There is much advertising value in being busy. The merchant who has time to pitch horseshoes in the yard back of his store, or to go visiting about the neighborhood in business hours, may make quite a reputation for gaiety but, when it comes to a matter of business ability, he will probably be unable to deliver the goods. The moral is—ADVERTISE.

RAINS HELP THE CATTLE MARKET

PUT STOCKMEN IN SHAPE TO BUY STOCKERS AND FEEDERS.

Improved Pasture Conditions Serve to String Receipts Along Evenly and Prices In That Way—Sheep Ten to Twenty-Five Cents Lower At All Points While Hogs Make Big Gain.

THE RAIL SPECIAL SERVICE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 14.—Rains came to town and Illinois last week and Kansas had good rains Friday night. The cattle market has been helped very much as the rains and so have put stockmen in shape to buy stockers and feeders, while the Kansas rains serve to string receipts along evenly, and support the market in that way. Last week closed lower, but twenty-two thousand cattle here today sold steady to fifteen cents higher, because of the improved conditions. West corn fed steers brought $10.25, heavy grass steers $8.00 to $8.10, a shipment of two cars of Idaho grass steers from Pocatello, 1000 pounds average, at $7.10, cows included in this shipment, 1512 pounds, at $6.36, and 1600 pounds at $5.75.

Sheep receipts were nine thousand head. Prices were ten to twenty-five cents lower at all the markets, but there was a good demand here, and everything sold high in comparison with sales at other markets. Three cars of lambs from Joseph Peers of Ogallala sold straight at $10.50, seventy pounds average. Top in Chicago today is $11.60, Omaha $10.60. Arizona feeding lambs, rather coarse, 57 pounds average, brought $9.50, and Arizona breeding ewes $9.25, 81 pounds. Sheepfolds have been running very light at the sheep house here, and sellers have occupied a very strong position. On last Wednesday a five-car string of Western lambs sold here straight at $11.15, which was ten to sixty cents above one other market, including Chicago. Packers bought feeding lambs away from country buyers last week, because of a shortage in receipts, here, and they are shipping in lambs bought at other markets for the same reason.

Hogs made a big gain last week, going up to $10.37½ on Thursday, since then prices have declined, and the best sold at $10.15 today, but best medium weight hogs brought $10.65, and top hams sold at $18.00. There is a good order buying demand from bacon cutters and fresh meat houses, while the regular packers are getting big foreign contracts which make their needs imperative. The situation in the hog market is very strong.

WOOL SITUATION IS STRONG WITH AN UPWARD TENDENCY

MONTON, Aug. 16.—Trading in territory wool is spotty. Some houses show less activity and others a moderate increase in buying. One house has made transfers of about quarter of a million pounds of new territories on the clean basis of 82 to 85 cents, Idaho and Wyoming clip in the original bags. Other houses have made sales of varying amounts, including Utah at 27 to 32 cents. Nebraskas at 26 to 28 cents, and Arizonas at 29 to 33 cents, the scoured cost in most cases being around $9 to $12 cents clean. Montana wool are arriving rather slowly. Moderate transfers are noted on the basis of 36 to 38 cents for medium and 25 to 33 cents for fine medium and half-blood.

Dealers have taken advantage of the quiet tone during the "heat of sale" to get the new wool sorted and graded. Good runs of wool now are ready to be shown, whereas that would have been impossible a fortnight ago. September is expected to be an active month in the wool trade and the leading houses are making plans accordingly. Values are so strong that any material increase in buying would tend to lift prices.

Despite the slow trading, the situation in the market is extremely strong. Dealers see no reason why they should sacrifice holdings which are certain to be needed by the mills later. Received values of territories wool are quotable at about $8 to $9 cents for fine staple, Montana, and other wool of the best grade being quotable at $8 to $9 cents. Half-blood is quotable at $8 to $7 cents, three-eighths-blood staple at 16 to 18 cents, quarter-blood staple at 18 to 20 cents, fine clothing at 78 to 88 cents and fine medium clothing at 78 to 88 cents.

