

Salt Lake Society

Mr. and Mrs. Night Starr Jordan of Provo entertained at dinner Monday evening at the Salt Lake Country club in honor of Miss Mina Taylor of this city and Francis Litchfield of West Virginia, whose marriage took place Wednesday.

One long table was decorated in garden flowers in tones of pink. Covers were laid for twenty-four. Dancing followed dinner.

Miss Vera Stanley entertained at luncheon at the Newhouse hotel Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. Beverly of San Diego, who is a guest at the Stanley home, on her way from a visit to St. Louis.

The table was decorated in American Beauty roses and marguerites. The guests, besides Mrs. Beverly, were Mrs. Charles Lamborn, Sr., Mrs. George Cudgell, Jr., Miss Mabel Christensen and Mrs. T. A. Stanley.

A pretty arranged luncheon was given by Miss Helen Hein and Miss Dorothy Hein at the Newhouse hotel Monday afternoon in honor of their sister, Miss Marie Hein, a bride of the week. The table was decorated in pink sweet peas arranged in a crystal basket. The place cards were in bridal designs.

Covers were laid for the following guests, besides the guest of honor: Mrs. Lloyd L. Ewing, Mrs. Thomas H. Angell, Mrs. Edwin North, Mrs. John E. Sears, Mrs. W. H. Watson, Miss Gladys Mumford, Miss Gladys Thomas, Miss Florence Oliver, Miss Minnie Samson, Miss Sara Samson, Miss Mary Holden, Mrs. Anne Mathews, Miss Josephine, Mrs. April Hein and Miss Lillian Hein.

In honor of a number of small visitors in the city, Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard entertained at a children's party at the lawn at her home on Fifth East street Monday from 5:20 until 7:30 o'clock. The guests of honor were Arthur, Jane, Ruth and Robert Behal, children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Behal of the lawn at Thomas Benton Hunter, Jr. and Hale Hunter sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter of San Francisco; Edward, John and David Pavlek sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Parker of Palo Alto, Cal.

Tea was served from one long table on the lawn decorated in garden flowers. In attendance, besides the guests of honor, were the three children of the hostess, Peggy Leonard, Martha Leonard and P. Leonard, J. Barbara Halloran, Polly Halloran, Kathleen Wilkin, Robert Wilkin, Cullen Wilkin, Robert Bower, Bill McCrea, Beatrice McCrea and Marion Fuller.

The hostess was assisted by a number of mothers of the children, including Mrs. Behal, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Garrett B. Williams, Mrs. W. M. McCrea, Mrs. Horace H. Smith, Mrs. Ruel C. Halloran, Mrs. L. R. Fuller and Mrs. T. G. Blacklock.

Miss Freda Young, daughter of Mrs. A. L. Lindquist and George F. Dunning of Boise, Idaho, were married at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. John's Episcopal church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rex Henriquez, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Newhouse hotel.

The church was decorated in Canterbury bells, roses, Shasta dahlias and ferns. The bride wore a gown of imported hand-embroidered organza in rose design. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried bride roses. One of the bridesmaids, Miss Charlotte Lee, wore lavender organza and carried lavender sweet peas and gypsophila. Another bridesmaid, Miss Nina Young, wore rainbow organza and net and carried pink sweet peas. Miss Vivian Young, the third bridesmaid, wore pale green tulle and carried white sweet peas. Quintin Watte was train bearer and wore a white linen suit. Dorothy Watte, wearing a white lingerie frock, was flower girl.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Constance Curran, organist; Miss Lorence Watte, violinist; Miss Katherine Woodbury, soloist. Miss Woodbury sang "I Love You Truly," just preceding the ceremony.

The decorations for the breakfast table were pink roses, arranged in a basket as a centerpiece.

The couple left on an early afternoon train for a wedding trip through the northwest, and will be at home in Glenn's Ferry, Idaho.

Mrs. James Iverson, Jr., entertained at luncheon Wednesday at her home on East Third street in honor of Miss Ann Lane of Latta Creek.

Mrs. J. Earl Ballantyne, formerly Miss Day Masset, whose wedding took place in Calais, France, during the early part of the week. Mr. Ballantyne is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Ballantyne of this city. The Ballantynes expect to arrive in Ogden about the first of August.

