Capital Is Power

"Whoever has a sixpence is sovereign over all men to the extent of that sixpence; commands cooks to feed him, philosophers to teach him, kings to guard over him—to the extent of that sixpence."—Carlyle.

A bank balance is stored-up power, strength, resource; it gives confidence, security, protection as nothing else does.

Power begins when Saving begins.

putting molasses in her coffee, but it was her first experience in eating rhubarb pie made without sugar and sweetened with sorghum. Nevertheless she understood that the pie was the thing that made the difference between just a meal and an occasion, and that the fact that there was no sugar was not any reason that there should be no pie. And she understood, too, that if the Dry Creek school could not be a decided success, it need not be a dismal failure. The schoolmarm ate her pie, molasses and all, and there was six months of school in Dry Creek that summer.—Indianapolis News.

A MAN'S BARGAIN

By Gertrude M. Hort.

If I cry for fellowship,
 A comrade's voice, a comrade's grip,
 A hand to hold me, when I slip,
 An ear to heed my groan,
 Renew that hour's dark ecstasy,
 When all Thy waves went over me,
 And Thou and I, with none to see,
 Were joined in fight alone!

If I demand a sheltered space
 Set for me in the battle place,
 Where I at times could turn my face,
 A screened and welcomed guest,
 Decree my soul should henceforth cease
 From its wild hankering after peace,
 And rest in that which gives release
 From the desire of rest.

If I for final goal should ask,—
 Some meaning for the long day's task,
 Some ripened field that yet may bask,
 Secure from hurricane,
 Point to Thy locust-eaten sheaves,—
 The burnt-out stars, the still-born leaves!
 And by the Toil no hope retrieves
 Nerve me to toil again.

So to Thy hard propitious skies
 Shall praise go up like sacrifice,
 And all the will within me, rise,
 Applauding at Thy word;
 Thou, in the Glory jasper-walled
 By no reproach of mine be galled;
 And I, among my kind, be called
 The man whose prayers are heard!

DIFFERENCE IN RELIGION

The wooly-headed Uncle Rastus was accused of disturbing the peace. Officer Mort Rudolph explained it as follows:

"Your honob, this man was running up and down the Miller river road, waving his arms and yelling at the top of his voice, and otherwise raising the mischief, at 1:30 o'clock in the morning. The people of the district complained, and they had a perfect right to."

The judge frowned at Rastus, who didn't seem to be particularly worried.

"What do you mean by such unbecoming conduct?" his honor demanded.

"Religion, jedge," was the response.

"Religion! Are you a Holy Roller or something like that? I have religion, Rastus, but I don't get up at midnight and tell everybody about it."

"Dat's des de diffunce, jedge, I ain't ershamed ob mine."—Case and Comment.

THE EXCEPTION

A. Moralizer—No man needs to go from bad to worse.

D. Moralizer—How about the autoist on a road with a detour sign ahead of him?

Hamilton's Smart Shop

In style, service and value, combined with the distinctive features that have made the Smart Shop famous for women's clothes, the suits we are showing are typical of the smartest creations in the Metropolitan centers. Most women who know what is correct have seen them, but there are others who have not, and we suggest that they be curious.
