Robert S. McCormick Dies of Pneumonia At Home in Chicago

CHICAGO, April 16—Robert S. McCormick, former ambassador to Russia and father of United States Senator Medill McCormick, died of pneumonia this afternoon. The widow, the senator and other relatives were at his bedside when the end came.

Robert S. McCormick, educated at the old Chicago university and the University of Virginia, became a collector of books and Napoleonic biographies and etchings.

In 1878 Mr. McCormick was married to Miss Katherine Medill, daughter of Joseph Medill, who founded the Tribune.

Mr. McCormick served three years as first secretary of the United States legation in London under Minister Robert T. Lincoln.

In 1901 President McKinley appointed him minister to Austria, to succeed Addison C. Harris, and during his service the ministry was raised to an ambassadorship. In 1903 President Roosevelt transferred Mr. McCormick to be ambassador to Russia.

Mr. McCormick aided in gaining entrance to Russia for the Associated Press, which made possible a lifting of the veil which had hidden events in the Russian from the rest of the world. He also succeeded in influencing the czar's government to honor passports granted by this country to Jews.

During the Russo-Japanese war Mr. McCormick handled the interests of Japan in Russia.

In 1905 Mr. McCormick was promoted to be ambassador to France, succeeding General Horace Porter.

The Russian climate had undermined his health and in 1907 his condition caused him to retire.

In an address at a farewell dinner given in his honor by the American club at the Hotel Palais d'Orsay, Mr. McCormick advocated a world court to adjust both military and commercial differences between nations.

In his declining health, Mr. McCormick was unable to withstand pneumonia. At his death the widow, his two sons and a sister, Mrs. Samuel R. Jewett of Chicago, were beside him. A brother, William G. McCormick of Baltimore, also survive.

Belgians Deny Action to Bring Kaiser to Trial

PARIS, April 16. (By the Associated Press)—The Belgian peace conference delegation today informed the correspondent that Belgium had not been officially requested by the council of four to bring the former German emperor to trial and that the Belgian government would feel obliged to decline to take the step, even if there were any request for such action.

The Belgian delegates hold that any action should be taken by a commission representing all the associated powers. The official Belgian view, it was said, is that the former emperor cannot be arraigned for declaring war or violating the neutrality of Belgium or for any act preceding or coincident with the declaration of war.

After pointing out that there is no tribunal competent to hear such charges against the former emperor and no provision of international law covering such cases, the delegates said that Belgium expects that persons guilty of acts punishable under the criminal codes of any of the belligerent powers should be placed on trial, as the fact that theft, murder and other crimes were committed during war does not relieve the criminals of responsibility.

"If the commission desires to arraign General Baron von Manteuffel for the sacking of Louvain, General von Schroeder for the murder of Captain Fryatt and General von Sauberweig for the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, all the necessary documents will be forthcoming," said the general secretary of the delegation. "But Belgium does not seek revenge. It wants only justice. It would be small satisfaction to lock up the Kaiser for a few months in the Saint Gille prison and those who have reported that such revenge has been offered Belgium as a solace for her wrongs have sadly misunderstood the Belgian character if they thought it would be acceptable."

"The only case in which the personal responsibility of the emperor for a criminal act committed in Belgium could be established beyond doubt is in the atrocities attending the deportations of civilians and compelling them to do forced labor in Germany. In this case his responsibility is unquestioned."

IMPEACHMENT OF IOWA GOVERNOR MEETS DEFEAT

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 17—Efforts to impeach Gov. W. L. Harding for his part in the Rathbun pardon case were defeated in the Iowa house of representatives early this (Thursday) morning when that body adopted a resolution censuring the chief executive.

By a vote of 70 to 37, the house adopted its judiciary committee's minority report for censure, after substituting it for the majority report, which recommended impeachment.

Final action came shortly before 1 o'clock after nearly fifteen hours of heated debate, in which impeachment advocates bitterly assailed the governor, while speakers in his defense declared the pardon "an unwilling mistake" warranting only censure.

This ends the legislative investigation of Gov. Harding's action in pardoning Ernest Rathbun, the young son of an Ida county farmer, who was convicted of criminal assault and sentenced to life imprisonment. The pardon was granted last November.

The house will next take up the recommendations of the judiciary in regard to Attorney General H. M. Havner, whose methods in obtaining revocation of the pardon in February, resulting in commitment of young Rathbun to the reformatory, have been investigated by the committee.

Both majority and minority reports also have been presented to the house in the case of Havner. The majority recommendation is for complete exoneration, while the minority report declares Havner guilty of misconduct and recommends his censure.

Utah Copper Agent Is Short to the Extent of $17,000

SALT LAKE, April 17—Said to be short $17,000 in his account as agent for the Utah Copper company in collecting from the company's employees for Liberty bonds sold to them on the installment plan, Louis F. Wetzel, clerk at the company's Magna plant, is being sought on a warrant charging him with embezzlement.

A complaint, sworn to by Charles T. S. Parsons of the Utah Copper company, charging Wetzel with embezzlement, was filed in the office of the county attorney yesterday morning. It specifically alleges that he appropriated to his own use $160 paid to him on October 30, 1918, in eight $20 bills by an employee of the company on Liberty bonds purchased. His collections, involved in the alleged shortage, range from March, 1915, to February, 1919.

Wetzel is said to have been seen leaving the city Saturday night in a new Scripps-Booth automobile. No trace of him further than this could be found yesterday.

To permit its employees to purchase Liberty bonds on the installment plan, the Utah Copper company bought out right such bonds as the employees pledged themselves to take, and entrusted Wetzel with the matter of collecting the installment payments from the employees. So far as is known, according to the information given to Paul H. Ray, assistant county attorney, no bonds are missing in connection with the shortage of funds charged against Wetzel.

GERMAN REPLY TO ENTENTE WILL BE MADE IN MAY

PARIS, April 16. (By the Associated Press)—The entente delegates to the peace conference believe Germany will require at least one week after receiving the peace treaty before it can be digested and an answer prepared and also that the delegates will need about four days for travel between Berlin and Versailles and return. Consequently, they express the opinion that it is hardly likely that Germany's answer will be available before May 6th.

Austria, Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria probably will be summoned to Versailles a fortnight after Germany to consider their peace treaties, which temporarily are overshadowed by the German negotiations.

There is the greatest uncertainty concerning the disposition of the Turkish empire. The entente apparently is anxious to have the United States accept Armenia and Cilicia as a mandatory but the American disposition towards this proposal has not been indicated clearly. The future of Constantinople has not been determined although some of the American delegates would prefer to have the United States take charge of it rather than of undeveloped territory and convert it into a model city with modern docks and ideal sanitation.

The British, French and Italians apparently are willing to have the United States take over Constantinople as this would void disputes which might result from European jealousies. The British have about 150,000 troops in the Turkish empire now while the French have only 1500 there.

The desirability now is being discussed of having a separate commission from each of the five big countries go into the orient and investigate Syria, Palestine and Armenia rather than have joint commissions do this work.

NEW YORK, April 16—The decision to postpone the strike followed a statement by Mr. Hughes that the war department, the navy department and the United States shipping board "would not tolerate a strike." He said he was speaking for William E. Wilson, secretary of labor.

Mr. Hughes and union officials then began a long conference at which he is said to have outlined clearly the attitude of government officials.

At a meeting of the union tomorrow Mr. Hughes' statement will be submitted to the men for action.

Governor Harding Is Very Ill and Friends Barred From Room

DES MOINES, Ia., April 16—Gov. W. L. Harding, ill from diabetes, at his home here, received only meagre details of the debate in the Iowa house of representatives tonight in regard to recommendations for his impeachment.

Even intimate friends were barred from the sick room, on order of the attending physician, Dr. C. B. Shates, who said it might be a week before the governor would be able to leave his bed.

"The nervous tension under which the governor has been laboring naturally has aggravated his condition," the physician said. "He has lost thirty-nine pounds in three weeks. Defeat of the impeachment resolution would relieve his nervousness considerably and hasten his recovery materially."

Diamond SQUEEGEE TREAD Tires

When Your Tires "Cash in" Your Checks

Just as certainly as you buy a tire, you know that some day it will "cash in" its checks—and yours!

That day you'll measure its mileage against the sum you paid for it. Not until then, probably, will you know whether that brand of tires really gives you your money's worth—

Unless those tires be Diamonds. You count on Diamonds to roll up 5,000, 6,000 and 8,000 miles persistently—though they COST LESS than most other tires.

For example, in winter driving with chains, 341 Diamonds averaged over 5,000 miles on Quaker Cab Co. taxis in Philadelphia. The Texas Co., with over 500 cars, averages between 6,000 and 8,000 miles with Diamonds.

Why not cut your tire upkeep with a Diamond?
