STATE FAIR NOTES.

Considerable favorable comment was heard on the improvements at the Fair grounds. A new art building has been constructed, the bleachers enlarged, some fifty new stalls added and the grounds and buildings made very attractive. President McDonald and Secretary Ensign are hustlers and the people of the state are under obligations to them.

Some of the best exhibits as well as many who will not exhibit at all, still feel that it is all wrong for a Director to supervise any of the departments. As a matter of fact while the exhibit this year was splendid we have no doubt that it could be trebled, if this vexatious question could be properly adjusted.

THE RICH CULPRIT.

"I am sorry to inconvenience you," said the policeman, "but your machine was going forty miles an hour." "Don't apologize," replied Mr. Goulderbilt. "Always do your duty. John, go right along with the officer and be fined."—Phila. Ledger.

Modern Sheep: BREEDS AND MANAGEMENT.

This is a book that every sheepman should have. It is undoubtedly the best book ever written on sheep, as it is from the pen of a practical shepherd, whose experience has been wide and varied. It contains nearly 350 pages of packed (not padded) matter, which means an equivalent to 700 pages of some similar works. It is beautifully illustrated with over 100 half-tones, and its subjects are treated in eight parts: History and Breeds; General Management; Sheep Management in the Western States; Fitting for Show; The Raising of "Hothouse" or Spring Lambs; Dressing Sheep and Lambs for Market; Pasture, Forage Crops, Etc.; and Diseases. No matter what books you have on sheep, your library is decidedly incomplete without this splendid work. Secretary Wilson, Dept. of Agriculture, says of this book: "I have looked over 'Shepherd Boy's' book on modern sheep, and believe it would be valuable for ready reference to the teacher, editor, lecturer and farmer." It can be secured through this office at its published price of $1.50, postpaid.

"Deseret Farmer" one year, with "Modern Sheep" $2.00

BENEFITTED EITHER WAY.

"Have you thought of the possibility of defeat, Mr. Taft?" "Well," replied the rotund Secretary, "what's the use of fretting about that! The campaign'll make me work off at least fifty pounds, anyhow."—Philadelphia Ledger.

TENDER-HEARTED.

Miss Ascum—I thought you weren't going to send Marie McInnes an invitation to your party.

Miss Cutting—Oh! I decided it wouldn't be right to hurt her feelings that much.

Miss Ascum—So you sent her one?

Miss Cutting—Yes, but I addressed it to Miss Mary McGinnis.—Catholic Standard and Times.
