

Utah Fuel Co.
Miners and Shippers of
Carbon County Coals

Also Manufacturers of Coke

Carbon County Coals are the Best

In the market for Horses, Mules, for Mines, Hay and Grain, Mine Props, Ties, Springs and Various Other Local Products.

Home Industries Patronized

General Offices Seventh Floor Judge Building, Salt Lake City. Mines at Clear Creek, Winter Quarters, Castle Gate, Utah Mine and Sunnyside, Carbon County, Utah.

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN UTAH

CASTLE DALE

CASTLE DALE, Dec. 4.—The storm made his appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gorman last Friday night with a fine baby boy and on returning the next evening visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Baird and made them happy with a brand new baby girl.

Henry Franzen, who has recently been taking care of the roads in the vicinity, suffered an injury to his leg last Saturday while working road. His daughter Gilda is also suffering from a bad foot, caused by stepping on the tooth of a rake.

The roads are in excellent shape now, thanks to the timely arrival of the recent storm and the unexcelled work of our road men.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hill, now located at High, Ida., spent last Sunday afternoon in Castle Dale visiting with Hill's relatives and old friends.

Mr. G. P. Hickman left yesterday for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vera Snow, and family at Standardville. She was accompanied by her little daughter, Doughtine.

J. M. Cowley, James C. Jensen and Hyrum Osterstrom of Cleveland were among the county seat visitors the past week. The latter's eldest daughter, Hilda, is quite seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. Emma Christensen entertained the cracker club last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orange Olsen are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Olson's sister, Zina.

T. O. Wakefield was among the Huntington contingent of Castle Dale visitors yesterday.

The thrashing season is about over around Orangeville and Saturday will hear the last of the hummer for another year. The grain and seed crops have been over average.

Miss Delpha Petty entertained at a dinner party Thanksgiving Day. The dining room and table were beautifully decorated in fruit and flowers. Two pilgrim meals served the dinner. Covers were laid for Misses Dorcas and Tilda Olson, Hazel Acord, Cecil Singleton, Sarah Oveson, Bernell Thompson, Jennie Lemson and Miss Roberts and Messrs. Felix Cliff Petty, Edwin Soderquist, Harold Jensen and Carl Acord.

Wedding bells were ringing on Thanksgiving Day. Miss Val Hitchcock and Lloyd of Ferris were the happy pair.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Oveson of Huntington will be pleased to learn that their son, Orvin, is again able to be up. He has been confined to his bed for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Howard of Huntington entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving Day Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson of Venice, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson of Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Reid, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jenks of Grandville. A big turkey dinner was served. It was the first time Mrs. Reid and her brothers had eaten Thanksgiving dinner together since their childhood, as they were pioneers here in the early stages.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomas of Cleveland spent Thanksgiving with their son at Sunnyside.

Mrs. Mary Davis of Salt Lake City is visiting with relatives and friends in Cleveland.

Most of the sickness around Cleveland is somewhat abating.

Peter Johanson and children of Castle Dale visited with local relatives in Cleveland last Saturday.

William D. Stokes of Cleveland was a business visitor in Salt Lake City last week.

Mrs. Clara Adams and children of Cleveland have recently returned from an extended visit upstate.

Joe Jensen and family of Cleveland are visiting this week in Keweenaw.

Mrs. H. P. Jensen and children of Cleveland have gone to Sunnyside, where they will spend the winter with the husband and father who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ward of Cleveland have just returned from Castle Gate, where they were called to the bedside of the former's father, who is very low.

Miss Louise Christensen has just returned to Cleveland from Helper, and Miss Jensen has returned there from Keweenaw.

FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Ashton of Brigham City is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Carter.

Miss Lola Alfred of Ephraim spent Thanksgiving holidays at Fairview.

Harold Cheney came home to spend Thanksgiving Day with relatives.

Miss Addie Morley and Miss Lillie Morley of Price were Fairview visitors the past week.

Widow Mower leaves this week for the reservation, where he will probably look for the country suits him.

The play given under the auspices of the relief society, November 24th, was well received by a large and appreciative audience.

