 who descended upon Paris to win fame, friendship and fortune amid the merry soldiers, royal entitles, intrigues and crafty political statesmen with whom he commingled.

Another weeks 'program of special musical features has been arranged by the Rex Theatre All-Soloist orchestra, under the leadership of Geo. Klink.

PANTAGES

The Berlin Madcaps headline the bill at the Pantages now running which will continue until Tuesday night. They are gymnasts and dancers of ability and are proving very popular. The Alpha Sextet, another feature, is especially pleasing, as is Rena Arnold, whose songs and stories and quick changes won her a popular place in the bill immediately. Besides the above there are LaFrance and McNab in black-face comedy and near comedy, Tom Kelly, the singing Irishman, who hurts his act a little with some stories not in the best taste. The aerial Lafayettes, who open the bill, have a thrilling trapeze act, and the animated pictures which close are acceptable.

THE BLUE BIRD

"The Blue Bird" will be the attraction at the Salt Lake theatre, next Monday and Tuesday with Tuesday matinee when this spectacular attraction will be produced here. The story of "The Blue Bird" tends to show that Happiness is a free thing, ever pursued but rarely caught. Two little peasant children, under the lure of this theory go forth to find "The Blue Bird" which, in the play, is a symbol of Happiness. Following them in their search, which carries them to strange lands are the souls of Light, Fire, Sugar, Water, Bread and Milk and, closer than all the others the faithful dog and the suspicious, treacherous cat. They journey to the wonderful Land Of Memory where no one dies as long as they are remembered by someone on earth. They visit the King of the Future and see the unborn children awaiting their arrival on earth. They wander through the Palace of Night with its joys and tortures finding hundreds of "Blue Birds" that perish before Light and then they are guided through the Land of Happiness back to their home, only to find that the "Blue Bird" had all the time been dwelling in the peasants' cottage.
