MONEY FLOWING IN. TOLEDO, O., June 23.—With the heavyweight championship contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey set for division in less than two weeks, Tex Rickard, promoter of the match, announces that the cash receipts now on deposit in Toledo banks totals $325,000, which assures financial success.

GERMANY HOLDS BACK ON SIGNING OF THE TREATY

ALLIES BEGINNING TO LOSE PATIENCE WITH THE HUNS.

Uhlen Word Soon Comes of Their Readiness to Comply With All the Terms Demand Will Be Made For Plenipotentiaries Within Few Hours—Conference Leaders Perplexed.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 26 (7:50 p.m.)—The German crown prince escaped from Holland today. He is believed to be going to Germany to inaugurate a movement for the restoration of the monarchy. The German delegates who are to sign the treaty of peace at Versailles were named today.

WEIMAR, June 23.—The national assembly this afternoon voted to sign the peace treaty unconditionally, the government having succeeded in overcoming the opposition of those who insisted on two conditions.

PARIS, June 26.—If the heads of the allied powers in Paris do not hear from Weimar very soon regarding the German delegation for the signing of the peace treaty, an ultimatum will be sent to the German government. The ultimatum will demand the appointment of plenipotentiaries within a certain number of hours. Up to 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon no official word had been received here regarding Germany's plans with regard to the final signing of the peace treaty. The peace conference leaders were unanimously perplexed over the situation.

IT WAS CONSIDERED TO BE impossible that the ceremony of signing could take place before Saturday. Unofficial reports were that it probably would be delayed until Monday.

WITING WAIL OF GERMANS SENT BY PREMIER BAUER

WEIMAR, June 23.—In announcing the decision of the German government to sign the peace terms before the national assembly today, Premier Bauer said: "At this hour of life and death, under the menace of invasion for the last time I raise in Germany a protest against this treaty of violence and destruction. I protest against this mockery of self-determination, this enslavement of the German people, this new menace to the peace of the world, under the cloak of a treaty of peace. No signing can entitle this protest which is raised and sworn to. This treaty is not law. Its annihilating character is apparent in detail. Protesting against it is useless and is at the risk of a new crisis within forty-eight hours. Our power of resistance is broken and there is no means of averting this treaty. The treaty itself, however, does give us a handle which we cannot allow to be wrested from us. Hence, the contents of the very solemn message of June 19th that the treaty was to be revised from time to time and adapted to new conditions. That is one of the few words in the treaty which is the real spirit of peace."

Premier Bauer concluded by expressing his faith in the German people and their final realization of a better future. He said they were bound with oaths of labor for the future, but owed it to their responsibility to hold the country together. "They must safeguard our liberties," he said. "There must be a will to work and a discipline in all ranks of society. There are no conditions to enter a nation, and a world revolution cannot rid us of a slavery from which we are warring away. Only by a revolution of our moral consciousness can we succeed in raising ourselves out of our night into a better future."

Notes of Acceptance.

PARIS, June 23.—In declaring its intention to accept and sign the peace terms, the government of the German people has sent the following note to R. Clemenceau, president of the peace conference, through Dr. Haueke of Hamburg:

"It appears to the government of the German republic, in consideration of the first communication of the allied and associated governments, that these governments have decided to wrest from Germany by force acceptance of the peace conditions, even those which, without presenting any national significance, aim at divesting the German people of their honor. An act of violence can touch the honor of the German people. The German people, after frightful suffering in these last years, have no means of

HIGH SPOTS OF TREATY OF PEACE GERMANY SIGNS

Germany is being Absolved from the War Debt (at least for fifteen years), a strip of Upper Silesia, the district of Meuse, Luxemburg, most of Posen and portions of West Prussia and Pommerania, part of Schleswig and a province and parts of Belgium, all her colonies and all her rights and possessions, section small districts to Belgium, her entire navy (three cruisers) and all her military and naval air forces. She cannot be responsible for Austria in her empire. She must reduce her army within three months to two hundred thousand and by March 31, 1920, to a hundred thousand. She must abolish all her forts (575 kilometers) and agreeing to attend occupation for fifteen years or until the reparations sum, not over 200,000,000,000, is paid.