The ladies' literary club met at the home of Mrs. Jessa Turpin December 4. A story was given by Mrs. Mary W. Sanderson. "The Smith Baby's Welcome" was given by Mrs. E. W. Anderson. Nine ladies enjoyed the social hour and refreshments served.

MANTI

MANTI, Dec. 4.—One of the channels through which liquor has been coming into Manti came to a sudden ending Wednesday when Marshal Harmon "pinched" W. A. Moran, an agent on the Denver and Rio Grande passenger train. The marshal got a clue to work on a couple of weeks ago and has since run down two cases on which he felt sure he could secure a conviction if taken into court. The offender seemed to think so too and decided his best course was to trust his case to the mercy of Justice McAllister, who imposed a fine of seventy-five dollars.

Judge A. H. Christensen made in order this week naming John Lowry of this city and J. V. Jensen as jury commissioners to select the jurors for 1916. He also issued an order appointing P. V. Dyring of Manti, Henry Jackson of Panguitch, and J. P. Hansen of Ephraim as state appraisers for 1916 to appraise all estates in Sanpete county which are subject to the income tax.

Marriage licenses were issued the past week to Iven C. Larsen and Theodora K. Anderson, both of Ephraim; John Pollet of Centerfield and Annie Hansen of Arto; Leo Sorenson and Amanda Sorenson, both of Spring City; D. G. Brown of Salina and Tracy Kearns of Turpin; O. W. Smith of Logan and Stella Madson of Manti; Edward R. Childs of Gunnison and Neveline Peterson Larson of Ephraim; Ora L. Hansen and Lola Torr, both of Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. L. L. Dalton went to Idaho Sunday, where she expects to remain indefinitely with her son.

Sheriff Davis went to Spring City this morning to investigate a reported robbery of the J. M. Johnson store last night.

M. H. Berry came home from Provo Saturday and proceeded to Helper county, where he is "doctoring" planes.

Harry Smith has returned from Salt Lake City, where he has been employed during the summer.

W. M. Taylor was a Manti visitor from Moroni Sunday, coming over via automobile.

Harold Felt motored up from Salina Tuesday.

H. E. Dorngaard was up from Salina for Thanksgiving.

The Myrtle Mooks met with Miss Edmonds Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Kenneth Bird went to Richfield Sunday, where Bird is teaching. County Clerk T. J. Morley was a business visitor in Salt Lake City last week end.

The Stake Young Ladies' Mutual officers pleasantly surprised Mrs. Mabel Simpson Wednesday evening.

Last Friday evening a crowd of boys gave their girls a chicken roast at the E. T. Perry home.

L. H. Becker and family spent Thanksgiving in Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Becker came back Friday and Mrs. Becker and the children remained until Sunday.

Mrs. Myrtle Stevens came down from Salt Lake City for Thanksgiving and is visiting for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hall came in from Two Rivers, Cal., Sunday and will remain in Manti for awhile.

Fred Keller, Edgar Clark, Wilfred Prichard and Milton Burns were home from the university for Thanksgiving.

L. K. Fox and Perry Warren arrived last week from a trip through the southern counties, where they have been selling groceries.

Frank Peterson, Fred Tatton, Pete Ahlstrom and Ed Tooth went over to the Yuba dam Monday, where they have employment.

MORONI

MORONI, Dec. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walker and Roy Scott of Salt Lake City have been spending the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of Will Irwin.

One of the attractive social events of the week was the dancing party given by the S. O. D. club at the high school assembly hall on Friday evening, November 24th.

Will Christensen of Fairview was in town on Friday.

Hyrum Stetson of Mammoth was in town for a few days this week.

Tom Mathews returned to Salt Lake City Monday.

Edith Irwin visited with friends in Ephraim the first part of the week.

N. V. Stenerson of Lehi was in town for a few days this week.

Miss Flora Draper of Salt Lake City is visiting with relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Grace Prosvitch came home from Salt Lake City to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Miss Florence Peterson of Ephraim was the guest of Perry Faux for a few days this week.

Lain Stittendorf of Salt Lake City spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jamison.

