

Revue De La Ville

THE marriage of Miss Hester Beebe, daughter of O. C. Beebe and Mrs. Clara Woodruff Beebe, to Lorenzo Snow Campbell of Ogden, took place at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Beebe home on B street. After the wedding service a reception and dance was given for 100 guests.

The ceremony was performed in a corner of the living room, which was decorated with a wealth of potted palms and ferns. The bridal party stood behind gates of ferns, studded with rosebuds. At each side of the gates were pillars that held baskets of pink roses and Japanese narcissi. On the mantel were baskets of yellow-tipped snapdragons and ferns and the electrolier was festooned with amilax. Crimson roses and cathedral candles in the same shade were used exclusively in the dining room to further the decorative effect. In the center of the table was a large wedding cake outlined with puffings of cherry colored malinge, while on either side of the cake were silver baskets filled with deep red Richmond roses. Silver candelabra, filled with crimson cathedral candles, were at the ends of the table.

Assisting in the dining room were Miss Carol Hutchens and Miss Amy Silver.

The bride wore a handsome wedding gown of army blue Georgette crepe and tulle, with beaded trimmings. She carried a shower of shell-pink roses, with showers of pink sweet peas. Her hat was malinge and satin model in taupe shades. Miss Ralphene Barrell, maid of honor, wore a gown of navy blue Georgette crepe, with a picture hat of black tulle, and carried an armful of Richmond roses. Helen Woodruff, first bridesmaid, was frocked in silver crepe de chene, with hat to match, and carried Ophelia roses. Sarah Quayle, second bridesmaid, wore midnight blue Georgette crepe and carried pale pink La France roses. John Gunther was best man.

Receiving with the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will be at home for the present at the Hotel Utah.

A RECEPTION was given by the Catholic Woman's League at the Ladies' Literary club house last Tuesday evening in honor of the Rt. Rev. D. M. Gorman of Boise, bishop of Idaho. An interesting address was delivered by Bishop Gorman and a musical program was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bansbach. Supper was served following the program. The ladies of the parish of the Cathedral of the Madaleine were the hostesses, with Mrs. C. A. Quigley and Mrs. Elizabeth J. O'Brien in charge of the entertainment. American beauty roses formed a centerpiece for the table and American Beauty tulle extended to the edges of the table. Presiding at supper table were Mrs. J. T. White, Mrs. Joseph Geoghegan, Mrs. James Ivers and Mrs. Fred A. Wey. Assisting in entertaining the guests were Mrs. Jane Cann, Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Miss Florence Sullivan, Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Helen Kearns, Miss Julia Stephens, Miss Margaret Crowley and Miss Gertrude Geoghegan.

TEA was served following an excellent program given by the music section of the Ladies' Literary club at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon. Red and white carnations in a basket formed a centerpiece for the tea table. Tall white candles in silver holders surrounded the centerpiece. Mrs. E. A. Smith presided at the tea table and the entertainment committee of the section, of which Mrs. Phillip Schonert is chairman, served the refreshments. The theme of the program was "Modern Opera." Reviews of French, Italian, Russian, German and American operas were given by Mrs. George E. Skelton, Mrs. Edward Hoffman and Mrs. A. H. Peabody. Mrs. George Oliver Goodwin gave a group of songs selected from modern operas. She was accompanied by Mrs. Marguerite Duvall Johnson. A talk on "Modern Opera in America" was given by John Elliott Clark. Mrs. Ross Beason reported on current events in the musical world.

IN compliment to Miss Hester Beebe, whose marriage to Lorenzo Snow Campbell of Ogden took place Thursday evening, Miss Carol Hutchens entertained Tuesday evening at her home on Second avenue with a linen shower. A late supper was served. The living rooms were decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and violets were arranged in a low bowl, with streamers of violet tulle extending to each plate. Covers were laid for the following, besides the guest of honor: Miss Leah Mehesy, Miss Ralphine Bayrell, Miss Beth Swenson, Miss Ruth Quirk, Miss Helen Woodruff, Miss Lucille Ballard, Miss Sarah Quayle and Miss Julia Quayle.

MISS Helen McDonald, who will be married February 1 to Lieutenant Frederick Pfeifer, will be the guest of honor at a tea to be given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Kingman at the Kingman quarters at Fort Douglas. Miss McDonald and Lieutenant Pfeifer were entertained by Lieutenant Charles Jones at dinner Monday evening at the Wilson Hotel, and a theatre party followed.