DR. C. T. ROSE CASE IS DROPPED BY THE STATE

EVIDENCE NOT SUCH AS WILL STAND IN COURT

New Complaint Filed Charging Physician With Fornication and the Girl Also Placed Under Five Hundred Dollars Bond—Judge Call Coming Here Again On Monday Next.

District Attorney Knox Patterson last Tuesday dismissed in district court the case against Dr. C. T. Rose of this city, charged with carnal knowledge of a female under 18 years of age. Later he filed a complaint against the doctor before Justice Hammond for fornication. Dr. Rose is now bound over to district court on this complaint under five hundred dollars bond. The worst he can get, if convicted on the charge, is a fine of a hundred dollars or six months in the county jail. The girl in the case, Miss Editha Mayfield, of the town of Emery is held as a witness against Rose and is also under bond in like amount. The reason for dismissing the carnal knowledge case is the uncertainty of the evidence that might be brought out as to the age of the young woman.

STORY OF THE SINKING OF FLEET IS TOLD BY GERMAN

LONDON, June 22.—Admiral von Reuter, commander of the surrendered German fleet, personally ordered its scuttling at Scapa Flow in the belief that the armistice had been terminated. He says so himself, according to the Daily Express, in the following message to the British command: "I ordered the sinking in the belief that the armistice was terminated and following the German navy's tradition which knows no surrender."

In the firing on boats in which German sailors escaped from the scuttled warships, six men were killed and ten wounded. Four hundred thousand tons, valued at approximately $250,000,000, disappeared and the admiralty lost the story in exactly a hundred and thirty words.

The Baden was towed into Swanlowder Bay this afternoon, where she sank in the shallow. Not a single German ship out of the whole fleet is now afloat. All units protruding fly the British naval ensign.

At 7 o'clock this morning, a heavy explosion took place where one of the battleships sank. An eye witness saw a two hundred foot column of water spurt up. All German prisoners are aboard the Royal Sovereign.

The British fleet took to seaward this morning. The Genesis, hitherto the model of invincibility, required four hundred words. History's most remarkable naval destruction, which in the short space of four hours wiped out a fleet more powerful than the entire French navy and almost equal to Japan's, definitely ends the naval power which disrupted the supremacy of the seas at Jutland and over threatened Britannia's rule of the waves. In four hours this mighty armada is wiped off the face of the waters and a small body of men in London possessing exclusive news sources discuss the revelation of the admiralty's hundred and thirty words in mysterious undertones.

"Why?" "That is what the British public wants to know and what parliament will demonstrate when it reassembles. Why were the Germans allowed to destroy the fleet held in trust by the British navy pending its disposition by the peace congress? But already the first evidence of the admiralty's alibi is contained in last night's statement that "in accordance with the armistice terms, the German ships were ordered to be scuttled without British guards aboard."

This may be taken to indicate the admiralty's line of defense, placing the blame on the shoulders of the armistice's terms for leaving to the Germans free access to the searchlights at HMS DIME.

One high British naval officer says the searchlights could have been rendered inoperative.

BERLIN EDITOR SUPPLIES STILL MORE EVIDENCE

BERNE, June 21.—An official telegram to the Vienna foreign office exonerating Serbia from responsibility for the Sarajevo murder has been published by Maximilian Harden in the Berlin Zehnblatt as a part of the mass evidence to show German responsibility for the war.

This telegram, dated July 10, 1914, states plainly that the Serbian government has no responsibility for the murder. This document, Herr Harden says, was cancelled and its date may have been forgotten. "Von Bethmann-Hollweg was taken and registered on July 6th before the Kaiser left for the north, and as who had to choose between war and peace had already chosen war. "A hundred million individuals were thus deceived."

RAILROAD FOLKS MOST FRIENDLY

Denver and Rio Grande Making Price People Concessions.

Dr. H. B. Goetzmann is home after an absence of a couple of weeks at the Hermitage in Ogden Canyon in attendance upon the state dental convention and during which time he took some post graduate work. Mrs. Goetzmann accompanied him, but put in most of the time at Coalville, visiting with her parents. They report having a most pleasurable trip. At Salt Lake City Dr. Goetzmann went around to see L. H. Lake, general superintendent of the Denver and Rio Grande, who is very much interested in the improvements to the water system at Price and the building of the pipeline to the Cotton Springs from this city.