Miss Ida Sparks of Ephraim was the guest of Miss Edith Irwin for a few days this week.

George Simpson, Jr., came to Moroni on Saturday to attend the funeral of his father, George Simpson, Sr.

Mayor D. O. Larson, Will Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bradley motored to Manti on Sunday.

Eugene Faux was home from the Brigham Young University for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Andrew Nelson came home from Provo to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Mrs. D. O. Larson entertained at a dinner on Thursday. Covers were laid for eight.

Charles Sorenson came home from Mammoth to attend the funeral of George Simpson, Sr., Saturday.

Miss Ruth Davies, who is teaching school at Spring City, came home to spend Thanksgiving with her mother.

who left Thursday for the mission field. After the dance a pleasant party was given at his home.

Mrs. Hilda Dyring entertained Friday evening. Lunch was served, covers being laid for four.

Miss Hedy Jensen of Manti was the guest of Miss Jessie Olson Saturday and Sunday.

Burt, to Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Hall at Salt Lake City, November 24th, a girl, Mrs. Hall was formerly Miss Hazel Greaves of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reid entertained at dinner Sunday evening. Covers were laid for fifteen.

The marriage of Kevin Larsen of this city and Mrs. Earl Anderson, former city librarian, was solemnized last Wednesday. A wedding reception in their honor was given by relatives that evening at the home of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Jens P. Peterson returned Saturday from an extended trip through Northern Utah and Idaho.

Miss Ora Olson entertained the members of the I. D. club Friday evening in compliment to Miss Grace Jensen.

Quite a pleasant event of the week was the social given by the Ladies' Mountain Echo band in the band room Wednesday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in green and luncheon was served to forty. Dancing and games were the features of the evening.

Mrs. Bertie Isal entertained relatives and friends Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hasmus Hansen was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a pleasant social.

UINTAH BASIN SECTION

MYTON, Dec. 4.—R. C. O'Toole, the building contractor who has been employed in construction work at Duchesne the past summer, died suddenly Wednesday morning from an attack of pneumonia. The body will be taken to Ogden for burial.

The report continues to go the rounds that a new town is to be sprung up somewhere on the Duchesne near Lake Fork.

Old Tim John, a well known and aged member of the Ute tribe, who has made his home on Lake Fork for several years, died Monday of this week.

Word has been received of the death in Carbon county last Monday of the mother of P. B. Horley of Myton. Mr. Horley and wife and daughter left immediately to attend the funeral.

Walter McDonald of Talmage brought in a load of good Saturday, a haul of nearly forty miles, and found a very poor market, as wood buyers are numerous this fall and persons are finding coal the cheaper fuel.

Haunchmen on the Lake Fork Valley are said to have disposed of most of their surplus hay at prices ranging from five to seven dollars per ton.

Quite a number of Myton people are at Duchesne this week attending district court.

District court is in session at Duchesne with Judge A. H. Morgan on the bench.

If some man would manufacture five hundred thousand brick near Myton he could easily dispose of them in a short time at from eight to ten dollars a thousand. The clay in this vicinity is said to be ideal for brick.

E. B. Tuttle, teacher at Lake Fork, has thirty-five acres in Turkey Red wheat on an Indian lease three miles west of the local school house. The field was sowed the first of October and the wheat is up well enough to withstand the ravages of winter.

This is the second day of December and the mercury has not been near zero. The coldest recorded was fifteen above. There has been no snow to speak of in the basin, but on the mountains there has been a considerable fall.

P. B. Cairns of Berkeley, Cal., who has made real estate purchases in Myton, is expected to return here in a few days and begin work on a large hotel. He is said to have contracted for two hundred thousand brick.

EPHRAIM

EPHRAIM, Dec. 4.—Funeral services for Mrs. Rena M. Schultz were held in the tabernacle on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Schultz died at her home in this city of general debility. She was born in Denmark in 1837 and emigrated to Ephraim about thirty-two years ago.

E. W. Patrick, importer of fancy live stock, left this week for Canada, where he will purchase shorthorn cattle for importation to this state. Patrick and family will return to Ephraim next spring to make this place their home.

