IN a bower of white spring flowers and ferns, Miss Dora Hall became the bride of Walter Tracy at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hall, 78 East First North street, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Dr. Elmer I. Goshen performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Shasta daisies and white iris were combined with palms, ferns, smilax and gold and white tulle in the house decorations. The wedding bower was arranged in the living room. The supper table had a basket of daisies and white iris, tied with a fluffy bow of gold and white tulle.

The bride wore a gown of white Georgette over white satin, with a veil caught with orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of bride roses and a shower of lilies of the valley.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth Williams sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "At Dawning." Miss Helen Williams played wedding marches of Sousa and De Koven.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hall, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tracy, parents of the bridegroom, and by the bride's sisters, Mrs. J. H. Roe of Great Falls, Mont., Miss Matie Hall and Miss Florence Hall.

Presiding at the supper table were Mrs. J. D. Hurd, Mrs. George B. Swaner, Mrs. Ross Hartwell and Mrs. Lloyd Garrison. Assisting in serving were Miss Helen Bourgard, Miss Maurine Bourgard, Miss Nanon Croxall, Miss Eleanor Hubbard, Miss Erma Fenton and Miss Margaret Comrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracy will spend their honeymoon in the northwest and will make a tour of Yellowstone park. They will make their home in this city.
