

Get in, Boys, with the U·S·MARINES

Now is your chance! The U. S. Marine Corps was limited before the war to 10,000 officers and men. No more could be accepted. You've read of the glorious work of the U. S. Marines in France. Congress has authorized the increase of the Corps to 75,500. Now is your chance if you're a good enough man; if you can pass the physical examination.

U. S. Marines are trained as soldiers for the "Three-in-One Service;" on land, at sea or in the air. They get action and adventure; the kind that makes your blood tingle to read about; the kind that makes the world take notice.

Plenty of chance for advancement. 1800 officers will be promoted from the ranks. Age limits, 18 to 36. Registered men, ask your Local Board to let you volunteer.

Apply at the U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting Station and learn about this Three-in-One Service for the One-in-Ten Man.

This space is contributed in appreciation of the Grit, Gumption and Glory of the U. S. Marines.

By Goodwin's Weekly