East High Meets Davis Grid Stars In Salt Lake Today

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Oct. 17.—Coach Out Romney's team of grid-ers will battle the husky eleven of the Davis county high today on Cummings field.

The East high first team has not been scored on this year and it is expected that they will put up a hard fight with the strong Davis County Farmers this afternoon in order to keep their record clean.

The team is in tip-top condition. The probable lineup: East high. Davis County. Papworth. C. Harvey. Anderson. G. Barker. Dyer. H. D. Harvey. Kump. J. Heider. Dern. L. Love. Smith. J. Dawson. Henderson. J. Barton. Livingston. J. Sanders. Tauber. J. Adams. Whitney. J. Chitman.

Many students from Davis County high will be down and the entire student body from the East high is expected to turn out to see the game.

SHORTAGE OF CARS IS AGAIN SERIOUS. POCATELLO, Idaho, Oct. 16.—The seriousness of the car shortage situation in the western part of the state is still unabated, according to reports received in this city, and so numerous have been the companies to the public utilities commission that the commission has sent a man out through the affected district to make a complete survey of the situation to enable the commission to place the matter intelligently before the railroad administration.

Apple shippers are equally affected with the potato shippers, and a general congestion of these products is said to have resulted from the prolonged shortage of cars. The reports from the various parts of the affected district are more or less conflicting, and one of the purposes of the inspection trip is to determine just where the cars are most needed, and to get them spotted in the shortest time possible.
