

job department of "the great moral and religious" has a reputation for printing artistic work—nothing too large or too small for this plant to undertake, as it is thoroughly equipped for all kinds of jobs.

Eastern Utah Advocate

A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED FOR PEOPLE NOW ON EARTH.

PRICE, UTAH, THURSDAY, NOV. 21, 1912. NUMBER 48.

CITIZENS GO AFTER AUTO ROAD

JUNCTION, COLO., MADE HEADQUARTERS.

Continental Highway Passes through Price and the Canyon of Here, Touching Helper, Gate and Colton—Colorado Celebrate With Banquet.

JUNCTION, Colo., Nov. 19.—The Colorado-Utah Link of "Land Trails" is the official of the proposed automobile road connecting Denver with the City. Tonight Grand Junction celebrated the organization of the association with a banquet of the citizens in honor of the occasion.

the plan of organization, commissioners are named to organize the route, which is into five divisions. They are: Ward of Provo, W. F. O'Brien, Frank Cook of Green Austin Gavin of Glenwood Springs. The five commissioners are empowered to organize men and village along the route.

KILLED IN QUARREL

City Man Gets Wound at Westwater.

JUNCTION, Colo., Nov. 19.—The top of his head being to a pulp and suffering from injuries inflicted with a stove pipe, William E. Linn of Salt Lake City, died in St. Joseph hospital here tonight. Linn had received his injuries at the hands of J. A. Downing of the Denver and Rio Grande.

BONDS ARE FIXED

Must Qualify in the Sum of Fifty-Five Thousand.

A meeting of the board of commissioners last Saturday of the incoming county who come into office the year, were fixed. The fee is $75,000; clerk, $12,000; recorder and assessor, $10,000; attorney, $5,000; superintendent of $1,000; and constables one each. The board meets Monday, November 25th. It is expected the commissioners demand fidelity bonds from their officers, where heretofore bonds have satisfied.

LOOKS BAD FOR THE BEEHIVE.

DISTRICT COURT MEETS AGAIN AT PRICE, DEC. 31

Judge Albert H. Christenson adjourned district court at Price last Tuesday evening, holding a day longer than had been anticipated. From here he went to Moab. On the 31st of December Judge Christenson will return to Price and hold the second adjourned term of the regular September term.

F. N. Cameron of Salt Lake City was here Tuesday arranging for a bond of ten thousand dollars for Edward H. Johnston, who shot and killed Brigham Taylor of Provo, a short time ago above Helper. Johnston is still in very bad shape from rheumatism. It is likely he will be out under bonds within the next day or so.

TAXES ARE COMING IN

Corporations Paying About Seventy Per Cent of the Big Total.

For the present year (1912) taxes amounting to $192,246 were assessed in Carbon county and of which about forty thousand dollars is yet to come in, says County Treasurer Oliver T. Harmon. The railway and coal companies are all in with their money, which amounts to a total of $116,959.28. The figures are: Utah Fuel company, $51,502.76; Denver and Rio Grande, $45,454.40; Independent Coal and Coke company, $7,442.82; Southern Utah and the Castle Valley railroads and the Consolidated Fuel company, $12,551.28. In the figures given for the coal companies is included the taxes of the store companies operated in connection.

BLOODY BATTLE AMONG JAPS AT HOTEL CLARK

About 10:20 o'clock last night a couple of Japanese got into a cutting scrape at Hotel Clark and as a result of the fracas a fellow named Nakajwa is expected to die. The scuffle was done by a contractor, Nakamura, who looks after labor jobs for his countrymen.

FATHER OF H. GESAS IS DEAD IN CHICAGO

Harry Gesas, a well known business man at Price and Salt Lake City, is in receipt of a telegraphic dispatch telling of the death and burial of his father, Nathan Gesas, in Chicago last Thursday. Cancer is assigned as the cause of death. The elder Gesas, who was 71 years of age at the time of his demise, was an old time manufacturer of Chicago.

School supplies. Advocate Publishing Co., Price, Utah.

SOLDIER SUMMIT IS TO BE ELECTRIFIED

Denver and Rio Grande Board of Directors to Spend Three Millions of Dollars On This Gigantic Project.

Correspondence The Advocate.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 18.—Vice President Brown, of the Denver and Rio Grande, on his return from New York City yesterday announced that the first steps in electrifying the Denver and Rio Grande system are to be taken at once. The first unit to be electrified will be from Helper to Salt Lake City, a hundred and fourteen miles. The second unit will be over Tennessee Pass, the great Continental Divide in Colorado, and will involve the electrification of the line from Salda to Minturo, Colo., a distance of eighty-seven miles.

FIGURING ON WATER

City Fathers Investigating Proposals of J. M. Miller.

At a meeting of the city council of Price last Tuesday evening with Mayor Olson and all members present except Alderman McKinnon, a committee was named, consisting of Aldermen Whitmore, Gunderson and Fouts, to investigate a water right offered the city by J. M. Miller of Colton, the idea being to increase the supply of the city by purchase from Miller of a water right of nineteen hundred acres with two reservoir sites on Kyuss Creek.

NEW ENGINES COMING

About the Biggest Things in Denver and Rio Grande Service.

Fourteen of the immense new Mikado engines for the Denver and Rio Grande, ordered recently, are scheduled to arrive within a week and will be put in service between Grand Junction and Helper. The engines weigh, with tender included, loaded and ready for the road, 542,500 pounds or 271 1/2 tons, gigantic in every line and powerful to the last degree.

SHORES GETS HIS MEN

Two Express Agents Charged With Robbery at Grand Junction.

Last Thursday at Grand Junction, Colo., Ben Gilbert was arrested and placed in the county jail on a warrant charging him with the robbery of the Globe Express company at the union depot in that city last March. He and Bert Teachout, who was arrested the same day in San Diego, Cal., on the same charge, are alleged to have conspired to take fourteen thousand dollars in gold from the safe of the company and hide it on Teachout's place, where it was later recovered by Sheriff Schrader and C. W. "Doc" Shores.

OLD FOLKS' MEETING

Everyone Near and Far Around Invited to This Meeting.

There will be an old folks' reunion at City Hall next Saturday, dinner being served at 12 o'clock, noon, and to which all old people of Price and vicinity are invited. An appropriate program, both literary and musical, will be a feature. Anyone unable to walk to the hall will be called for by buggy or automobile if word is sent to Oliver J. Harmon by telephone or otherwise.

Remember Sumner is always ready to make you an offer for your second-hand household articles.—Adv.

NEW THEATER NAMED

Four Persons to Divide the Money Offered As Prize.

The name for the new theater being erected by Emmett K. Olson was decided upon by vote of the audience last Sunday evening at the Liberty, being christened Eko (Echo). The name is made from the initials of the owner. The judges were Fred L. Wood, Emmett K. Olson and E. A. Anderson. Four persons had the same name, so that the money will be divided between them. They are Mrs. Olive Miller, Mrs. W. F. Olson, Miss Elizabeth Crockett and Romeo Harmon.

New line of paint brushes. The Advocate Publishing Co.