The most important event of the week in society circles was the marriage of Miss Josephine Helene Weil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weil of this city, to Sam R. Meyer of Chicago, which took place at the Weil home on North Main street on Wednesday, Dr. Charles Fleischer of Boston officiating.

Only the relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony which took place at seven o'clock in the evening and was followed by an elaborate supper, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer departing later for the east. After their honeymoon they will make their home in Chicago. The many friends of the winsome bride regret exceedingly that she has left Salt Lake permanently and she will be missed particularly by the younger set in society with whom she has been so popular.

In honor of Miss Elizabeth Hardaway of New York and Miss Laleita Snow of Wellesley, who are visiting at Fort Douglas, Mrs. Phillip G. Wrightson entertained at a tea at the Post on Monday, her guests being the ladies of the garrison and a number of friends from town.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. G. C. Bowen, Mrs. R. C. Ditto, Mrs. G. W. Petty and Mrs. Craig.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with summer flowers, and during the afternoon the regimental band rendered delightful music.

Mrs. N. J. Klein of Philadelphia was the guest of honor at a delightful tea on Wednesday given by Mrs. Joseph Baumgarten at her apartments at the Critchlow. Mrs. Baumgarten was assisted by Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. Walter Ellerbeck, Mrs. R. H. Officer, Mrs. Girard Rosenblatt, and Miss Hermann, and in the dining room which was presided over by Mrs. Joseph Lippman, the Misses Minette Baer, Denise Karrick, Elsa Bamberger and Madeline Weltz served refreshments.

WHERE THE SMART SET DINES.

The very acme of epicurean perfection has been reached at Maxim's cafe, under the Kenyon hotel where Mr. E. L. Wille presides as host to Salt Lake's best diners. In addition to serving a perfect mid-day lunch the management makes a specialty of appealing to the people directly through their stomachs at all hours of the day or evening.

Helen Decker's orchestra, supplemented by Miss Bessie Dumas, and Miss Louise Tanner, soloists, is furnishing some of the best music heard in the city. An ideal place to dine, one finds at Maxim's not only a delectable menu but an entertaining hour, always. The reputation of Maxim's is spreading over the continent; it is thoroughly established at home.

"What do we mean by the eternal fitness of things?" asked the teacher.

"I guess it must be these clothes of mine," replied the tall, gawky boy. "Father used to wear 'em, then they went to brother Bill, and now I've grown into 'em."

A Second Daniel.

Old Doctor Wiley's cure for heat Indeed, methinks are hard to heat First you must ne'er be in a hurry, And, secondly, should never worry. But thirdly, and this beats the lot, Don't ever think that it is hot!! Who dares assert there is a dearth Of Solomons upon this earth?

The Querist.

Horse Thief—Of course when you refer to hanging me you mean it as a joke.

Captor—Well, in a sense we are stringing you.
