The entertainment given by the district school children at the Opera House last Saturday night was a grand success. All the little tots who took part did exceedingly well, and the teachers are deserving of much credit for the hard work they performed in making the entertainment the grand success that it was. Something over $50 was realized from the proceeds after all expenses has been paid, which will be used to purchase books for the school library.

The John S. Lindsey company was greeted by a large audience at the Opera House Wednesday night, when they played "The Two Orphans." Notwithstanding the piece is an old one, and had been presented here many times, it took well. Mr. Lindsey is supported by a good strong company and everyone of them took their parts well, bringing forth much applause. Last night the company presented "Hazel Kirke" to a large audience, and gave good satisfaction.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed C. Neal, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c, $1 00. Sold by John Boyden & Son.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Baily, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sore frostbites and skin eruption. It does the work." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by John Boyden & Son.

Your return card printed on 100 envelopes for 75 cents at THE TIMES office.

The Christmas Delineator.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, and a chapter in the Composers' Series, treating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life is from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of F. Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elinore Elliott Peake, and such interest writers as Julia Magruder, L. Frank Baum, and Grace MacGowan Cooke hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition, there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss. has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by John Boyden & Son Druggists. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The Christmas number of the New Idea Woman's Magazine has a table of contents both practical and festive. An article on "Winter House Gowns" shows two new styles, embodying the shirred and tucked skirt, the drooping shoulders and full sleeves. The magazine's London correspondent sends an illustration of an English outdoor costume which has some suggestive accessories; the facts about the winter hats for practical or ornamental use are set forth, and neckwear for men has a page to itself. The cooking columns are arranged with a view to the gastronomic aspect of the holiday season. "Seasonable Sweets for Christmas Day," for instance, is a title that will appeal to most girls. An article on "Christmas at the Legations" is illustrated with photographs of the little people who will keep Christmas in the houses of the foreign ambassadors at Washington, and "The Madonnas of the Painters" shows some of the conceptions of womanhood of the great masters. "The Poppy Lady" is a story of two young happy though married; "Hark, the Herald Angels" tells of three Christmases in a girl's life; and "The Fairy's Christmas Joke," "Bobby's Christmas in Old Mexico" "The Spider's Strike" and "The Shadow Baby" will help the little people to enjoy the holidays.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell, died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat' Dec. 1, 1903." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50, and $1.00. Sold by John Boyden & Son.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Charlotte Williams Summoned to Her Final Rest Sunday.

This community received a severe shock Sunday afternoon when the news was spread that Mrs. Charlotte Williams was dead. But very few knew that the lady was sick and her sudden death was a great surprise. Last Thursday she was at the end her daughter, Mrs. Cecelia Lusty, waiting on that lady, who was sick with an attack of pneumonia. On going home that night she was ill and went to bed. The same disease had attacked her and in three days it had taken her life.

Mrs. Williams was well known in Coalville, having lived here for over twenty-five years, she was a very quiet, unassuming lady, and all who had the privilege of knowing her loved her. She was a devoted mother, and always willing to help her children and friends. While she has not been prominent in a public way she will be greatly missed. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved.

The funeral was held from the Stake Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon, and the building was well filled with friends who had assembled to pay their respects to one whom they had learned to love. The stands and organ were neatly decorated with white crepe and potted plants. The speakers were Elders George Beard, F. H. Wright, Bishop Frank Croft, and Elder Thomas Briggs of Bountiful, all of whom paid a fitting tribute to the character of the deceased.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

Susannah Charlotte Williams was born in Liverpool, England, February 17, 1840. At the time of her death she was sixty four years of age. She emigrated to Utah November, 1875, reaching Salt Lake on the 20th of that month. She resided in Bountiful and Centerville, Davis County, for about five years, then moved to Coalville, where she had lived for the last twenty-five years. She was the mother of thirteen, children six of whom survive her, as follows: County Attorney C. A. Callis, John Callis, Mrs. Cecelia Lusty, Mrs. Dan Wilde, George and Mary Williams. She was left a widow while her family was young and worked hard to support them until they were old enough to assist in providing for themselves. When only a little girl she made donations to the building of the Salt Lake Temple and continued those donations until it was completed. She was present at the dedication of the Temple. She was baptized into the Church by the late President John Taylor when she was eight years of age. Her father and mother kept the Conference House for the Saints in Liverpool for many years and in those early days of the Church Elders Orson Pratt, Franklin D. Richards, George Q. Cannon, John Taylor, and other elders were frequent visitors at her parent's home and were entertained there. President George Q. Cannon preached her mother's funeral sermon. Although nearly all her life in straightened circumstances, financially, and unable to send her children to school, yet, she taught them good books, and taught them all she could at home when they returned work.

She was a devoted mother, and she wore out her life in caring for her children, no sacrifice being considered by her too great for her to make for them. She died, as she had lived, firm in the faith of the Gospel, and a member of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints.

CASH BARGAIN STORE, Coalville, Utah.

Is it not indisputably TRUE, that premature grey hair, worry, anxiety, privation and ACTUAL LOSS is suffered and endured in a greater or less degree by those who RUN IN DEBT in part or wholly for their necessities? With many the "Worm I the bud" lies in their conceit, Oh my credit is good, and with honorable intent, that nearly always magnifies the actual value of the work yet to be done to satisfy this credit obligation, they sail in and buy liberally what they need as well as what they want and don't particularly need. Going their way with a light heart, often forgetting that HOPE and GOOD RESOLUTION (alas how often these are but CASTLES IN THE AIR, instead of advance guards to worthy achievement) are but the initiative and stimulus to the actual work to be done.

The way out of this miasmal condition into the SUN BATHED CLEARING IS SHOWN in the plain price quotations herein given on a few of your daily necessities.