More activity is noted in Ohio Deuce and considerable wool of various grades has changed hands on the far edge of recent quotations. Great Driftwool has been developed in these woods, 10 cents having been refused for quarter-blood combing and 28 cents for fine unwashed delaine. Transfers are noted of 75,000 pounds this three-eighths-blood combing at 11 cents, good mixed lots of three-eighths-blood combing at 12 cents, half-blood combing at 20 cents. Possibly holders would be willing to accept a little less, if hard pressed by a great customer, but undoubtedly the situation is very strong, with an upward tendency.

Every store has some one who is more or less interested in pushing the business. Every business is worthy to a greater or less extent of being enlarged. If the right person gets the business in hand and pushes in the right way he can make of that business a very decided enlargement and make for himself a very marked advantage.

IT HAPPENS EVERY FOUR YEARS.

OGDEN, Aug. 18.—Simon Bamberger of Salt Lake City was nominated for governor by the democratic state convention tonight. He received the nomination on the second ballot.

Judge William H. King of Salt Lake City was unanimously nominated for United States senator by the convention after the other candidates on the state ticket had been chosen. There was no opposition to the candidacy of Judge King. Bamberger some months ago announced that he would be a candidate for state senator, but later withdrew and only a week ago entered the race for governor.

James H. Mays, who was also mentioned as a senatorial candidate, contented himself with running for renomination to congress. He was renominated unanimously. This renomination came despite the fact that the progressives of the Second district had informally notified their democratic allies that they would not indorse Mays.

For congressman from the First district former Representative Milton H. Welling of Box Elder county was unanimously nominated. Welling served two terms in the state legislature from Box Elder county.

In the Seventh Judicial district convention George Christensen of Mt. Pleasant and Knox Patterson of Moab were nominated for judge and district attorney, respectively.

MISS ROSE BONVICIN WINS BEAUTIFUL DIAMOND RING

The beautiful diamond ring offered by the Poole and Allen Carnival company, which exhibited at Sunnyside last week, to the most popular young lady in the camp, was awarded to Miss Rose Bonvicin, who won by a lead of about eleven hundred votes over her nearest competitor. There was keen rivalry among the friends of the various ladies who were entered in the contest. After the award was made the friends of Miss Bonvicin gathered at her home and enjoyed a delightful social meeting.

PAPER FAMINE CAUSES HIGH PRICE FOR WASTE PRODUCT

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The paper famine was reflected today in an auction sale here of old paper, ordered by David Ferguson, supervisor of the City Record. One lot of nine thousand pounds composed of unsold copies of the City Record, brought $14.5 a hundred pounds. Another lot of unused old paper, weighing six thousand pounds, brought $2.60 a hundred. Normally sales of such paper bring from twenty to fifty cents a hundred.

The state land board is advertising the sale of twenty-five thousand acres of state land in Emery county. The sale will be held at the court house at Castle Dale on September 15th. The minimum price of the land will run from two and a half to five dollars an acre. State Land Commissioner W. D. Canfield will be in charge of the sale.

Certified copies of two proposed amendments to the state constitution, provided for by the legislature in 1915, are being mailed from the office of Secretary of State David Matteson, as provided by law, for publication in at least one newspaper in each county in the state where a newspaper is printed. The first has to do with revenue and taxation and the second with the duties of the auditor and the depositing of public money.

EMERYITES DISCUSS BRANCH RAILROAD

Three meetings of farmers in Emery county in the vicinity of Castle Dale and Huntington have been held within the past two weeks to discuss the matter of furnishing aid to the Denver and Rio Grande in the proposed branch line from Price through the irrigated sections of Emery county, that the farmers in that vicinity may take advantage of the offer of the Utah-Dakota Sugar company to build a plant there in case the railroad furnishes the transportation means and the required acreage of beets is planted in that section. Ira G. Browning of Castle Dale, who was in Salt Lake City last Monday, says the farmers are more interested in the sugar beet proposition every day, as they realize the planting of beets means ready money, while the crops now harvested in that section must be hauled long distances in order to be piled on the market.

Experiments conducted by George Austin, agricultural expert for the sugar company, show that in the vicinity of Huntington the beet yield is greater to the acre than in any other part of the county. A number of Los Angeles business men interested in an irrigation tract of thirty thousand acres along the Huntington river are said by Browning to be experimenting with sugar beets.
