WILL RECONVENE.

Call Issued by the Democratic State Committee

FOR STATE CONVENTION

To Reconvene at Salt Lake City on Tuesday October 22, 1895 at 10 a. m.—And Issues Also a Ringing Address Setting Forth Plainly the Causes.

The state central democratic committee and many prominent democrats from all parts of Utah met at Salt Lake city on Monday evening October 14th to consider the present crisis of church interference with state that is upon us, and after due and calm deliberation issued the following serious ane solemn address and call for the reassembling of the delegates that composed the convention that met at Ogden on September 5, 1895:

Since the nomination of the democratic state ticket, through no fault of the democratic party, there has arisen a crisis in the political affairs of this territory. It has been caused by the efforts of designing und unscrupulous republicans, who have used and distorted ill-advised statements of high church officials in order to secure their own designing ends. Efforts are being made to cause the people who have been taught to reverence authority, that the dominant church of Utah desires the defeat of the democratic ticket. This condition of things needs the serious consideration of every thinking man and woman. It presents before the people a question before which all others are dwarfed. It relates to the rights of persons and the personal and political freedom of every individual. The democratic party, which has ever been the party of the fullest freedom to the citizen, proposes to meet this issue and to fight it out that it may be settled for all time. That peace may come to the people of Utah. That the adoption of the constitution that is presented for the consideration of the people may not be defeated.

It has no quarrel with any church; it admits the right of every society to govern and control its members in its own affairs, so long as the rights of the state or the rights of other individuals are not encroached upon. Its grievance has been caused by those who are ready and willing to drag the cross of Christ in the mud and dust and filth of politics, to advance selfish ends. It matters not whether this was occasioned by innocent motives or innocent action, the condition is here, and an issue has been raised. There should be no injustice done to any man. There should be no interference with the rights of any church or of any individual; but for the good of Utah as well as for the good of democracy the question should be met in a manly way, and in a manner that the people will know that the democracy has spoken and will act accordingly.

Therefore, in view of conditions existing, in order that there may be issued a declaration of political independence and for the purpose of declaring that no man or set of men shall hereafter use the power or the name of any church or ecclesiastical authority to control the votes of the political sentiment of any citizen, the democratic state committee, duly assembled at Salt Lake city on Monday, the 14th day of October, 1895, by unanimous vote, hereby directs the reassembling of the delegates that composed the convention that met at Ogden on the 5th day of September, 1895, at Salt Lake city, on Tuesday, the 22nd day of October, 1895, at the hour of 10 a.m. All delegates to the late convention are earnestly requested that laying aside all business and excuses they attend this convention for the good of Utah and all the people, and thus aid in settling once and for all one of the questions that has so long harassed all classes in this territory.

The convention will also be empowered to take such other action than that stated in this call as the exigencies of the occasion may require.

Berlioz.

Berlioz was made miserable by his wife. He married Miss Smithson, an actress many years younger than himself. She had prolonged fits of jealousy and ill temper, ruined him by her theatrical ventures and finally fell from a carriage and broke her leg, thus ending her artistic career. Berlioz bore with her in patience until she finally left him. He was a tall man, of stern aspect and very dignified. In spite of his immense musical abilities as a composer, he could play no instrument except the guitar, and that very badly.—Scribner's.

SEALING IN LABRADOR.

Yields Many Miles Square Fairly Teeming With Seals.

Late in February the Newfoundland sealing steamers break through the ice in St. John's harbor and make their way to some northern outposts, lying there until March 10, the earliest date on which the law allows them to "go to the ice." They stand out to sea until they meet the immense fields of ice from the Arctic ocean. These fields are often many square miles in extent and fairly teem with seals. A great seal hunter told me that the sea seemed suddenly converted into an ocean of seals and ice. The steamer breaks into the jam and floats with it or skirts along the edge, the crew, 200 or 300 in number, taking to the floating ice and living there for days and nights.

The young seals fatten so rapidly that sealers say you can actually see them grow while you are looking at them. The poor creatures are easily killed, a blow with the butt end of a gaff finishing them. The hunter then "sculps," or skins them, inserting a sharp knife under the fat, and with marvelous dexterity taking off the "pelt"—skin and fat together—in about a minute and a half. A party of men will "pan" their pelts—pile them up to the number of about 1,000 and thrust a gaff with the ship's flag into the pan. When there are pans enough, the steamer breaks into the ice and hauls them aboard with a donkey winch, or the men drag them to the vessel's side.

The Newfoundland seal hunters always speak of seals as "swiles," and for our word carry they say "spell." A schoolmaster who had been listening to a seal hunter's story said sneeringly:

"Swiles! How do you spell swiles?"

