

WOMAN ARRESTED IN IDAHO IS WANTED IN OGDEN

After endeavoring for a number of weeks to find out the whereabouts of Mrs. L. M. Larson, who is wanted in Ogdén on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, the local police department received word this morning that she was arrested in Paris, Idaho, on the same charge, a couple of days ago. Chief Norton immediately wired Sheriff Olsen at Paris, to hold the woman.

The offenses for which the local authorities issued warrants for Mrs. Larson's arrest were the passing of a bad check on the Last & Thomas company and on Mrs. Blair, a real estate agent of Ogdén. The checks were passed about a month ago. Mrs. Larson was a stranger in Ogdén and left the city immediately after securing the money. She was traced to Preston, Pocatello and Rexburg, and from Rexburg to Salt Lake City. The police lost the trail in Salt Lake City, and when it was found again, the woman was in the Bear Lake country. She is described as of medium height, about 35 years old, with suburban hair.

MALADY ONCE MORE APPEARING AMONG WILD DUCKS

Once more the duck malady confronts the sportsman and lover of wild life. William Simpson of Hoop, says the number of ducks on the grounds near the mouth of the Weber river is unusually numerous, but that the annual fatalities are appearing among them.

The ailment has not attacked the ducks as early this year as usual, owing, possibly, to the fact that more water has been coming down the river. Just now the water is low, and Mr. Simpson thinks that something should be done at once by the waders to relieve the situation—just what, seems a different proposition.

FRUIT FROM OGDEN PLEASES OMAHA RESIDENT

General Counsel N. H. Loomis of the Union Pacific was in Ogdén for a short time this afternoon. While here he had an informal visit with Asst. Supt. G. O. Brophy, and in the course of conversation, recalled the receiving of a box of Weber county cherries from Mr. Brophy at his Omaha headquarters.

WHY WORRY?

Why should a poor man worry, over troubles as they pass. If meat is thirty cents a pound, he can always live on grass. Why should a rich man worry, when he loses a million or two. He knows he can easy get it back, from suckers like me and you.

PEA CANNERY AT MORGAN COMPLETED

The Morgan Canning company's exclusive pea company, the largest of its kind in the world, has been sufficiently completed so that this season's run of peas can be handled. The plant itself cost $100,000. In addition, there is a large warehouse with a capacity of 300,000 cases. The cannery's capacity is 120,000 cans a day. James Anderson, president of the company, also controls a canning factory in Uinta and when the six weeks to two months' pea season is over the entire force will be moved to that factory, where tomatoes will be canned. The peas are divided into six classes, and for the best peas higher prices are secured than for the best California peas. Only about 25 per cent of the production is marketed in this state, the rest going to California. The first run this year has been the largest ever handled by the company.

MANY NUISANCES IN THE CITY BEING ABATED

The health and sanitation survey of the city is progressing rapidly, according to a statement made today by the sanitary inspector. Since the survey was started over 150 nuisances have been brought to light by the deputy inspectors and notices have been mailed from the office of the health department to the householders to abate them. Most of the notices were to residents of the sewer districts, who have not yet had their premises connected with the sewer and legal action will be taken against them, if necessary. The only disease at all prevalent in the city at the present time is whooping cough and this is now on the decrease.

FEW PASSENGERS SAIL ON STEAMERS

New York, Aug. 15.—With the exception of the Rochambeau and the Patria of the French and Fabre lines, respectively, 1,300 reserved for Havre and Marseilles, cabins and staterooms of the entire fleet sailing from New York today were practically deserted. The Cedric carried less than 200 persons; the Minnetonka an even dozen; the Kronland 40; the Saxonia less than 100; the America and the Potsdam correspondingly small numbers. Sailing of the Anchor Line Ansonia, announced for today, was postponed till tomorrow morning. Inability to get the cargo aboard today was given as the reason for the postponement.

The British of London says that in all countries where the women have a vote the infant mortality is very small. It ranges from very low in Finland to the lowest on record in New Zealand.

TWENTY-EIGHT BOYS ON TRIP THROUGH THE PARK

Twenty-eight happy boys said "au revoir" to their anxious mothers early this morning and, after meeting at the Ninth ward chapel, hiked to the Union depot. The lads formed the major portion of the Ninth ward Boy Scout troop and their home-leaving was the final preliminary to a trip from Ogdén, through the Yellowstone National park. The troop was in charge of Scoutmaster Robert Wilson.

