

21 #38

GOODWIN'S WEEKLY

University of Utah

The Progressive Party

That party is progressive whose policy expressed in fact and embalmed in history made the United States a Nation instead of a confederacy; reclaimed the wilderness, and secured prosperity to a hundred millions of people.

The Republican party is and always was and always will be a party of progress. And men with their faces to the sunrise can in that party find their safest and best political home; and there they can render their best service to the Nation.

January 4, 1913

5 cents the copy