

Saunterings

The most important society event of the month and of the entire season will be the opening of the Hotel Newhouse on Saturday afternoon and evening next.

No personal invitations have been issued, but it is expected that the opening will be attended by the most representative gathering of the people of the city and state ever seen here. Following the reception, which will be from five to six p. m., on the mezzanine floor, when attendants will be pleased to show people through the various rooms and departments, there will be an elaborate table d'hote dinner to be served from six to nine o'clock, after which there will be dancing in the ballroom until morning.

Hundreds of reservations have been made for tables during the dinner hours and the management is especially desirous that those who have made reservations, particularly early ones, will take the trouble to confirm them so that there will be no errors incident to the rush of the occasion. It is especially desired also that the time the tables will be wanted will be mentioned. That the event will attract several thousand, goes without saying and it is anticipated that the accommodations in the luxurious dining rooms will all be taken. The smart set is on tip-toes with anticipation.

The famous Amsterdam-Hungarian orchestra of New York will be present, and the Troubadours have offered their services for the evening as have many other musicians and vocalists. From all indications there will be ten or twelve hours of great fun and those who overlook being present will miss the finest event of the year. Preparations have been made to serve fifteen hundred table d'hote dinners, and after they are served, the regular a la carte service will be in effect during the evening.

The most important event ever given by the local alumni of the Greek Letter fraternities represented in this city will take place at the Newhouse hotel on Friday evening, April 9th, when the Pan-Hellenic Society of Utah will give a dinner-dance of large proportions, it being expected that the attendance will not be less than three hundred, and comprise besides the local society some officers and other members of the society in Idaho, as well as representative ladies and gentlemen of Ogden.

The Pan-Hellenic Society of Utah consists of the alumni alone, and is not affiliated in any way with the Greek Letter fraternities at the University of Utah or other local fraternities. The plans for the dinner and dance are on a very elaborate scale and it is the intention of the promoters to have the largest representative gathering of the kind ever seen here. The general chairman is Francis Letchfield, Alpha Tau Omega, and the committees are as follows:

Arrangements—Frank W. Moore, Delta Tau Delta, chairman; W. H. Caine, Chi Psi; H. D. Bowman, Sigma Nu; Fred Smith, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Paul Williams, Chi Psi.

Banquet—Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Powers, Sigma Chi; Hays Matson, Delta Chi.

ma Delta; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Park, Psi Upsilon; Rev. and Mrs. E. I. Goshen, Delta Upsilon; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Zeta Psi; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, Delta Chi; Mr. and Mrs. Dr. C. E. Carter, Nu Sigma Nu; Mr. and Mrs. George N. Lawrence, Phi Delta Phi; Judge and Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Pi Kappa Alpha; Mr. and Mrs. Joel Nbley, Kappa Sigma; Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Kirtley, Alpha Delta Phi; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Judge, Chi Phi; Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Re, Delta Tau Delta; Mr. and Mrs. Noble Warrum, Chi Kappa Psi; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gustin, Sigma Chi; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McCornick, Delta Kapa Epsilon; Dr. and Mrs. W. G. B. Terrel, Xi Psi Phi; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tyng, Chi Psi; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sowles, Phi Sigma Kappa; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley King, Alpha Tau Omega; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kimball, Beta Theta Pi; Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Phi Delta Theta; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Chi Psi.

During her stay in the city this week, the pretty little prima donna has attracted no end of attention and one young man has seemingly gone quite mad over her attractiveness. He hasn't been able to meet her either, but his devotion is most remarkable. He manages to get a table near her in the grills, a seat near her in the theatre and is only a foot or two behind her on the street. It is possibly just one of those one sided romances however, so frequent when an exotic little beauty suddenly arrives in town.

A beautiful affair early in the week was a supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smoot for Miss Felice Lyne who is an old friend of Mrs. Smoot. Besides Miss Lyne her mother and Mrs. F. E. Moore, there were a number of former friends who have entertained for the singer since her arrival.

Miss Marguerite Richmond will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given by Mrs. Charles Tyng this afternoon. On Wednesday she was entertained at a smart bridge tea given by Miss Hazel Oswald at the Utah. Mrs. J. E. Clark also gave an informal tea for Miss Richmond on Friday.

Mrs. J. C. D. Clark was the hostess at a Kensington at her apartments at the Eagle Gate on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Jeffs and daughter are now at home at the former residence of Col. and Mrs. E. A. Wall.

One of the smartest events which took place early in the week was the dinner given at the Tennis club by Mrs. F. C. Schramm and Miss Anna McCornick for Mr. and Mrs. Schwarzmann preceding their departure for the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lake have issued invitations for a dancing party to be given at their home next Friday evening.

The Commercial club dance on Thursday evening—the "spring excursion" was a great success attended by a hundred and fifty of the members and their friends.

The largest affairs of the week were the card parties given on St. Patrick's day by the current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club at the club and that given by the board of managers at the Sarah Daft home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bamberger will return from Honolulu in April.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cosgriff and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fife have returned from California where they have been for the past month.

Walter R. Andrew left for his home in Tonopah on Tuesday, Mrs. Andrew and their baby remaining here to be the guests for the summer of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Parsons.

The Congress club will give a large dance at the Odeon on March 31st. It is the semi-annual event of this popular organization.

PEACE CRUCIFIED

By Harry B. Kennon.

Ancient of Days!
Of men disclaimed
While fashioning of man a God:
Blonde super-beast of one base law,
Self preservation, claw to claw—
Turn, turn, nor leave us unreclaimed,
Stay with thy hand man's awful rod.

Lord God of Hosts!
Of men blasphemed
While warring 'gainst their brother men:
Besought of priests and monarchs, Thou!
While neutral traders cringe and bow—
Turn, turn not from us, if unschemed
To change our god to Man again.

God of all Nations!
Dispossessed
Of all to serve each claimant land;
Dethroned to serve for might, not right:
Nor lighten brotherhood's dark night—
Turn, turn not from us, if distressed
We see through flame, nor understand.

Our Father!
Let this blood filled cup,
That trembles in our stubborn hands,
Pass—if it be Thy gracious will, . . .
Lord, don't Thou sleep or slumber still!
Wake! Wake Lord God! Nor let us sup
To dregs this wrath that man commands.

WAR

By Baron Boerries von Munchhausen
(Post)

How easy now in Germany to die
As the sad clock records the waning day!
When beams of glory from the western sky
Gold haloes round the warriors' helmets lay.

Instead of ringing song from flashing sword,
Come hiss of shrapnel—boom of murd'rous steel.
My wonder is that larks find their accord,
And that a German poet dares to feel.

The noisome weeds that from the sainted soil
The yellow-tassel corn o'ertopped by far,
In German earth foiled every winter's toil.
One only plows so deep—and that is war!

And when the warrior steeds of iron gray
Have dug the plow across the inert field;
Again the gold-tasseled corn shall sway
Where once the yellow weed refused to yield.

Watch, too, that where the mighty hoofs have trod
And 'gainst the furrow hollows sharp have prest,

Will rise alluring song from out the clod
As larks rejoice and, singing, make their nest!
