey, first; best display package honey, first; best 100 pounds beeswax, second; best exhibit high-bred bees in observation, second; best display in this class, second; best display of Utah honey, first.

William B. Wright, best bushel spring wheat, second; best bushel club head barley, first; best bushel oats, first; finest quality and greatest variety of grass and grain, first; best 25 pounds hops, first; best dozen horseradish, first.

Superior Honey Co., Ogden, best exhibit of Italian bees, second; best 100 pounds extracted honey, second; best display of package honey; second; best display of high-bred bees under observation, first; best display in this class, first; best 100 pounds comb honey, first; best 100 pounds beeswax, first.

Porter & Walton—Best one-half bushel white onions, first; best one-half bushel pickling onions, second; best bushel turnips, first; best display of cabbage, first and second; best display cauliflower, first; best display of rhubarb, first; best display of lettuce, radishes and peppers, second; best display of watermelons and citrons, first; best display of cantaloupes, second; best display of pumpkins, vegetable marrow, egg plant, first; best display of tomatoes, second; celery, first; best worthy variety of string or green beans, first and second; best exhibit of farm and garden products, first and second; best 25 pounds dried sweet corn, first; best exhibit of molasses, first; best variety any potato, first and second; best dozen red beets, first; best one-half bushel onions any variety, first and second.

George E. Mabey—Twenty-five lbs. clover seed first; 25 pounds timothy seed, first; 25 lbs. lucern seed, first; best display any variety Ut. grass seed, first; best 25 pounds onion seed, first; best bushel any variety potato, first; best dozen red beets, second; best dozen mangelwurzel beets, second; best dozen sugar beets, first; best dozen carrots, first; best dozen parsnips, first; best one-half dozen yellow onions, first; best one-half bushel white onions, first; best one-half bushel turnips, second; best display cabbage, first; best display cauliflower, first; best display rhubarb, second; best display lettuce, first; best display radishes, first; best display peppers, first; best display cucumber, second; best display watermelons, second; best display citrons, second; best display cantaloupes, second; best display pumpkins, second; best display Hubbard squash, first; best display egg plant, second; best display tomatoes, first; best display asparagus, first; best display celery, second; best display green beans, first; best worthy variety of string or green beans, first; best exhibit farm and garden products, first; best bushel rye, first; best 100 pounds honey comb, second.

Bonneville Ranch Co.—Best bushel fall wheat, second; best bushel fall oats, second.

William B. Wright, finest quality and greatest variety of grains in sheaves, first.

N. P. Holm, one bushel white flake corn, first; best half bushel Excelsior sweet corn, first; best one dozen mangelwurzel beets, first and second; best dozen carrots, and variety, first and second; best half-bu. yellow onions, first; best half bushel pickling onions, first; best display of vegetable marrow, second; best display of summer squash, second; best display of Hubbard squash, second; best display of squash, second; best dozen red-beets, first and second.

Rigby Bros., best bushel rye, second, best bushel and variety of potatoes, second; best bushel fall wheat, second; best bushel spring wheat, second prize; best bushel two-rowed barley, first; best bushel oats, first; best bushel spring wheat, first; best bushel club head barley, second.

William H. Fayter, best exhibit of farm and garden products by anybody under 16, first.

Louis Fayter, best half-bushel sweet corn, second; best bushel and variety potatoes, first and second; best dozen redbeets, any variety, first and second; best dozen mangelwurzel beets, first; best dozen sugar beets, second; best dozen carrots, first and second; best dozen parsnips, second; best half-bushel white onions, first; best display of cabbage, first; best display of cauliflower, first; best display of pot herbs, first; best display of cucumbers, first; best display of summer squash, first; best worthy variety green or string beans, first and second; best exhibit farm and garden products by boy under 16, first and second.

(Continued on page 12)

AWARDED FIRST PREMIUM AT STATE FAIR. GOLD MEDAL BY STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF SACRAMENTO, CAL., ALSO GOLD MEDAL AWARDED BY MID-WINTER FAIR, AND LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION, PORTLAND, OREGON.

A REVOLUTION IN PLOWING, COST REDUCED TO A MINIMUM THE MONARCH OF THE FIELD.

PLOWING BY SUNLIGHT BY DAY AND HEADLIGHT BY NIGHT. IT WILL DO THE WORK OF 100 HORSES.

110 HORSE POWER PLOWING ENGINE.

From 50 to 100 Acres Plowed each day doing the work much better than by animal power and at half the expense per acre. More than two hundred in successful operation. Every one a success.

The above illustration represents the Utah Arid Farm Company's STEAM PLOWING OUTFIT at work on their farm at Nephi, Utah. This engine is plowing 50 acres per day of ten hours at an expense of 50 cents per acre. And it was also used by them to pull a "BEST" Steam Combined Harvester on the same farm and harvested an average of 65 acres per day, and at the nominal expense of 50 cents an acre. The grain was cut, threshed, re-cleaned and sacked in one operation and ready for the mill.

The SUCCESS of DRY FARMING is THE STEAM PLOW AND COMBINED HARVESTER. For further information address

THE BEST MANUFACTURING CO., or THE G. T. INGERSOLL MACHINERY CO.,
SAN LEANDRO, CALIFORNIA

BELL PHONE 1999 P. O. BOX 794 IND. PHONE 848
321 DOOLY BLK. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH