

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idaho McGlone Gibson

Bad News. "My Dear Katherine," began John's letter. "I'm sorry to hear that you are without reading any further that he had something to say that was not particularly pleasant."

"Costume Tailleur" Is Design From Paris

BY CORA MOORE. New York's Fashion Authority. NEW YORK, June 11.—Designers of street costumes are providing us with a new thrill every other day or two, so while the "strictly tailored" suit is still highly approved of Fashion, it is difficult to resist the appeal of the gayer, more fanciful models.

It is so simple that it hardly needs a description—just a straight, button-down skirt and a boxcoat with three-quarter sleeves that are practically the same width all the way down. Then, by the way of trimming, there is a wide, flat, black braid marked off with two narrow bands of dull gold braid.

OLD GUARD SAYS JOHNSON BEATEN

Reported Offering Him 2d Place With Senator Knox as Leader on Ticket

(By Universal Service.) CHICAGO, June 10.—The situation at mid-night with respect to the presidential nomination finds the old guard leaders still undecided as to who their final choice will be. Indications point strongly to Philander Knox of Pennsylvania as the man upon whom they will concentrate after their strategy has put other candidates out of the running.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

Although both sugar and fruit may be scarce and high this summer every housekeeper feels the urge to "put up" a few cans of fruit and jars of preserves.