Mrs. Harry Diamond, formerly Miss Anna Erlich, who was recently married at Preston, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Diamond are en route to New York where they will spend their honeymoon. They will make their home in Salt Lake. Mrs. Diamond is an Ogden girl and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Erlich.

The marriage of Miss Marie Hein and Fred C. Mathews took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hein, 120 West First North street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elmer I. Gosden and was followed by a wedding supper.

The rooms were decorated in summer flowers. Pink sweet peas in a crystal basket formed a centerpiece for the supper table. Crystal candles, stuck with pink maline and holding pink candles, were at the corners of the table.

The bride wore an ivory tulle gown, trimmed in Chantilly lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried opahua roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Hein, sister of the bride, wore lavender organza and carried a shower of lavender sweet peas. Thomas Mathews was best man.

Assisting in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hein were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mathews, Miss Ann Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Ward and Miss Dorothy Hein. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Thomas H. Angell, Mrs. Don R. Sears, Miss Gladys Thomas, Miss Gladys Mumford, Miss Sara Samson, Miss Minnie Samson, Miss Josephine Mathews and Miss Evelyn Anderson.

The couple will spend their honeymoon in Yellowstone park and will be at home until fall at the Hein residence.

Elaborately appointed was the wedding of Miss Marguerite McIlwain and Thomas Brown, Trenton, N. J., which took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the McIlwain apartments at the Hotel Utah. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph S. Glass, pastor of the Catholic church of Salt Lake. The wedding music was furnished by the orchestra of St. Mary's academy, directed by Mrs. Edward McQuinn.

Congratulations and a blessing were uttered by Pope Benedict from Rome. A cabaret was also received from Harry Lauder from Glasgow. Mr. McCrea and Mr. Lauder are friends.

The McIlwain suite was decorated in Canterbury bells, roses, ferns and palms. Musicans were concealed behind a series of tall, narrow screens of white satin, draped in lily of the valley lace, caught with pearls. A tulle veil, edged with point lace, was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried bride roses and orchids.

The matron of honor, Mrs. James Stewart Samson, sister of the bride, wore silver and black chiffon over orange satin, with platinum and diamond ornaments. The bride's gown was a gold mesh bag with a French enamel top.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony on the roof garden of the hotel. One long table was decorated with a large wedding cake and baskets of Canterbury bells. Covers were laid for fifty.

Assisting in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McGinn of South Bend, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Snow. The couple left on an afternoon train for Lake Tahoe and San Francisco. They will make their home in San Francisco.

The going-away gown was a Paul Poiret model of jade green, with a white hat and white fox fur. The bride wore a tulle gown with hat and gloves to match. The couple will spend their honeymoon on the coast and will be at home at the Cathlamet apartments in this city after August 1.

The marriage of Miss Mary Williams and Robert W. Bowman took place in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Beesley, and his mother, Mrs. R. Bowman. The breakfast table had for its decoration a low bowl of pink roses and sweet peas, and the place cards were hand-painted in rosebuds. Covers were laid for the immediate families and the bridal party.

A large reception was given in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Williams, 34 J street.

The house was decorated in palms ferns and garden flowers. The reception hall and living rooms were decorated in red roses and scarlet sweet peas. The drawing room, where the bride party received the guests, was decorated in pink and white roses, Shasta dahlias, palms and ferns. An alcove was banked with palms with baskets of Shasta dahlies in the foreground.

The dining room was decorated in a yellow color scheme. The table was covered with a clove lace cover over yellow satin, and held for its centerpiece a tall basket of deep yellow scabellardia, with the handle tied with a bow of yellow tulle. Silver candelabra containing yellow cathedral candles were at either end of the table.

The bride wore a gown of filet lace over white satin. Her veil was of tulle with a band of pearls, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Opheelia roses and white sweet peas. Miss Emma Williams, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore American Beauty tulle over metal cloth and carried a shower bouquet of lavender sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Carol Hutchings and Miss Olive Aveson. Miss Hutchings wore peach-colored tulle over satin and Miss Aveson's gown was pink georgette crepe over satin. Both maids carried pink and white sweet peas. Frank Muller was best man.

