

BLOTCHES ON FACE WITH ECZEMA

Kept Awake With Itching and Burning, Face Was Pitted, Affected Different Parts of Body, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Newport, Ore.—I was troubled with pimples all my life. They were the kind that came under the skin in big red blotches. I was kept awake night after night with the itching and burning. My face was pitted. Eczema also affected different parts of my body and I would scratch till the skin was all raw and sore.

I took gallons of blood medicine without doing any good. No external treatment did me any good till I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The Ointment relieved the itching the moment it was applied. I used the Soap and Ointment steadily for three months and they healed me." (Signed) Mrs. B. A. Tozer, June 4, 1914.

New Sharon, Iowa.—"Two or three years ago pimples began to come on my face and I had dandruff. The pimples made a very unsightly appearance. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and am now free from pimples and dandruff." (Signed) Clyde P. Hargrave, May 11, 1914.

MANY AMERICANS LEAVING BERLIN

Warm Praise Is Given Germans for Kind Treatment Before Leaving the Capital.

London, 10:45 a. m., Aug. 15.—A dispatch to Reuters Telegram company from Amsterdam says that 700 Americans from Berlin arrived at the station at Amsterdam during the night. Some hundreds were sheltered at the hotels while others proceeded to The Hague and Rotterdam where arrangements are being made for ships to take them home.

Many of the Americans warmly praised the treatment which they had in Berlin. When they were leaving the German capital, the American consulate the railway station, the carriages which carried them to the railway were decorated with flowers. The dining cars of their trains were abundantly stored with food. Many of the refugees had lived in Germany for years and are returning to the United States because serious difficulties would confront them if they remained in Germany. It is expected that about 25,000 Americans will leave that country.

Minister to Meet Americans.
The Hague, via London, 11:30 a. m., Aug. 15.—Henry Van Dyke, American minister to The Netherlands, has gone to Rotterdam to arrange for the housing of the Americans who have arrived there from Germany. He also will arrange for their early transportation to the United States.

The American minister has offered to help all the subjects and citizens of the nations at war and to assist in repatriating them.

FRENCH LINER BARELY ESCAPES
Lorraine Is Chased by German Cruiser Drieden—Later Two Other Warships Are Close on Heels.

Paris, Aug. 15, 4:55 a. m.—The French liner Lorraine had a narrow escape from capture by German cruisers during her voyage from New York to Havre, where she arrived Wednesday, according to Rene Des Eux, one of her officers.

Soon after leaving port the ship was chased by the Dresden, Des Eux said, but she soon distanced this cruiser. Later the Lorraine intercepted wireless messages between the German cruisers Strassburg and Karlsruhe, from which the officers gathered that the warships had been ordered to capture the Lorraine. The last day out the Germans nearly caught the liner, which only escaped through the favor of the fog.

RUSSIA TO ARREST FOREIGN RESERVES
London, Aug. 15, 1:20 a. m.—A Reuters Telegram company dispatch from St. Petersburg gives an imperial ukase, which has just been issued and which orders the following:
First—The suspension of all rights and privileges which subjects of hostile states now enjoy by virtue of past treaties.

Second—The arrest as prisoners of war of all subjects of hostile states who are in the active military services or in the reserve.
Third—The granting to the authorities of the right to expel such aliens or to transport them to other parts of Russia.
Fourth—The confiscation of vessels belonging to hostile nations which might serve for military purposes.
Fifth—The authorization to subjects of neutral states to continue business in Russia.
Sixth—The observance on the condition of reciprocity of the following agreements regarding war: The naval declaration of Paris, which is dated 1856; the declaration of St. Petersburg, which prohibits the use of explosive bullets; the declarations which were signed at the first Hague conference concerning asphyxiating gases and explosive bullets; the convention of Geneva, which concerns conditions for territorial warfare, and the treaties signed at the second Hague conference.

