CITY MAY GIVE $500 FOR BATTALION'S MONUMENT

Ogden City will appropriate $500 to the fund for the monument to be erected in commemoration of the Mormon Battalion if the resolution introduced last night by Commissioner Miles L. Jones is passed. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, the battalion known as the Mormon Battalion played a prominent part in the events that led up to securing to the United States that territory which now comprises the state of Utah, as well as other states in the west;

"Therefore, it seems quite fitting and proper that steps be taken by the state of Utah in erecting a monument in commemoration of the labors and the work performed by this noble band of men under the direction of the government of the United States; and,

"Inasmuch as this particular tract of land which comprises county of Weber and city of Ogden at one time was Mexican territory and through the efforts of members of this battalion the land upon which Ogden City is now located was purchased by members of this battalion, from Miles M. Good-year, who held the title secured from Mexico;

"Therefore, it seems quite fitting that the city, as a municipality, should be represented by contributing to the erection of this monument. I believe in time to come many of our distinguished citizens will be remembered through the erection of monuments or statues erected in public places. Among these should be such men as Peter Skeen, Ogden, Miles M. Good-year, Capt. James Brown, Lorin Farr, David Eccles, Fred J. Kiesel, J. M. Browning, and others who have been prominent in the upbuilding of this part of the country; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Commissioners appropriate the sum of $500 as a contribution of Ogden City to this fund; and be it further

Resolved, That the city auditor is hereby authorized to draw a warrant for this amount in favor of James H. Douglas, chairman of the Mormon Battalion fund committee.

Respectfully submitted, MILES L. JONES, Superintendent of Parks, Public Property and Public Safety.

and go into the mountains." New frequently played with Leonard's children, the witness said, and on one occasion took their marbles when he left.

"Catching crabs and taking 'dry' baths and fleeing from imaginary enemies were favorite pursuits of Harry New, according to the testimony today of Gustave Leonhardt, of Venice.

"I saw him under a wharf one day," the witness said, "catching crabs and apparently having a fine time. I asked him what he was going to do with them and he said 'take them home and tame them.'"

"Another time he was visiting at my house," the witness continued. "I found him in a tub, clad in underwear and socks, at 1 o'clock in the morning. There was no water in the tub. I said to him 'what's the grand idea?' "Oh," he said, "I just thought I'd take a good bath and get ready for tomorrow."

Numerous other strange acts were attributed to New by the witness in the course of an examination which brought many sharp clashes between opposing counsel.

When the afternoon session was begun the prosecution was ready to undertake cross-examination of Leonard.

their best to nose him out, despite his lack of condition.

Martin, who was in top-top shape, and would have given the pick of the land all they could have accommodated on Armistice day, when he easily copped the Oregon American Legion abbreviated marathon, swept the Rose tournament committee several times regarding the four-mile run. He was finally informed that it had been called off, whereupon he ceased off in his training and abandoned his practice altogether, until informed to the contrary, and urged last week by the athletic authorities in charge of the race to enter. For the last week he has been romping through the snow and braving the frost-laden atmosphere to try to regain his condition. Yesterday morning he stepped off a mile on the indoor track of the Desert gymnasium in 4:59. Though his first attempt indoors in seven years and handicapped by the lack of resiliency in the indoor track, the little speed king surprised his timer by the ease with which he worked.

"The first thirty to finish are to get box seats at the big game. I want a closeup of that battle," was as far as Martin would commit himself.

The Salt Lake Elks are sending Martin, who has already carried their colors to victory in a half dozen major distance events in the Rocky mountain region.

Abolition of the Picture Bride System Stirs Up Debate

TOKIO, Sunday, Dec. 28.—Abolition of the system by which "picture brides" were permitted to emigrate to the United States is regarded here as an effort to solve problems arising between America and Japan, and additional evidence of a desire to establish smooth relations between the two countries. Hope is expressed that this step will check additional Japanese legislation in the United States.

"If picture brides are prohibited from going to America for the purpose of placing anti-Japanese agitation," says the Mirako sarcastically, "the time has come when Japanese should be prohibited from giving birth to children in the United States."

Scotch Demanding Elimination of 'King Macbeth'

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—A resolution demanding the elimination of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" from school curriculums on the ground that it was a libel on the Scotch in "its misrepresentation in presenting King Macbeth as a traitor and murderer" was adopted here last night by the League of Scottish Veterans of the World War. The resolution was addressed to the Newark, N. J., board of education, which recently barred "The Merchant of Venice" from the schools because of the alleged slander to the Jewish race.

The resolution was signed by Ian McTavish, captain of the Gordon Highlanders; Malcolm MacPherson, captain of the "Black Watch," and Donald Bailey, lieutenant of the Royal Scotch Fusiliers. "If they have banned Shylock I see no reason why they should not ban Macbeth," said Captain McTavish. "If the Jewish gabardine is to be cleaned they should also remove the stain from the Scottish kilt."

State, city and church officials and many musicians have promised their patronage and attendance. Mayor Feary has agreed to attend and speak in favor of a municipal chorus for Salt Lake.

Upon the success of the performance Thursday depends the development of plans for a community music festival to be held during the spring months, according to George D. Pyper, president of the oratorio society.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

CHICOPEE, Mass., Dec. 29.—M. Edward Lyons, proprietor of the Hadley hotel, was arrested today on three warrants sworn out by State Detective J. V. Daly, of Northampton. Lyons is charged with manslaughter in causing the death of Michael Schinsky of Hadley, who died Sunday. It is alleged he drank some of the poisonous liquor, said to have been purchased in the Hadley hotel. Lyons was released under $5,500 bond. The other two charges refer to illegal liquor selling. ### Strange Acts of Harry New Told by Witness in Court

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—Numerous alleged peculiar acts of Harry New, ranging from catching crabs to driving a team of horses into an apple tree were presented to a jury here today by the defense at the trial of New on a charge of having murdered Fred Leaser, his fiancé, in an effort to prove him mentally incompetent.

Seven witnesses were called during the day by the defense and when adjournment was taken, attorneys for New announced further testimony along the same line might be expected tomorrow.

Sharp clashes between attorneys for the prosecution and the defense were frequent during one of which Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, promised to "take care" of Lecompte Davis of counsel for New "any time and place" Davis might set.

Lansing Denies Paying Bail For William O. Jenkins

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Reports alleged to have been circulated early this month in New York by the Mexican consulate there that "President Wilson or Secretary Lansing paid the necessary bail money to have the American consul agent, W. O. Jenkins, released from the Puebla (Mexico) jail," will be investigated by the senate foreign relations sub-committee inquiring into Mexican affairs. It was announced tonight by Francis J. Kearful, counsel for the sub-committee.

In connection with the alleged reports which Mr. Kearful said had been called to the attention of Chairman Fall of the sub-committee by a correspondent in New York, it was announced that Rafael Nieto, sub-secretary of finance under President Carranza, and Emiliano Lopez Figueroa and Rafael Martinez Carillo, Mexican attorneys in New York, will be subpoenaed by the sub-committee. Nieto and Figueroa, the "correspondent" charged, concocted a story circulated about New York, and connecting Secretary Lansing and President Wilson with J. Salter Hansen, who furnished the bail for Jenkins' release from jail.

Secretary Lansing, when his attention was called tonight to alleged reports, declared the "whole story was absolutely ridiculous." The secretary, in commenting on another alleged Mexican consulate report that he had conferred with Hansen before the latter left for Mexico, said he did not know Hansen and had not even heard of him until reports to the state department carried the information that it was he who had furnished Jenkins' bail.
