Alice Nielson has been engaged for the Metropolitan Opera company to succeed Madame Sembrich, who will sing her farewell in New York on February 9th.

Blanche Walsh has been so successful in Jules Eckert Goodman's play, "The Test," this season that her tour has been extended to last until the middle of June.

Margaret Wycherly has been engaged for a term of years by Daniel Frohman and will make her first appearance under the management in "The Thief," with Charles Dalton featured with her.

A NEW HOTEL AND RESTAURANT.

Plans Perfected by George Auerbach and E. L. Wille to Provide Salt Lake With the Finest Caravansary Between Chicago and San Francisco.

IN COLONIAL THEATRE BUILDING.

During the week a company with a capitalization of $50,000, in which George Auerbach and E. L. Wille are the principle stockholders has been organized to conduct a hotel and restaurant in the new Colonial theatre building on Third South street. The papers will be filed shortly and Mr. Auerbach will leave for the east today to perfect the arrangements for the decorations, furnishings and general equipment of the cafe.

The upper floors of the building upon which are fifty-two outside rooms, are being richly furnished and will be ready for occupation within the next two or three weeks. There are bath rooms in every suite in the building, long distance telephones will be placed in every room, there will be every modern convenience and a large number of innovations entirely new to this city will be installed. In other words the new hotel will be thoroughly first class in every respect, and will fill a long felt want here. It will be the aim of the management to give such service as can be found only in the cities, and together with the cafe which will occupy the entire basement, the wants of those who like to live well will be easily satisfied.

The plans for the restaurant are very elaborate. In its arrangement will be embodied all of the newest and most up-to-date ideas, and a great part of it will be modeled after Rector's in Chicago. It is planned to open this cafe before June 1st.

There will be seating capacity provided for four hundred people with a main dining room, Bohemian room, Orange room, Pompeian garden, electric fountains, and altogether a place befitting the growth of the city and the demands of those who have made it possible for such things to be here.

There will be a dressing room for ladies with a maid in attendance, rooms for gentlemen, and every comfort and convenience that is a part of the leading cafes.

The restaurant will be conducted along the lines that have made the Louvre so popular, but upon the completion of the new place there will be no change of policy or management at the Louvre which will continue as heretofore to provide for the pleasure of its patrons.