GREAT BRITAIN CALLED A LIAR
London, Aug. 14.—A special newspaper dispatch from Rome today says the Montenegrin troops, aided by the inhabitants of Herzegovina, are successfully invading Austria, whose blockade of the Montenegrin coast has practically ceased.
A dispatch from Cetinje, Montenegro, to the Exchange Telegraph company officially denies the occupation of Scutari by Montenegrin troops, and also all other reports of hostile intentions against Albania.
The Exchange Telegraph company's Rome correspondent sends the outline of an official communication from the Vienna government to Rome notifying the Italian government of Great Britain's declaration of war on Austria. The Austrian note says:
"Austria's war against Serbia, an independent state, and which did not affect other international politics, cannot be considered as the cause for the present European war."
Great Britain's note to Austria, the statement continues, falls to point out the fact that Austria was obliged to declare war against Russia because the latter's mobilization threatened Austria. It is denied that Austria sent troops to the frontier. A fact, the statement says, which France already knew from the Austrian ambassador. "It is evident," the note says in

ANDREAS HOFER—The Inn-keeper Patriot of the Tyrol

TO THIS peasant-leader Liberty was as much the breath of life as it is to the strong-winged eagles of the Alps. To achieve it for himself and his mountain brothers he gladly laid down his life. No less a personality than Napoleon vanquished him, and it was because he feared him that the Great Emperor ordered Hofer shot. Every atom of Andreas Hofer loved Liberty. He demanded it for himself and willingly gave it to others. In this respect he is no different than are our thousands of Tyrolean citizens. Personal and National Liberty to those of Tyrolean blood is a religion. To a man they will fight for it and to a man they will die for it. When asked to vote for Prohibition they do as would do the great patriot Hofer—VOTE AGAINST IT. "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that" is insolent legislation to those of Tyrolean blood. Anheuser-Busch are proud to serve their thousands of Tyrolean patrons. For 57 years these people have been moderate users of their honestly-brewed beers. BUDWEISER is a favorite wherever they reside. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to meet the constantly increasing demand for BUDWEISER. Its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH • ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.

conclusion, "that Great Britain's alleged reasons for declaring war not only are arbitrary alterations of facts, but deliberate lies. England has thus lightly broken her traditional friendship with Austria in order to support France, but, nevertheless, she will not find Austria unprepared."

RUSSIAN TROOPS LEAVE POLAND
San Francisco, Aug. 14.—The German consul here has received the following telegram from the German ambassador at Washington:
Poland has been evacuated by the Russian troops, which are now massing their forces farther back. The German north army, after having taken possession of the greater part of Liege, advanced its outposts as far as Tivolemont and Namur, where a decisive battle is expected. It is only a question of a short time before the forts will fall.
The outer forts of Longwy are silenced.
The French army corps at Belfort, which passed our advanced guards, was thrown back to the Vosges mountains with heavy losses by the Fourteenth Baden corps, whose left wing, assisted by the Fourteenth Austrian Tyrol corps, has taken up the offensive.

WAR WILL NOT BE A VERY LONG ONE
Salt Lake, Aug. 15.—The European war will be over in six weeks in the opinion of T. A. Liebler, a New York theatrical producer, who is in Salt Lake on his way from the Yellowstone park to New York. Mr. Liebler thinks the enormous cost of the war in lives and treasure will bring it to an end in a very short time. He is of the opinion that the Germans will be the heaviest losers in the war irrespective of how it terminates.
Though on a vacation trip, Mr. Liebler is doing some incidental work for his productions. While in Salt Lake he visited the various theaters with a view to learning whether or not it would be possible to produce "The Garden of Allah," the big Liebler spectacular production. He found the stage of the Salt Lake theater well adapted for the production and confirmed the booking of the attraction at that theater for early next spring.
This is Mr. Liebler's first trip west of Chicago. He went to British Columbia to look after his mining interests and then took a vacation trip to the Yellowstone park and Salt Lake. He is so favorably impressed with Salt Lake that he intends to bring Mrs. Liebler here next summer and spend a part of the vacation season here.
Mr. Liebler had been in Salt Lake only a few hours when he became an enthusiastic Salt Lake fan. He spoke particularly of the cleanliness and the beauty of the city. In a business way, he said, conditions appeared better in Salt Lake than any other city he visited.

