KENILWORTH ODD FELLOWS GIVE ANNIVERSARY BALL

KENILWORTH, March 2.—The biggest social event that has taken place in Kenilworth for some time, the first anniversary ball given by the Kenilworth Lodge No. 55, I. O. O. F., in the Kenilworth Auditorium on the evening of February 13th.

An address of welcome was given by Mr. Arthur March, chaplain of the lodge, after which Mr. Daniel Webster rendered a vocal solo, being accompanied by Mrs. George Eenroad on the piano and Mr. William Woodhead on the violin.

The grand march was lead by Noble Grand Edward Kimber and wife, followed by the members of the lodge and invited guests.

The auditorium was beautifully decorated with carnations, evergreen, flags and bunting. Conspicuous in the decorations was the three link emblem of the Odd Fellows.

A refreshing luncheon was served by a coterie of Kenilworth's prettiest girls, covers being laid for a hundred guests at a time. From a prettily decorated booth several young ladies served punch throughout the evening.

The Helper orchestra, under the direction of Professor Miller, rendered an excellent program of the latest dance music and the happy dancers tripped the light fantastic until the small hours of the morning.

A flash light picture was taken of the lodge in a group, with visiting friends from the Castle Gate and Price lodges of I. O. O. F.

Invitations were given to a large number and guests were present from all over Carbon county. The dance programs were nicely gotten up and each lady carried a carnation.

The Kenilworth lodge is the youngest of the order in the state, but is the second lodge in finances, ranking next to the Salt Lake lodge, and to say the least, did themselves proud in this their first annual ball.

Following are the committees under whose direction the ball was so successfully given:

Entertainment and Decorations—Antonio Rossio, chairman; Edwin Brooks, J. Jones.

Refreshments—Edwin Brooks, I. K. Good, H. Howard.

Floor Managers—C. H. Bishop, E. H. Kimber.

PRICE ACADEMY NOTES.

The house warming at the new Academy dormitory last Friday evening was a fine success. The building was tastefully decorated with the Academy colors, lavendar and white, and with flowers and penants. A large crowd was present and spent the evening very pleasantly with games, contests, etc. A short program was rendered consisting of a vocal solo by Miss Myrtle Clarke, a violin solo by Mrs. L. A. Jones and a two-part chorus by the girls of the school. The refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake and fruice. All present highly complimented the hospitality of the school and commended it on the addition of the splendid new building.

Mrs. Ryland entertained the junior section of Miss Henney's piano pupils Saturday at 3:30 o'clock. After the program refreshments, consisting of punch and cake, were served. Those present were Alice Hoffmann, Edith Galley, Katherine McDonald, Lillian Johnston, Irene Lloyd, Dolly Ryland an dMiss Henney.

—o—

Epworth League Sunday night. Leaders—Miss Fields and June Christofferson.

—o—

The Philologian Literary society held its regular meeting Monday evening. The following program was rendered:

Parliamentary Drill.
Mandolin solo ..... Mrs. Jones
Reading ..... Roy Cutrell
War Discussion ..... Mr. Fields
Reading ..... Miss Fields
Current Events ..... George Stevenson

—o—

Quite a few took advantage of the open house for the public last Thursday afternoon and enjoyed the tour through all the rooms at the new dormitory, and on visiting the spacious dining room, were served with light refreshment in the form of fruice.

LADIES BREAK INTO MEETING OF THE PRICE CITY COUNCIL

Mrs. Carlos Gunderson, Mrs. J. F. Pace, Mrs. E. S. Horsley, Mrs. F. E. Woods, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. L. A. Lauder and Mrs. Ella Wickham, chaperoned by Judge Woods and J. T. Mahoon called on the city council Tuesday night to urge a satisfactory disposal of a matter the women had been preparing for some time. Apparently it was a great weight. After some deliberation the councilmen decided to permit the women to present their case. The data seemed overwhelming, for each lady entered with a large package, which was quickly tabled. J. W. Leatbourow was the first to avert the mission of the ladies. He immediately moved adjournment until the following evening. Before a vote could be taken the aroma from the tabled packages had reached all the councilmen. The vote to adjourn was unanimous.

At this point of the proceedings Master Jamie Loofbourow entered with more data in the form of silverware, dishes and linen; the tabled packages being brought forth, were found to contain a carefully prepared luncheon, and the council chamber was converted into a banquet hall in a surprisingly short time. A diplomat, in the guise of hot coffee, effected a permanent disposal of all the matter prepared and presented by the ladies, much to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Try This For Neuralgia.

Thousands of people keep on suffering with neuralgia because they do not know what to do for it. Neuralgia is a pain in the nerves. What you want to do is to soothe the nerve itself. Apply Sloan's Liniment to the surface over the painful part—do not rub it in. Sloan's Liniment penetrates very quickly to the sore, irritated nerve and allays the inflammation. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 35 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, lumbago, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.—Advt.

Steam Heat.

All desiring steam heat installation for buildings, apply to J. H. Manson, lessee of the Price Electric Light and Power Plant.

God's Use for Posts.

If God made posts for anything it was to keep alive the traditions of the pure, the holy and the beautiful.—Lowell.

To Revive Ferns.

Nitrate of soda dissolved in water should be given to ferns that are small or weak, one-quarter of an ounce of nitrate to a gallon of water. One-half an ounce of nitrate to a gallon of water should be used on plants that are large and vigorous. Soot and salt are also good to use occasionally.

Mistaken Shrewdness.

There is a mistaken brand of shrewdness which regards telling the truth as so easy that it isn't worth while.

Recipe for Happiness.

If you want to be continuously happy you must know when to be blind, when to be deaf and when to be dumb.