MR. and Mrs. Paul Keyser presided over a dinner Wednesday evening at their home on E. First South street in honor of Howard H. McClintock of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is a guest at the J. R. Walker home. The table was centered with a silver basket filled with delicately tinted pink roses. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bransford Lamb, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Sibyl Walker and William McIntyre.

MRS. Austin K. Tiernan entertained the members of the Chrystal Card club Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock luncheon, followed by bridge, at her home on E. South Temple street. The guests were seated for luncheon at one long table that held for a centerpiece a crystal basket filled with purple violets and tied with malinge in a delicate shade of lavender. Exclusive of the club members the guests included Mrs. Abner Luman, Mrs. E. E. Root, Mrs. J. H. Dunn, Mrs. J. G. McAllister, Mrs. Ira D. Wines, Mrs. A. H. Ensign, Mrs. C. M. Bell and Mrs. Harry Godwin. The club members are Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Mrs. Henry Welch, Mrs. James Ivers, Mrs. Robert Peale, Mrs. C. A. Quigley, Mrs. F. J. Wescott, Mrs. W. L. Snyder, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. Bismarck Snyder, Mrs. E. J. O'Brien and Miss Kate Halloran.

MRS. Russel P. Hartle has gone to Tacoma to join Colonel Hartle, who has recently been assigned to duty there. Colonel and Mrs. Hartle were honored by an elaborate dinner dance given by the officers and wives of Colonel Hartle's regiment at Tacoma last Wednesday.

MRS. CLARENCE KINGMAN was hostess at a tea Thursday afternoon at the Kingman quarters at the war prison barracks, Fort Douglas. The affair was in honor of Miss Helen McDonald, a bride-elect. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. A. J. McDonald, Mrs. George L. Byram and Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Taggart entertained Thursday evening at dinner at their home on Yale avenue in honor of Captain H. Gleason, here on a brief leave from camp Merritt.

The members of the F. F. F. club of the University of Utah entertained at a tea Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. L. Mulliner in Federal Heights.

The home economics section of the Ladies' Literary club met Thursday, January 16, at 2:30 o'clock, at the clubhouse. Dean W. W. Fleetwood gave a talk on "Happy New Year."

Mrs. E. A. Francom entertained the Busy Twelve club at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Roosevelt Avenue.

Miss Mae Hawley, a bride of the month, will be the honor guest at a luncheon to be given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Matthew Noall at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Wilcox on First avenue.

Mrs. F. A. Hutchens was hostess at a luncheon for a few class friends Tuesday afternoon at her home on Second avenue. The centerpiece for the luncheon table was a crystal bowl of deep yellow marigolds and violets. Covers were laid for eight. The afternoon was spent playing five hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hathaway and children left for Long Beach, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Kenneth Luman, accompanied by her little daughter Phyllis Jane left yesterday for Long Beach. She will spend the remainder of the winter there.

Mrs. Charles Ira Tuttle and baby daughter, with Mrs. Ernest Greenbaum of Chicago, have arrived from Illinois to spend several weeks with Mrs. Tuttle's mother, Mrs. O. K. Lewis, at her home on W. Fifth South street.

Mrs. Merrill Nibley and Mrs. Radcliff Q. Cannon left Tuesday for California, where they will spend a few months. Mrs. Nibley and her two children will remain for the rest of the winter and Mrs. Cannon will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nibley for one month.

Maj. and Mrs. J. R. Clark of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Riter at their home on D street.

Women of Waterloo Methodist church met at 7:45 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spalding, 1893 S. Fifth East street. Arrangements were made for a get-acquainted party, to be given in the church parlors January 23.

The College club met Thursday evening with Mrs. W. H. Putnam on Michigan avenue. Mrs. Fred A. Arnold was the assisting hostess.

Howard H. McClintock of Pittsburg, who is a guest at the J. R. Walker home on East South Temple street was honored at a dinner Monday evening given at the Alta club by the daughters of the house. Miss Margaret Walker and Miss Sybil Walker. Covers were laid for a few close friends and a centerpiece of pink roses was used.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bowerman have returned from St. Anthony, Ida., and are at home at the Bransford for the winter.