

THE DESERT FARMER.

Year by year the Sugar Beet Industry in Utah, grows and develops. The last annual report of the Sugar Companies showed a product of 108,300,500 pounds, an increase of 5,000,000 pounds over the previous year. Our farmers were paid $2,187,395.99 for their beet crops, which with the outlay for other items of operation totaled the expense account of the sugar companies to over $4,000,000. And yet the industry is in its merest infancy; its possibilities would seem almost unlimited. Thousands of happy, prosperous homes await development by the Sugar Beet Farmer in Utah.