Sees Boom Ahead.
With reference to the theatrical business, Mr. Liebler said:
"Like other businesses in America, the theatrical business suffers somewhat from the first shock of the European war. Whether the war continues long or not the recovery from the shock will be rapid and in a short time things will be booming here. Our factories will soon be running to capacity to supply the demands of the home market heretofore met, at least partially, by imports, and to supply foreign markets that have been supplied by the countries now at war. There will be lots of work for the laboring man, and where there is plenty of work the country is always prosperous."
"One effect of the war will probably be the difficulty of getting English and continental stars over here for the fall season. I anticipate the war will be over before the theatrical season is well started, but it is possible that it may not. Our firm has no European interests, though, of course we use European stars in some of our productions."
"Our firm had a good year last year, though our profits were not as large as we had hoped. We had estimated that we would make about $300,000 for the season. As a matter of fact we cleared a little more than $350,000. This coming season, I think we will experience no difficulty in doubling this amount. The outlook is bright for the theatrical business and I think all theaters will enjoy a particularly prosperous year."

QUICKSILVER RISES TO $55 PER FLASK
Taking advantage of the sudden rapid rise in the price of quicksilver, which in the past few days has gone from $27.50 per flask of seventy-five pounds to $55, the Nevada Cinnabar company, operating three and one-half miles east of Ione, Nev., is preparing a shipment and will send out a car within a few days. The management is at present working out plans by which the walls of the furnace may be swept without the necessity of men entering the furnace. In the event the plans are successful the company expects to receive so much additional metal that a shipment of 500 flasks may be sent out.

There are 200 flasks of the metal at Austin at present, the point from which the company ships. According to advices received by the management from the two purchasing firms in the United States, the Haas Brothers of San Francisco and New York and the Bruan-Knecht-Helmann company of San Francisco and New York, the market in the United States is practically barren of quicksilver.
The total production in the United States for the year of 1913, according to the government report of H. D. McCaskey, was 19,681 flasks of seventy-five pounds each. According to the same report the domestic market appears to demand 20,000 flasks per year.
Quicksilver is used mainly in the manufacture of fulminate for explosive caps, of drugs, of electric appliances and scientific apparatus and in the recovery of precious metals, especially gold by amalgamation. A new use in Scotland is the floating of lights of lighthouses upon a body of quicksilver. A use in England, in the United States, and possibly elsewhere is the coating of ships' bottoms with a paint containing quicksilver to prevent organic growth, in increasing use of the metal is expected in the manufacture of electrical appliances and of fulminates and possibly of paints for protective coatings on metals.

During her stay in Europe Mrs. Dinwoodey visited in various cities in Germany, Italy, France, Switzerland and England while her grandsons were attending a boarding school at Lausanne, Switzerland. The members of the party left Berlin on July 12, and, after visiting in England about two weeks, sailed from Liverpool for Boston on the Red Star line boat Arabic on July 28.
After nine days at sea, during which it was chased by a German man-of-war and then trailed into American waters by a British cruiser, the Arabic rocked at Boston on August 5. Having left Liverpool before war had been declared by England and Germany, the passengers on the Arabic knew nothing of the beginning of hostilities until advised by wireless on the third day at sea.
Immediately upon receipt of the news the captain of the Arabic ordered all the lights on the boat extinguished and pushed ahead at full speed. A day or two later a German man-of-war sighted the liner and immediately gave chase. Fortunately a dense fog arose, in which the Arabic eluded her pursuer. Later an English cruiser overtook the Arabic and escorted her into Boston harbor.