GONGRESS ADJOURNS AFTER LONG SESSION

First Democratic Assembly Since 1895 Ends After 637 Days of Strenuous Labor on Epoch-Making Legislation —Many Prominent Leaders Retire.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The sixty-third congress, first under complete domination of the Democratic party since 1895, ended today at noon.

It had been in almost continuous session since President Wilson's inauguration two years ago. Beginning with an extra session, called by the president April 7, 1913, the congress has worked actually 637 days.

Much important legislation was accomplished but much contemplated, some of it hard pressed by the president and party leaders, was left undone. It is the present intention of the president and his advisers to give congress a rest. Rather than force an extra session, they would leave the remainder of the administration's constructive aspirations to a new congress next winter, which, although under democratic control, will have a greatly reduced majority in the house.

Foremost in the enactments of the sixty-third congress were:

The Underwood-Simmons tariff act, with the income tax, which replaced the Payne-Aldrich tariff law.

The federal reserve act, reorganizing the currency system.

Made New Trust Laws.

1. Antitrust laws to supplement the Sherman act, including the Clayton law and federal trade commission act, the former providing for punishment of individuals who violate business regulations and the latter establishing a government institution to aid in keeping business within the law.

Repeal of the Panama canal tolls exemption for American coastwise shipping.

Act directing the building at a cost of $35,000,000 of a government railroad to the mineral fields of Alaska.

Act to regulate cotton exchanges and to penalize dealings in purely speculative cotton future sales.

A special internal revenue tax, commonly called the "war tax."

A government war risk insurance bureau to insure the American ships against the hazards of war, and an act providing for the transfer of foreign-owned or built ships to American registry.

Of those measures which failed of enactment or could not be considered for lack of time, the following are regarded by Democratic leaders as paramount:

Bill for government purchase or charter of transoceanic ships for the establishment of an American merchant marine which encountered the most stubborn filibuster in the history of the senate, created an insurgent movement in the Democratic ranks and held up general legislation for weeks of the last session.

Literacy Test Veto Upheld.

2. The immigration bill, including a literacy test for admission of aliens, which passed both houses, was vetoed by President Wilson and failed by a narrow margin to repass the house on a motion to overturn the veto.

Conservative measures urged by the president to provide a new system for leasing of waterpower sites and a leasing system to open the mineral resources of the country.

Bill to enlarge the measure of Philippine self government and to extend promise of ultimate independence to Filipino people, a measure which passed the house and was approved by a senate committee.

Regulation by the interstate commission of the issue of railroad securities, originally a part of the administration's antitrust program.

Rural credits legislation contemplating the establishment of a system of farm mortgage loan banks, persistently urged throughout congress.

In addition to the foregoing, scores of general legislative bills covering a wide range of subjects died with the end of the congress, among them measures for federal road improvement, general waterway development, reorganization of the civil service, to prohibit importation of convict-made goods, and several measures for reorganization of the army.

Two Big Issues Fail.

3. The last session of the congress was notable, too, for the failure of two great issues, national prohibition and woman suffrage. Proposed constitutional amendments precipitated two of the most exciting legislative battles in the history of the house of representatives, both measures failing to receive a necessary two-thirds vote.

Foreign relations of the nation were constantly to the fore almost from the beginning of the congress. The Mexican situation requiring close attention from the outset as has the European war. Throughout the session the president and the senate foreign relations committee were in frequent conferences and much was done to restrain unusual demonstrations which might have disturbed international tranquility. Early in the session general arbitration treaties with several great foreign powers were renewed for five-year periods, and twenty-six peace commission treaties providing for investigation of international disputes before resort to arms were negotiated and ratified. A treaty to enforce the regulations adopted by the London Safety at Sea conference was ratified last December, but with an amendment making reservations which came too late for other powers to consider, thus preventing enforcement of the convention. A treaty with Nicaragua providing for acquirement of the Nicaraguan canal r ts and naval stations for $3,000,000 was left unratified by the senate and the pending treaty with Colombia directing payment of $25,000,000 for the Panama canal strip was held in by the foreign relations committee.

Differences Arising Over Patronage.

4. The closing session of the congress was almost wholly devoted to appropriation bills, the ship purchase bill fight, and a few general measures. Aside from appropriations, about the only important legislative enactments included the creation of the coast guard by consolidation of the life saving and revenue cutter services; reclassification of grades in the diplomatic and consular service; requirement of registration of and imposing special taxes upon all dealers, manufacturers or importers of opium, or its derivatives, and the creation of the Rocky Mountain national park in Colorado.

Much debate on the condition of national defenses enlivened the closing session. Proposals for special investigation of the preparedness of the nation for war all failed. House naval and military committees, however, conducted public hearings on the subject in connection with the military supply bills.

The congress also was marked by and some Democratic senators over differences between President Wilson patronage; a spirited contest over confirmation of nominees for the federal reserve board; two successful filibusters—one in the summer session against the rivers and harbors appropriation bill and the other the fight of Republicans and Democratic allies against the ship purchase bill; an unsuccessful effort in the senate to establish a cloture rule to limit prolonged debate; institution of a special inquiry into outside influences exerted against the ship purchase bill; a general lobby investigation which extended for many months, and proposal of an inquiry into senatorial campaign contributions.

With the fall of the gavel today many senators and congressmen, long national figures, passed into private life. Senators who retire are Root of New York, Burton of Ohio, Perkins of California, Thornton of Louisiana, Brinton of Kansas, Stephenson of Wisconsin, Crawford of South Dakota, Camden of Kentucky and White of Alabama. Representatives Underwood leaves the house to go to the senate. Scores of representatives in the house give way to new members.

Cough Medicine For Children.

Never give a child a cough medicine that contains opium in any form. When opium is given other and more serious diseases may follow. Long experience has demonstrated that there is no better or safer medicine for coughs, colds and croup in children than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is equally valuable for adults. Try it. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.