"We don't spell 'em," replied the hunter; "we most generally hauls 'em!"—Gustav Kobbe in St. Nicholas

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS

Territorial, Adopted at Ogden (Sept. 5th

The democratic party of Utah in convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and justice of the people—standing upon the constitution as a foundation and limitation of the powers of the government as well as the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen—congratulate the territory—now soon to be a state—on the assured success of the policy adopted by the national organization as laid down in all its platforms.

For the democracy of the entire territory we reaffirm our fath in the permanence of federal union and our devotion to the constitution and the laws: and declare as cardinal doctrines of democracy:

First—Absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority as a vital principle of the democratic party.

Second—Total separation of church and state for the sake alike of civil and religious liberty.

Third—The liberty of the individual unvexed by sumptuary laws.

Fourth—Support by the state of the public schools.

Fifth—The supremacy of the civil over the military power.

Sixth—Exact equality of all persons before the law.

Seventh—The right to a free ballot—the right preservative of all other rights.

Eighth—That our democratic party is the friend of the laboring man in every avocation of life, and will protect his interest alike against the aggressions of monopoly as well as the commune.

We believe the restoration of the money of the constitution is now the paramount issue before the country, and insist that both parties shall plainly state their respective positions upon the question in order that the voters may intelligently express their preference. We therefore declare ourselves in favor of the immediate restoration of the tree and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, as such coinage existed prior to 1873, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. Gold and silver coin to be a full and legal tender for all debts public and private.

We denounce the republican party for the demonetization of silver in 1873 and for its repeated acts of hostility toward its remonetization.

We call attention to the fact that the country was in the throes of a financial panic when the democratic administration assumed control in 1893, and we congratulate the people upon the approaching reign of prosperity as a result of a democratic reform of the tariff; and also to the fact that factories, foundaries and mills have resumed work since the repeal of the McKinley law, and to the constantly advancing wages of workingmen in almost every industry.

We again express our hearty appreciation of the democratic congress and president in providing an enabling act by virtue of which Utah is about to assume its position as a sovereign state.

We commend the action of the democratic members of the constitutional convention in surrounding the taxing and revenue-raising power of the state by such restrictions and limitations as to preclude any squandering of public property in aid of private enterprises, and to confine the expenses of carrying on the public business within proper limits of economy, despite the almost unanimous opposition of a republican majority. And we favor the adoption of the proposed constitution.

We congratulate the women of Utah upon their admission to equal political rights with men under the provisions of the constitution proposed, and the democratic party for the earnest and able support of that measure by its representatives in the constitutional convention.

We denounce as false the charge that the democratic party of Utah has been guilty of stuffing ballot boxes or other election frauds, and condemn the republican party for its unwarranted and libelous attack upon the majority of the Utah commission, and deplore the lack of principle shown by its attempt without any evidence and for partisan purposes to besmirch the character of honorable citizens.

Utah County, Adopted at Payson Sept. 28th.

Hon. J. B. Milner, chairman of the committee on platform and resolutions reported the following platform:

The democratic party of Utah county in convention assembled declare as follows:

We hereby endorse and reaffirm the platform adopted at the convention held in Ogden on September 5, 1895.

We cordially and heartily approve of the action of said convention in nominating Joseph L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher for United States senators for Utah, and demand that the members of the legislature from Utah county use every honorable means to secure their election.

With heartfelt gratitude we appreciate the munificent donation of public lands granted by the federal government to the new state of Utah, and urge upon the legislature the necessity of passing such laws and adopting such measures as will secure to the state the most valuable public lands within the state to the extent of all grants made to it, and its public institutions.

We demand the passage of such laws as will provide for the sale of state lands to actual settlers only, in small holdings; for the selection of suitable sites for reservoirs; for the preservation from destruction or waste of the timber on the public lands; for the improvement of arid lands, and for the development of all the natural products of state lands.

We favor retention by the state of all its lands not susceptible of immediate improvement, and the leasing by the state of improvable lands, whenever such leasing will tend to their more rapid and efficient improvement and development.

We favor a revision of the laws of Utah on irrigation. First, to secure and irrevocably fix all existing rights to the use of water; and second, to provide for an increased supply of water and to distribute all the available water fairly and justly among all persons entitled to its use.

We demand the passage of such laws as will secure to all the people of the state the benefit of all land grants, and prevent, as far as possible, any monopoly of either land or water rights in Utah.

We insist upon the expenditure of public money by the state for public purposes only, and for such purposes as economically as is possible, consistent with securing efficient service, and as may absolutely be necessary for the accomplishment of such purposes.

THERE is no doubt, no failure, when you take DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure. It is pleasant, acts promptly, no bad after effects. Smoot drug Company.