The hike along Washington avenue and Twenty-fifth street about 7:30 a. m., created considerable attention among the early morning pedestrians and before the train left the Union depot at 8:20 o'clock there was a large crowd of friends and relatives at the station to bid them adieu.

The boys, ranging in age from 12 to 18 years, were all clad in the regulation Boy Scouts' khaki uniforms with colors of their different patrols hanging from their shoulder straps. Accompanied by Dr. John G. Lind, of the Weber academy faculty, Bishop W. O. Ridges of the Ninth ward and Arthur Halvoren of the Weber Stake Mutual Improvement association presidency, the scouts were escorted to steel coach No. 114 attached to Oregon Short Line train No. 13, by Depot Master John Shields, an after getting settled down, the roll was called by Scoutmaster Robert Wilson. The troop is known as National M. I. A. Boy Scouts of America, Troop 3, Ninth ward, Ogdén, and the members answered to the roll call as follows, their colors also being given:

- Buffalo Patrol, Colors, Red and White: Leland Richards, patrol leader; Wallace Norton, assistant patrol leader; Leonard Thompson, Earl Corey, Harold Shupe, Kenneth Canfield, Francis Latham, Thomas Norton.
- Elk Patrol, Colors, Violet and Black: Gordon Croft, patrol leader; Leon Tresseder, assistant patrol leader; Glen Gordon, John Croft, Sydney Wilcox, Ellsworth Wilcox, Vernon Richardson, Howard Watts.
- Eagle Patrol, Colors, Green and Black: Warren Hussey, patrol leader; Owen Ridges, assistant patrol leader; Llewellyn Roberts, Merdyyn Roberts, Ezra Steele, Leonard Croft, Dallas Murphy, Maynard Hurphy.
- Robert E. Wilson, scoutmaster No. 12328; George A. Croft, assistant scoutmaster No. A3031; Lowell Ridges, bugler; Thomas Norton, color bearer; George Q. McFarlane, scout scribe.

The scouts will be absent from the city for two weeks, their schedule being from Ogdén to Pocatello, one hour stopover; to Rexburg by rail; Rexburg to St. Anthony, on foot; St. Anthony to Yellowstone by rail. The trip of 166 miles through the park is to be made under the direction of M. A. Housner of the Housner and Houtz Touring company of Salt Lake City. One of the things that the scouts planned to do before leaving Ogdén was to advertise their home town as much as possible all along the route and in the park and for this purpose learned a number of "yells" with the word "Ogdén" as a dominant feature.

MARRIED AT BAPTIST MANSE. Reverend H. D. Zimmerman of the First Baptist church performed the impressive rite ceremony this morning uniting in marriage Miss Neva D. Hanson of Lima, Ohio, and Fred C. Powers of Cleveland, Ohio. The wedding was a quiet one, only witnesses being present.

FOR MISS ANNA NEWTON. One of the pleasant social events of the week was the parcel shower given Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. May Shipp in honor of Miss Anna Newton, a September bride-to-be, Miss Newton being the recipient of a number of pretty and useful gifts. Games and music were indulged in, which were greatly enjoyed by all, especially the singing by Miss Grace Atkinson.

Those present to enjoy the evening's pleasure were: Mesdames J. A. Johnson, F. B. Newton, J. D. Grange, May Shipp, the Misses Vilate Johnson, Florence Tracy, Mary Bell, Gertrude Bell, Lillie Johnson, Grace Atkinson, Maude Faine, Elizabeth Moyes, Gertrude Grange and Emma Unsworth.

During the afternoon about thirty-five guests were received by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. C. Clyde Brown and Mrs. A. I. Stone. Rugs and comfortable chairs were placed under the trees and appropriate amusements were enjoyed by everyone present.

About 6:30 o'clock a most tempting prepared dinner was served, two long tables being nicely set.

Mrs. Brown was the recipient of many exquisite gifts, among them being articles of silverware, cutglass, china and choice hand embroidered linens.

Following are the names of those bidden: Mesdames Chris J. Brown, M. Cazier, C. W. Frey, A. I. Stone, Joseph Baumeister, William H. Knight, Elizabeth McClean, C. C. Knight, Charles Carlson, Herbert Snyder, C. Clyde Brown, Frank E. Moore, Edgar Webb, Ernest Shaw.