He promised Dr. Goetzmann that anything himself or the railroad company can do to further the improvement will be willingly and cheerfully done. Dr. Goetzmann talked over with Lake the matter of running the pipeline through the two tunnels of the road above Nolan, which means a saving of several thousands of dollars on these points. The result in drawings are to be submitted to the railroad by the city engineers and the concessions will undoubtedly be granted.

Other matters of equal importance were brought up by Dr. Goetzmann with the result that a better understanding and the best of feeling exists between the two interests, especially as concerns the use of water in which both are interested at Cotton. Better water at Price, General Superintendent Lake thinks, means a bigger city and the latter spills more business for the railroad.

WOMEN FOLKS HAVE BANQUET

Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood of Zion Is the Guest of Honor.

Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood of Salt Lake City was the honored guest at the annual gathering of the Eastern Utah District of Women's clubs held at the Savoy Hotel in Price last Saturday evening, when a luncheon was served to the twenty-five ladies present. Following this Mrs. H. W. Cooper, chairman, introduced Mrs. J. W. Hammond, who gave an interesting talk on "Household Work vs. Club Work." Mrs. Thomas Fouts had for her subject, "After the War, What?" Mrs. Leatherwood highly entertained those present for about an hour with a most interesting talk. She had stopped at Price on her way home from the national gathering at Asheville, N. C.

After the reception a brief business meeting of the delegates was had. Plans for the coming year were talked and delegates to the state convention to be held at Ogden in October were named. These are Mrs. J. W. Hammond, alternate to the president, and Mrs. J. C. Preston of Sunnyside, alternate to the delegate. The officers for the district elected for the coming year are: Mrs. H. W. Cooper, president; Mrs. Zeph Thomas, vice president; Mrs. J. P. MacKnight, secretary, and Mrs. J. C. Baker, Castle Dale, treasurer.

Among those from out of town present were Mrs. Zeph Thomas and Mrs. John C. Preston of Sunnyside, Mrs. Julia C. Baker of Castle Dale and Mrs. R. H. Tibney of Salt Lake City.

DEAD IN RECENT STORM NOW PLACED AT SIXTY

FARGO FALLS, Minn., June 24.—Military authorities, who are in charge of the tornado stricken area of this city, have compiled a list of forty-eight known dead as a result of the cyclone which swept over here Sunday. The officers estimate that the total death list will be not less than sixty. Mayor Frankberg today issued the following statement in connection with the financial loss which resulted: "A careful survey of the city shows that the early estimate of a million and a half loss is too conservative, and that the actual loss is at least three million dollars. Forty per cent of the residence district is in ruins, and about the same per cent of the business district has been demolished."

BIDS FOR WATER PIPELINE OPENED TOMORROW EVENING

Richard R. Lyman, consulting engineer for the city in the construction of the Price to Cotton water pipeline, came down from Zion Monday and last Tuesday evening held a meeting with the city council and Mayor George A. Woodton, when the plans and specifications were gone over. The bids for the work are to be opened at City Hall at a meeting of the board tomorrow, Saturday, evening. Numerous ones are on the ground already and by the time for opening of proposals it is expected a dozen or more firms and individuals will be in competition. Bids are to be opened at 8 o'clock of the evening.

CURTIS PLANES FOR FOURTH IN PLACE OF DE HAVILANDS

Everything Arranged For the Greatest Celebration In the History of "Good Old Carbon."

Everything is set and in complete readiness for the greatest celebration of a Fourth of July at Price in all the history of Carbon county. It is going to be a genuine welcome home day for Carbon county war-heroes and to which everyone is most cordially invited by the Carbon County Council of Defense and also by every citizen of Price. This week will see the completion of the biggest and best dancing pavilion in all Eastern Utah and one among the very largest in the state. There is dancing space for four hundred couples—eight hundred people. Not one, but several orchestras, will furnish the dancing music afternoon and evening.