Assisting the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Williams, and the wedding party in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. R. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Worcester, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. W. Christensen, Mrs. W. B. Kendall, Mrs. Ray P. Downs, Miss Isabelle Halton, Miss Leona Hauerbach, Miss Lucile Castleton, Miss Martha Williams, Miss Josephine Free, Miss Gwen Williams, Miss Beas Howe, Miss Evelyn Fallard and Mrs. Loroy Parry. Little Marjorie Williams, Memphis Hammond and Ruth Beesley served the wedding cake.

Dancing was enjoyed on the lawn which was illuminated with vari-colored Japanese lanterns. Punch was served. The Liberty orchestra furnished music, stationed around a bowser of palms on the veranda. Two hundred and fifty guests were present.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in this city.

The marriage of Miss Laura Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Penfold, and A. V. Holman of Spokane, Wash., took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davies, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Shultz, on Second avenue.

The table was decorated in Shasta dahlias, arranged in a basket as a centerpiece. The place cards were in bridal designs. Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. E. A. Penfold, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holman, Mrs. A. M. Daly.

The marriage of Miss Evangeline Erickson and Wayne Baker took place Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Erickson, 266 West Sixth street.

The bride wore a tulle gown with hat and gloves to match. The couple will spend their honeymoon on the coast and will be at home at the Cathlamet apartments in this city after August 1.

A musical program was furnished by Mrs. Jacob Ruml, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Edna Gannett and Miss Irma Groves. Mrs. Leahy Montgomery, former president of the club, gave a talk and some readings.

Assisting Mrs. Lee in entertaining were Miss Helen White, Mrs. E. H. Stockman, Mrs. Frank Sherwood, Mrs. R. A. Wolfe and Mrs. E. H. Martin, members of the entertainment committee of the club.

Miss Charlotte Lewis of Pocatello, who has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Lewis, 1917 Third avenue, returned to her home Sunday. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis in Pocatello. The party made the trip to Pocatello by motor.

The marriage of Miss Laura Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Penfold, and A. V. Holman of Spokane, Wash., took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davies, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Shultz, on Second avenue.

The table was decorated in Shasta dahlias, arranged in a basket as a centerpiece. The place cards were in bridal designs. Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. E. A. Penfold, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holman, Mrs. A. M. Daly.

The marriage of Miss Evangeline Erickson and Wayne Baker took place Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Erickson, 266 West Sixth street.

The bride wore a tulle gown with hat and gloves to match. The couple will spend their honeymoon on the coast and will be at home at the Cathlamet apartments in this city after August 1.

A musical program was furnished by Mrs. Jacob Ruml, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Edna Gannett and Miss Irma Groves. Mrs. Leahy Montgomery, former president of the club, gave a talk and some readings.

Mrs. O. K. Cochran, and daughter Lucile, who are house guests at the home of Mrs. Cochran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of Glenwood Acres. Mrs. Cochran will visit for three or four weeks in Ogden.

The marriage of Miss Laura Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Penfold, and A. V. Holman of Spokane, Wash., took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davies, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Shultz, on Second avenue.

The table was decorated in Shasta dahlias, arranged in a basket as a centerpiece. The place cards were in bridal designs. Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. E. A. Penfold, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holman, Mrs. A. M. Daly.

The marriage of Miss Evangeline Erickson and Wayne Baker took place Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Erickson, 266 West Sixth street.

The bride wore a tulle gown with hat and gloves to match. The couple will spend their honeymoon on the coast and will be at home at the Cathlamet apartments in this city after August 1.

A musical program was furnished by Mrs. Jacob Ruml, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Edna Gannett and Miss Irma Groves. Mrs. Leahy Montgomery, former president of the club, gave a talk and some readings.

Messages were received by his parents during the early part of the week announcing the wedding. Mrs. Ballantyne is the daughter of Edouard Mastern, owner of a large lace factory in Calais. She is a musician of exceptional ability. Prior to Mr. Ballantyne's departure for France, he was in attendance at a college in Philadelphia, where he won the K. of C. scholarship after completion of one year in architecture study. Mr. and Mrs. Ballantyne are expected to arrive in Ogden about August 1 and will spend one month at the canyon home of Prof. and Mrs. Ballantyne. Mr. Ballantyne will take up his work at the College of Philadelphia during the coming year, where the young couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Boyer, who have been the guests of Mrs. Boyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bowen left Monday for Springville, to visit relatives there. They were accompanied to Springville by Mr. Boyer's mother, Mrs. C. A. Boyer, who also has been a guest at the Brown home.

Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Gale Rose, a number of young people enjoyed a camping trip to South Fork canyon, spending Saturday and returning Sunday. Those included in the outing party were Misses Betty Hurst, Kate Fenton, Lottie Baker, Zula Baker, Claudia Roberts, Sherna Henderson, Master Lucian Kay, Kenneth Hess, Ralph Nye, Adelbert Craven, Howard Lindsey and Carlos Chez.

Of interest to a large number of Ogden residents is the wedding of J. Earl Ballantyne, son of Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Ballantyne. J. Earl Ballantyne was married recently at Calais, France, to Miss Day Masset, Calais.

Iceland is the source of the agate and chalcidony which are made into jewelry for bearings in watches and electrical instruments.

(Additional Society Will Be Found of Page Twelve.)

Society

(Continued from preceding page.)

Shaughnessy, S. M. Cole, E. A. Childers, Isella Tyre Norman, Nic Prout, Lenda L. Irwin, George W. Prout and J. H. Beckingpaugh.

A birthday celebration was held in compliment to W. H. Williams last Tuesday evening at the Williams home on Twenty-fifth street. The evening was enjoyed pleasantly by the friends and members of the family who gathered for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Shamsly of Sidney, Ohio, have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Carson for the past week. They left for Yellowstone park and will visit Pacific coast points before returning to their home in Ohio.

Mrs. Nellie Brown, sister of Mrs. Minnie Warrington, 541 Thirty-fifth street, arrived Saturday morning from St. Joseph Mo. Mrs. Brown is past matron of the eastern star and is also an active worker in the Hebrew lodge.

The regular meeting of the board members of the Daughters of Pioneers was held at the Weber Normal college, Monday afternoon. Mrs. F. N. Taylor, president, presided at the meeting. Reports were given on the dime fund and plans were made for the coming week of the new year. Plans were also outlined for the annual field day, the date of which will be announced later. Many new and interesting topics were discussed which will be arranged on the program of the coming two years. Every camp has been urged to help in the 500 membership drive, so that now camps may be formed for the fall work. Regular meetings will be taken up again the last Thursday in September.

The Ladies Aid of the English Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. Peter Swanson, 2765 Grant avenue, Wednesday afternoon. The regular business meeting was held and a social hour followed later. Roses were used for the decorations of the Swanson home. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ezra Clark Rich was hostess to the members of the Martha society last Monday afternoon at her home, 2652 Washington avenue.

Members of the Royal Purple club met at the home of Mrs. J. Fenstermaker last Monday evening and spent an evening in playing high five. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Sophie Wetherell Reed left Ogden Monday for New York where she will attend Columbia university and also study at the Chalf school of dancing. Mrs. Reed will spend some time visiting the municipal play grounds of New York, Newark and Chicago. She expects to be gone for two months.

Milton Francis Widman of Ogden and Miss Evelyn E. Westling of Cheyenne, Wyo., were married at the resi-

Mrs. Kate Toponce, first worthy grand matron of the Queen Esther Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star organized in Ogden twenty-one years ago. Mrs. Toponce entertained past worthy grand matrons of the Miriam Chapter and Queen Esther Chapter at a luncheon, Friday afternoon.

Lake Sunday on their way from the Pacific coast to New York and Atlantic City, continuing their honeymoon trip. The couple will return to Salt Lake July 25 to make their home. They will be given a large reception on their return by Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parver, parents of the bride, who was Miss Eugenia Parver, well known in musical circles of this city.

Mrs. A. Halpin and daughter and Mrs. J. Harris of New York and J. Spitzer of Denver are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parver. They came to attend the wedding of Miss Eugenia Parver and Samuel Makoff and will remain for a reception to be given for Mr. and Mrs. Makoff on their return from the Atlantic coast July 25.

Members of the Welfare club and their friends enjoyed a session Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Warren Lee, 1339 Third East street. The rooms were decorated in garden roses. A basket of pink and white roses was the centerpiece for the tea table.

A musical program was furnished by Mrs. Jacob Ruml, Miss Ruth Williams, Miss Edna Gannett and Miss Irma Groves. Mrs. Leahy Montgomery, former president of the club, gave a talk and some readings.