Mrs. J. A. Westerman and daughter, Louisa, of Salt Lake have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kelton the past ten days.

Mrs. Hyrum Thorpe entertained at dinner Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. J. A. Westerman of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Quillan Nelson of Manti is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Thorpe.

Miss Devola Olson entertained a number of friends Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora L. Hansen were given a shower by a number of their young friends Sunday evening. The time was spent in music and games and the young couple were presented with six hand painted vase and covers. Twenty-three guests were present.

Mrs. N. J. Colver has been appointed librarian by the Ephraim Carnegie library board, to succeed Mrs. Ravi Anderson who has resigned.

Last Tuesday evening a well attended farewell dance was given in Social Hall in compliment to LaVar Larson,

MT. PLEASANT

MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 4.—C. W. Sorenson sustained a broken leg Wednesday last week while riding a horse out near Spring City. The animal slipped and fell on Sorenson's right leg, breaking it above the ankle. He managed to get his foot out of the stirrup after the horse raised up and with the broken leg he climbed upon the animal and rode into Spring City, where he received medical attention. Later he was brought to Mt. Pleasant by James Mosen in his automobile. At present he is doing very well at his home in this city.

Regular quarterly conference of the North Sanpete stake of Zion will be held at Moroni on Saturday and Sunday, December 11th and 12th.

J. P. Ovenson has moved from Clear Creek to Altonah, where he expects to remain for some time.

The boys of Company D and the First Military band of the national guard of Utah are making arrangements for a big military ball which will be given during the holidays.

Funeral services for George Simp-

NORTHERN ..BAR..

S. W. ROBINSON, Prop.
DAN FORD, Manager.

Choicest Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

Fair and Courteous Treatment to all.

ELITE BAR

EIGHT YEAR OLD CEDAR BROOK WHISKEY.

And everything the highest grade in the liquor and cigar line.

CHARLES AVERILL
PRICE, UTAH

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

You can carry this Safety Pen upside down or any way in your pocket or purse. It is sealed by the cap and cannot leak or spill.

Priced from $2.50 to $6.
Sold exclusively by us.

The Sun

Walter Christensen
TRANSFER and DRAY.

Give us your work and it will receive prompt attention. No job too large or too small for us to handle. Freight is Green Our Special Attention. Phone 9592

VUL-COT Wastepaper Baskets.....

Admirably adapted for use in offices, banks, hotels, laundries, shops, schools, railroads, hospitals, barber shops, stores, residences, restaurants, etc. Different sizes and prices. Come in and see them.

The Sun
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE
Main Street, Price, Utah.

R.J. Turner
Abstracter of Titles for CARBON COUNTY
SURVEYING AND CONTRACTING
P. O. BOX 32
PRICE, UTAH.

One Dollar
Buy Insurance (Accident) Fully Paid For One Year. What the Policy Covers

$2500 For Loss of Life.
$1000 For Loss of Hands
$1000 For Loss of Feet
$1000 For Loss of Hand and Foot.
$1000 For Loss of Eyes.
$500 For Loss of One Hand
$500 For Loss of One Foot.

Fire Insurance, Real Estate, Loans
North American Accident Ins. Co.
A. H. HUNTER
Eastern Utah Representative
PRICE, UTAH

Sunnyside Liquor House
Retail Liquor Merchants
Sunnyside, Castle Gate, Winter Quarters and Clear Creek
NOTHING BUT THE BEST
Fine Wines, Brandy, Beers and Cordials for the Family Trade.
Pool and Billiard Tables.

LARS FRANDSEN
Manufacturer of Brick of All Kinds

Yards adjoining the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad company on the south, three blocks east of depot. Office at home, corner Main and Sixth streets.

Estimates Given and Prices Quoted on Application
P. O. Box 93 Phone 43x
PRICE, UTAH

SATIS
FOU
At W
Prices
"Four
Wa
Stores
EAST
TELE
Covers All
Us Able and Q
J. REX
Best of Independ
Mines
Gen. Offi
SA
Rub
EVI
Wome
ren and nev
Mackin
Coats
Also f
Childr
Youths
wear,
our sto
before numbe
Mads
SCOFI