The program for the day begins with a daybreak salute of guns fired by Albert J. Grames, immediately followed by a serenade from the Price Junior Brass band, directed by Prof. Arnold Burgess. The big parade is to form at 9 o'clock and starts a half hour later. This will be from the courthouse. It will move west on Main to Tenth street, thence east to Fourth and north to City Park from the intersection of Main and Fourth. Entrance to park from the east gate. Prof. Orson Ryan, master of ceremonies, will be in charge of the patriotic program, which begins at 10:30 o'clock. It follows:

Flag Salute—Boy Scouts, C. H. Madson, Scoutmaster. Invocation—Elder John H. Pace. Music—"Our Heroes."—Miss Nell Fitzgerald. Cornet Band—F. E. Woods and Arnold Burgess. Orchestral—Roy P. A. Simpson.

"Patriotic Pep," two minutes each. E. Bautecht, master of Hiawatha; W. J. Elwood, Knifsworth; William Littlejohn, Castle Gate; Lake E. Young, Helper, and Mrs. J. W. Hammond, Price.

Address—"Proud, Happy Carbon," A. W. Horner, president Carbon County Council of Defense. "Star Spangled Banner," combined bands, choir and citizens, directed by Prof. Arnold Burgess. Benediction, Rev. H. C. Jones, pastor Methodist Episcopal church, Price.

While at Salt Lake City last Friday and Saturday Prof. Orson Ryan of the general committee arranged for the coming here of a Curtis airplane, which will make flights over the city beginning at 9 o'clock of the morning. A race will be pulled off between the plane and a big Packard car at the racetrack later in the day. The plane to be in the air six hours. No passengers will be carried on the Fourth, but messages may be sent to adjoining towns and ranges. Saturday and Sunday those who have a hankering for the sport may make trips over the city as passengers. The airplane is to remain here until Monday after the Fourth.

At 11:30 o'clock of the forenoon, among the other sports, will be a tennis game for the championship of Carbon county at the high school court between Price and Storrs. Prizes for Price, L. H. Ammerman and Leo Lewis. For Storrs, Milton P. Fletcher and J. E. Bent.

Games for the children will be under the direction of Prof. C. H. Madson and Leland McDonald. There are eleven events for the girls with prizes from five to fifty cents. Also, seven events for the boys and men with prizes ranging from twenty-five cents to five dollars.

THOSE HAVING CHARGE OF THE PRICE CELEBRATION

Below are the committees having in charge the celebration next Friday at Price. Nothing is being left undone to make it the greatest ever in Carbon county.

Former Resident of Carbon County and Member of Legislature

James X. Ferguson, member of the legislature from Carbon county some twenty-five years ago and father of eight boys now in Utah, died at his home at Ocean Park, Calif., on Monday last. While a resident of Castle Gate he was general superintendent of Wasatch Store company when that concern had but two houses, one at Winter Quarters and the other up at Castle Gate. The remains were interred at Salt Lake City yesterday. Deceased was about 67 years of age and was a brother-in-law of Frank X. Cameron, president of Liberty Fuel company, and E. L. Carpenter, late vice president and general manager of United States Fuel company.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jennie Ferguson; four sisters and two brothers. They are Mrs. Julia F. Brown of Blackfoot, Ida.; Mrs. Lony F. Fox of Lehi, Mrs. Sarah F. Clark of Freewater, Ore.; Mrs. Kate F. Hurton of Salt Lake City, Barlow Ferguson of San Francisco and Ferguson Ferguson of Ocean Park. He was a brother of the late Mrs. David Keith.

Deceased will be remembered by many of the older residents locally as one who did much towards the early development of Carbon county.

GOING BACK TO THE TWO-CENT STAMP JULY FIRST

Warning is sent out by the post-office department that all holders of three-cent stamped envelopes must redeem them within thirty days after the first of July, when the old two-cent letter and one-cent postal card rate go into effect. They can do for the full value of the envelope by applying at any postoffice. Two-cent postal cards can also be redeemed on the same basis, but action must be taken within the thirty days.

Holders of three-cent books after the first of July will not be able to redeem them, but must use them up on parcel postage and the like. It is not deemed probable that any hardship will be worked in this regard. The extra cent which during war-times went to the treasury department for war purposes need no longer be paid, making in effect no difference in the actual receipts of the post-office department.
